* =  $p < 0.05$ , ** =  $p < 0.01$ , *** =  $p < 0.001$ ; Overall Probability = the probability or risk of any driver being stopped regardless of race. Probability by Race indicates the probability or risk of being stopped among nonblack and black drivers, respectively. Risk Differences represent the difference in the probability or risk of black drivers versus nonblack drivers being stopped and is calculated by subtracting the probability for nonblacks from the probability for blacks. The risk ratio (or relative risk) is calculated by dividing the probability or risk of black drivers being stopped by the probability or risk of nonblack drivers being stopped. N represents the number of drivers observed at each location. All statistical tests are two-sided using 95% confidence intervals.

Race Place And Risk:

Race, Place, and Risk Harold M. Rose, Paula D. McClain, 1990-08-14 Based on data from some of the larger black communities in the U S this book shows the impact of both individual and environmental influences on black homicide While it primarily addresses black on black homicide its purpose is to illustrate the effect of the environment on increasing the likelihood of victimization Race Place and Risk demonstrates how changes in the urban economy during the past twenty five years have played a major role in elevating the risk of victimization in large urban communities and in altering the structure of victimization as well

African American Males Dionne J. Jones, African American Males Young People, Alcohol, and Risk Amy Pennay, Gabriel Caluzzi, Laura Fenton, John Holmes, Michael Livingston, Jonas Raninen, Jukka Törrönen, 2025-04-29 Young People Alcohol and Risk theorises the social cultural and economic shifts that have underpinned significant declines in young people s drinking in high income countries Since the early 2000s alcohol use among young people has declined significantly in most high income countries Situated within a theoretical framework of social generations and risk this book explores the key interrelated factors that have cumulatively shifted the social and cultural position of alcohol for young people in these countries Drawing on interviews and survey data from the authors research in Australia Sweden and the UK as well as the broader international literature the book explores the importance of changes in attitudes to alcohol shifting family and parenting practices digital technology use and changes in leisure practices neoliberalism and individualism health and wellbeing and gendered practices These factors have made salient the notion of risk for young people resulting in a culture of caution This book will be of interest to students and scholars across the social sciences in particular those studying substance use youth sociology cultural studies and public health It will be of use to policy makers and practitioners working with young people

Handbook of Urban Studies Ronan Paddison, 2001 The Handbook of Urban Studies provides the first comprehensive up to date account of the urban condition relevant to a wide readership from academics to researchers and policymakers It provides a theoretically and empirically informed account embracing all the different disciplines contributing to urban studies Leading authors identify key issues and questions and future trends for further research and present their findings so that where appropriate they are relevant to the needs of policymakers Using the city as a unifying structure the Handbook provides an holistic appreciation of urban structure and change and of the theories by which we understand the structure development and changing character

Homicide Leonard Beeghley, 2004-09-08 The American homicide rate remains dramatically higher than that in other Western nations News of a murder has become a routine event How do we explain such high levels of lethal violence in the world s leading democracy Echoing Durkheim s Suicide this book focuses on one important phenomenon to explain larger currents in American society Leonard Beeghley examines the historical and cross national dimensions of homicides and evaluates previous attempts to explain it He finds the sources of America s murder rate in the greater availability of guns the expansion of illegal drug markets greater racial discrimination more exposure to violence and sharper economic inequalities He deftly blends the evidence related to each of these factors into a well reasoned sociological analysis of the nature of American society Features Highlights how sociology can be used to explain problems and seek solutions Distinguishes between structural and social psychological levels of analysis Provides a contrasting perspective to Messner Rosenfeld s widely assigned Crime and the American Dream Uses metaphors and analogies in order to make sociological ideas meaningful to students Employs an engaging writing style to place the analysis in the scholarly literature Offers clear explanations of Durkheim Weber Merton and others that show their usefulness for understanding modern life Homicide M. Dwayne Smith, Margaret A. Zahn, 1999

A set of chapters prepared by leading figures currently engaged in the study of homicide Each chapter provides a review and summary of research literatures that deal with social theories of homicide methodological problems in the study of homicide research among specific groups and public policy reactions designed to prevent homicide Handbook of Flood Risk

Management and Community Action Divine Kwaku Ahadzie, David Proverbs, Robby Soetanto, Victor Oluwasina Oladokun, 2023-12-08 Recurring and worsening flood incidence around the world has necessitated the understanding and strengthening of community based flood risk management from an international perspective This handbook emphasises the need for community action as part of an integrated flood risk management approach highlighting case studies that have received recognition and made positive impacts resulting in resilience enhancing actions which can improve global community understanding The content has been arranged such that it covers flood risk management approaches in the three main interfaces of before during and after the flood event Experts writing on case studies from Africa Oceania Europe Asia and the Americas come together to present lessons from regional and continental experiences that will be useful in providing an understanding of the nature and effectiveness of the human centred approach The successful implementation of local and scientific knowledge as complementary measures is also highlighted in a systematic review on the use of technologies for flood risk reduction This interesting and diverse range of contributions seeks to showcase opportunities for cross cultural knowledge transfer and uptake in the field of flood risk management This handbook is essential reading for researchers policy makers and leaders involved in flood and disaster management in the built environment risk assessment environmental and civil construction engineering and community action planning Risk Assessment in Chemical

Carcinogenesis Gotthard Schettler, Dietrich Schmähl, Thomas Klenner, 2012-12-06 The essays in this book discuss the role that chemical agents in the environment play in the development of cancer Thus it gives information to improve our understanding of carcinogenesis and how to prevent it The essays were originally presented at an international symposium

Flood Risk Management Edmund C. Penning-Rowsell, Matilda Becker, 2019-01-22 Our changing climate and more extreme weather events have dramatically increased the number and severity of floods across the world Demonstrating the diversity of global flood risk management FRM this volume covers a range of topics including planning and policy risk governance and communication forecasting and warning and economics Through short case studies the range of international examples from North America Europe Asia and Africa provide analysis of FRM efforts processes and issues from human governance and policy implementation perspectives Written by an international set of authors this collection of chapters and case studies will allow the reader to see how floods and flood risk management is experienced in different regions of the world The way in which institutions manage flood risk is discussed introducing the notions of realities and social constructions when it comes to risk management The book will be of great interest to students and professionals of flood coastal river and natural hazard management as well as risk analysis and insurance demonstrating multiple academic frameworks of analysis and their utility and drawbacks when applied to real life FRM contexts     Understanding and Preventing Violence, Volume 3 National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Commission on Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Panel on the Understanding and Control of Violent Behavior, 1994-02-01 This volume examines social influences on violent events and violent behavior particularly concentrating on how the risks of violent criminal offending and victimization are influenced by communities social situations and individuals the role of spouses and intimates the differences in violence levels between males and females and the roles of psychoactive substances in violent events     Predators Gregory M. Cooper, Michael R King, 2022-02-15 Most of us only half listen to the public service announcements about safety in the home We lock our doors at night but do little else to change habits that may make us the next victims of the dangerous individuals who are always on the watch for their next opportunity This updated paperback edition takes readers through the mindset of predatory criminals their motives various plans of attack and way of thinking and then teaches simple lifestyle techniques that will help reduce the risk of becoming victimized Featuring a new chapter on how the Internet and social media has radically changed how some predators operate criminal behavior specialists Greg Cooper and Mike King provide expert analysis based on real life cases in addition to moving insights from victims and criminals themselves The authors make the point that the people who commit these crimes aren't much different from the predators of the wild preying on the weak and unsuspecting What makes these individuals more dangerous than their instinctive wildlife counterparts however is that they consciously choose to inflict their will on the more vulnerable members of their own species To protect our loved ones and ourselves requires that we truly educate ourselves about the predators who live in our society and then take appropriate action This excellent in depth study will help readers lead safer lives     Licensing Parents Jack C. Westman, 2007-10-12 Licensing Parents addresses the relationship between poverty unemployment and other socio economic issues to competent parenting in a unique and creative manner Examines why the current generation of children and youth is the first in our nation's history to be less well off psychologically socially and morally than their parents were at the same age     Risk, Schooling, and Equity Vivian L. Gadsden, Alfredo Artiles, James E. Davis, 2009-03-15 Risk Schooling and Equity offers insights from a range of theoretical and practical viewpoints into current conceptions of risk and its effect on access to opportunity The authors challenge existing frameworks and approaches discuss how children and youth experience and live with risk in and out of school and suggest ways to reduce institutional barriers to students full engagement in school By examining risk at different levels and through different lenses the volume provides a critical look at both the issues and the venues that allow us to understand the problems that persist as well as the opportunities spaces and places for change Systems Practices for the Care of Socially At-Risk Populations National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Health and Medicine Division, Board on Health Care Services, Board on Population Health and Public Health Practice, Committee on Accounting for Socioeconomic Status in Medicare Payment Programs, 2016-04-07 The Centers for Medicare Medicaid Services CMS have been moving from volume based fee for service payment to value based payment VBP which aims to improve health care quality health outcomes and patient care experiences while also controlling costs Since the passage of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act of 2010 CMS has implemented a variety of VBP strategies including incentive programs and risk based alternative payment models Early evidence from these programs raised concerns about potential unintended consequences for health equity Specifically emerging evidence suggests that providers disproportionately serving patients with social risk factors for poor health outcomes e g individuals with low socioeconomic position racial and ethnic minorities gender and sexual minorities socially isolated persons and individuals residing in disadvantaged neighborhoods may be more likely to fare poorly on quality rankings and to receive financial penalties and less likely to receive financial rewards The drivers of these disparities are poorly understood and differences in interpretation have led to divergent concerns about the potential effect of VBP on health equity Some suggest that underlying differences in patient characteristics that are out of the control of providers lead to differences in health outcomes At the same time others are concerned that differences in outcomes between providers serving socially at risk populations and providers serving the general population reflect disparities in the provision of health care Systems Practices for the Care of Socially At Risk Populations seeks to better distinguish the drivers of variations in performance among providers disproportionately serving socially at risk populations and identifies methods to account for social risk factors in Medicare payment programs This report identifies best practices of high performing hospitals health plans and other providers that serve disproportionately higher shares of socioeconomically disadvantaged populations and compares those best practices of low performing providers serving similar patient populations It is the second in a series of five brief reports that aim to inform the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Planning and Evaluation ASPE analyses that account for social risk factors in Medicare payment programs mandated through the Improving Medicare Post Acute Care Transformation IMPACT Act Science and Politics Brent S. Steel, 2014-04-21 Recent partisan squabbles over science in the news are indicative of a larger tendency for scientific research and practice to get entangled in major ideological divisions in the public arena This politicization of science is deepened by the key role government funding plays in
