Race Class And Power:

Race, Class, and Power, 1968 Race, Class, and Power in the Alabama Coalfields, 1908-21 Brian Kelly, 2001 In this lucid and supremely readable study Brian Kelly challenges the prevailing notion that white workers were the main source of resistance to racial equality in the Jim Crow South Kelly explores the forces that brought the black and white miners of Birmingham Alabama together during the hard fought strikes of 1908 and 1920 He examines the systematic efforts by the region s powerful industrialists to foment racial divisions as a means of splitting the workforce preventing unionization and holding wages to the lowest levels in the country He also details the role played by Birmingham s small but influential black middle class whose espousal of industrial accommodation outraged black miners and revealed significant tensions within the African American community In Their Own Interests Earl Lewis, 1991 Since the Civil War African Americans have made great efforts to empower themselves Focusing on Norfolk Virginia Earl Lewis shows how blacks have had to balance competing inclinations for conscious inaction and purposeful agitation as they sought to promote their own interests at home and in the workplace In Their Own Interests presents a cross section of southern urban blacks the power brokers and lesser knowns Garvey followers and communist enthusiasts who came to live in Norfolk between the Civil War and the Civil Rights Movement Lewis seeks to recreate the texture of African American life by examining the lives of the people after they moved to the city the jobs and assistance they secured the houses families and institutions they built the battles they waged and the culture they shared In Their Own Interests moves African American urban and social history beyond the current intellectual crossroads Drawing on a variety of sources Lewis tells the interconnected story of race class and power in twentieth century Norfolk His study has far reaching implications and should be of wide interest Race, Class, and Power Raymond W. Mack, 1968 Race, Class, Power, and Organizing in East Baltimore Marisela B. Gomez, 2013 This book examines the historical and current practices of rebuilding abandoned and disinvested communities in America Using a community in East Baltimore as an example Race Class Power and Organizing in East Baltimore shows how the social structure of race and class segregation of the past contributed in the creation of our present day urban poor and low income communities of color and continue to affect the way we rebuild these communities today Specific to East Baltimore is the presence of a powerful and prestigious medical complex which has directly and indirectly affected the abandonment and rebuilding of East Baltimore While it has grown in power and land over the past 100 years the neighborhoods around it have decreased in size and capital widening the gap between the rich and the poor The author offers a critical analysis of the relationships between powerful private institutions like the Johns Hopkins Medical Institutions and government and their intention in rebuilding urban communities by asking the question How do we determine equity in benefit Focusing on a current rebuilding project using eminent domain to displace historical African American communities and the acquiring of land for private development this book details the role of community organizing in challenging these types of non community participatory rebuilding processes resulting in the gentrification of urban neighborhoods The detailed analysis of the community organizing process when families are displaced offers similarly affected communities a tool box for challenging current developers and government in unfair rebuilding practices The context of these practices highlights the current laws and policies that contribute to continued displacement and disadvantage to poor communities without addressing the rhetoric of the intention of government subsidized private development This book examines the effect of such non participatory and non transparent rebuilding practices on the health of the people and place

Race, class, and power ... [Compiled by] Raymond W. Mack. (Second edition.) Raymond Wright MACK,1968 Orpheus and Power Michael G. Hanchard,1998-10-19 From recent data on disparities between Brazilian whites and non whites in areas of health education and welfare it is clear that vast racial inequalities do exist in Brazil contrary to earlier assertions in race relations scholarship that the country is a racial democracy Here Michael George Hanchard explores the implications of this increasingly evident racial inequality highlighting Afro Brazilian attempts at mobilizing for civil rights and the powerful efforts of white elites to neutralize such attempts Within a neo Gramscian framework Hanchard shows how racial hegemony in Brazil has hampered ethnic and racial identification among non whites by simultaneously promoting racial discrimination and false premises of racial equality Drawing from personal archives of and interviews with participants in the Movimento Negro of Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo Hanchard presents a wealth of empirical evidence about Afro Brazilian militants comparing their effectiveness with their counterparts in sub Saharan Africa the United States and the Caribbean in the post World War II period He analyzes in comprehensive detail the extreme difficulties experienced by Afro Brazilian activists in identifying and redressing racially specific patterns of violation and discrimination Hanchard argues that the Afro American struggle to subvert dominant cultural forms and practices carries the danger of being subsumed by the contradictions that these dominant forms produce

On Class, Race, and Educational Reform Antonia Darder,Cleveland Hayes II,Howard Ryan,2023-03-23 On Class Race and Educational Reform provokes new dialogue between Marxists critical race theory scholars and other race inspired educational theorists with the aim of countering racism and class inequalities The book opens with a lead chapter by Howard Ryan a doctoral student with a background in teaching and labor organizing that substantively engages questions of class race and educational reform In response to the opening chapter educational theorists from Germany South Africa the UK and the USA provide insightful and penetrating responses highlighting the differences and similarities in perspectives The responses show how educators can overcome theoretical differences to create international collaborations and educational campaigns of solidarity that counter the treacherous impact of racism and class inequalities in the classroom and beyond The book includes a Foreword by Stephen Brookfield University of St Thomas USA and an Afterword by Cheryl Matias University of Kentucky USA

Legacies of Power in American Music Judith A. Mabary,2022-10-24 This volume honors and extends the contributions of educator and scholar Dr Michael J Budds to the field of musicology particularly the study of American music As the longtime editor of two book series for the College Music Society Budds nurtured a wide range of scholarship in American music and had a lasting impact on the field This book brings together scholars who worked with Budds as a colleague editor or mentor to carry on his legacy of passionate engagement with America s rich and varied musical heritage Ranging through jazz gospel Americana and film music to American classical and addressing music s social contexts and analytical structure the research gathered here attests to the diversity of the mosaic that is American music and the numerous scholarly approaches that have been taken to the subject Race, Class, and Power in Brazil University of California, Los Angeles. Center for Afro-American Studies,1985 Democracy and the Welfare State Amy

Gutmann,2020-09-01 The essays in this volume explore the moral foundations and the political prospects of the welfare state in the United States Among the questions addressed are the following Has public support for the welfare state faded Can a democratic state provide welfare without producing dependency on welfare Is a capitalist or socialist economy consistent with the preservation of equal liberty and equal opportunity for all citizens Why and in what ways does the welfare state discriminate against women Can we justify limiting immigration for the sake of safeguarding the welfare of Americans How can elementary and secondary education be distributed consistently with democratic values The volume confronts powerful criticisms that have been leveled against the welfare state by conservatives liberals and radicals and suggests reforms in welfare state programs that might meet these criticisms The contributors are Joseph H Carens Jon Elster Robert K Fullinwider Amy Gutmann Jennifer L Hochschild Stanley Kelley Jr Richard Krouse Michael McPherson J Donald Moon Carole Pateman Dennis Thompson and Michael Walzer Crime, Inequality and Power Eileen Leonard,2015-04-10 Crime Inequality and Power challenges the dominant definitions of crime and the criminal through its uniquely comparative approach In this book Eileen Leonard analyzes multiple forms of criminal behavior in the United States including violence sexual assault theft and drug law violations whilst also asking readers to consider the parallels between crimes that are rarely thought comparable Leonard s juxtaposition of familiar street crimes such as car theft alongside large scale corporate theft vividly exposes profound inequalities in the way crime is defined and the treatment it receives within the criminal justice system Leonard s analysis also reveals the underlying inequalities of race class and gender which enable the perpetuation of such crimes as well as calling into question the reality of fundamental American ideals of fairness and equal justice Moreover the book questions whether current policies that punish street crime excessively while minimizing the crimes of the powerful fail to keep the public safe A broader consideration of crime and the inequalities that underlie it offers a fresh opportunity to rethink public policies and enduring issues of crime and criminal justice Challenging the many persistent inequalities in the perception of and response to crime this critique of American crime and punishment will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as scholars in the fields of criminology sociology and law
