Manning, 2025-06-12 When Hurricane Katrina struck in 2005 causing more than 1 800 deaths and more than 100 billion in damages it was deemed a once in a lifetime storm After the hurricane over 15 million volunteers came to New Orleans through various nonprofit organizations and around 500 new charities were established to aid the city's recovery. We Came to Rebuild New Orleans documents this significant movement through interviews with the activists who spearheaded the city's recovery. Despite widespread acknowledgment of the crucial role of nonprofit organizations in New Orleans's recovery, scholarly examinations of these recovery workers' experiences remain scarce. We Came to Rebuild New Orleans fills this gap, drawing on a vast corpus of interviews with more than fifty leaders and staff involved in Katrina recovery across various areas including housing, criminal justice reform, legal aid, and wetlands restoration. The interviews seek to understand what motivates individuals to devote significant portions of their lives to recovery and to assess whether nonprofit volunteer labor was an effective recovery strategy. Analysis of the testimonies of participants reveals that most of the disaster recovery corps, even those in their early twenties, had histories of activism or civic engagement before committing to New Orleans recovery work. While significant, their recovery work in New Orleans tended to represent a single chapter in a broader life story of service and civic engagement. Despite the good intentions of the volunteers, their testimonies also highlight the limitations of relying on volunteer nonprofit organizations for disaster recovery. We Came to Rebuild New Orleans thus offers an extraordinary new look at long-term disaster recovery efforts in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina. Sharing the personal stories of nonprofit workers from many walks of life, the book emphasizes their persistent spirit of activism and civic engagement while also reflecting critically on the effectiveness of volunteer-based disaster recovery initiatives.

Steam, 1911 Australia's Worst Disasters Malcolm Brown, 2010-11-01

Graphic accounts of Australia's worst disasters, historical as well as events of recent years. From the Ash Wednesday bushfires of 1983 to the implosion of the Royal Canberra Hospital in 1997 and from the shocking Granville railway crash in 1977 to the Sea King helicopter crash of 2005, Australia's history has been punctuated by incidents of disaster and tragedy that have shocked us all. Sometimes warning signs were not read or were ignored; sometimes human error was to blame. These graphic and compelling accounts by veteran Sydney Morning Herald journalist Malcolm Brown and other award-winning journalists tell us far more than simply what happened; they provide unique insights into the impact of these events on the lives of innocent people. And interspersed with stories of death and destruction are heart-warming accounts of courage, grace, and just plain good luck.

The Story of Your Life James Lambie, 2010

The intriguing story and turbulent history of a paper Charles Dickens praised for its range of information and profundity of knowledge, and which Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother simply endorsed with the remark, "Of course I read The Sporting Life." It was the Queen Mother's love of horseracing that made her such an avid reader of the Life, and coverage of that sport forms the core of this book. But there is so much more to fascinate the reader, including eyewitness accounts of the first fight for the heavyweight championship of the world and Captain Webb's heroic Channel swim of 1875. Highlights in the history of cricket, football, and rugby are also featured, while chapters on coursing and greyhound racing rank alongside surreal reports on ratting contests and songbird singing competitions And for 30 years Tommy Wisdom made his motoring reports unique by competing against the best at Brooklands Le Mans and in many Monte Carlo rallies while Henry Longhurst's golfing column was simply the best The paper's strident campaigns for racing reforms are also chronicled along with its coverage of major news stories from Fred Archer's shocking suicide to its own untimely demise Its travails in the law courts are documented from its first year when it was forced to change its title to its last when it had to pay libel damages to the training team of Lynda and Jack Ramsden and their jockey Kieren Fallon A higher price was paid by its French correspondent who was killed in a duel over an article he had written while the terrible toll the First World War took on the nation's sporting heroes is catalogued by the Life's embedded army correspondent against a background of political bungling that is being repeated today Yachting,1980-03 100 Disasters That Shaped World History Joanne Mattern,2022-10-04 Action packed true stories of the biggest disasters in history perfect for fans of the I Survived series Discover how hurricanes earthquakes crashes and other catastrophes have shaped world history 100 Disasters That Shaped World History introduces kids of all ages to some of the most significant events in recorded history from the Great Fire of London to the Challenger Disaster This history book for kids features 100 easy to read true disaster stories Find out how catastrophes have changed the course of history Illustrated images Each page includes an illustration to help bring history to life A timeline trivia questions project ideas and more Boost your learning and test your knowledge with fun activities and resources Engaging and packed with facts 100 Disasters That Shaped World History is the perfect history gift for curious kids 8 and up Motor Age ,1906 Racing to Disaster Franklin W.
