Understanding Racial Prejudice and Ethnic Bias through a Social Psychological Lens Christoph Rosenthal, 2015-06-08 Essay from the year 2013 in the subject Psychology Social Psychology grade Distinction London School of Economics language English abstract On February 26 2012 neighbourhood watch volunteer G Zimmerman from Sanford FL fatally shot unarmed Trayvon Martin a 17 year old black teenager The eventual acquittal of Zimmerman sparked fundamental debates about racial profiling and civil rights polarizing nations and different interest groups in an argument about the possibility of a racialized shooter bias A similar case in the US from 2001 revolved around the killing of West African immigrant Amadiou Diallo who had been shot 41 times by police after reaching for an object which turned out to be his wallet instead of a gun Whereas prosecutors and spectators in favour of the victims claimed racism to be the root of such tragedies the opposing camp argued that prosecuting the shooters would have been a travesty absurdly and falsely representing self defence Though most common in judicial situations such as the shootings of Trayvon and Amadiou racial profiling can be defined as encompassing any form of discrimination based on stereotypes ethnic bias or prejudice about race and skin colour Racial bias manifests in negative repercussions for black individuals in a variety of ways for example in education recruiting and the workplace health care court room decisions and the promulgation of the death penalty Omnipresent and deeply entrenched in historical ideological and socio political contexts racial prejudice ethnic bias and socially created stigma of belonging to an ethnic minority comprise social phenomena whose thematisation and understanding are of paramount importance After providing a comprehensively integrated and analytical discussion of social representations theory attitudes research and social identity in terms of race and prejudice I will draw on a 45 minute open personal interview with a 22 year old American woman of Nigerian background to analyse some real life experiences that exemplify the still occurring empiric manifestations of racism and prejudice Arguing that these phenomena are fundamentally social this essay achieves to tackle the societally relevant challenge of forging a better understanding of racial prejudice and ethnic bias towards black minorities by employing a

Motivational Aspects of Prejudice and Racism Cynthia Willis-Esqueda, 2007-12-18 Gain new insights into the causes and the solutions to prejudice and racism with this thought provoking book It provides substantial evidence that shows how prejudice and racism stem from basic motives such as belonging understanding and controlling Moreover the author demonstrates why new approaches to understanding prejudice and racism must study both cognitive and motivational aspects of the District of Columbia Circuit on Gender, Race, and Ethnic Bias,1995      Draft Final Report of the Special Committee on Race and Ethnicity to the D.C. Circuit Task Force on Gender, Race and Ethnic Bias United States. Court of Appeals (District of Columbia Circuit). Special Committee on Race and Ethnicity,1995      Handbook on Inequalities in Sentencing and Corrections among Marginalized Populations Eileen M. Ahlin,Ojmarrh Mitchell,Cassandra A. Atkin-Plunk,2022-10-11 The Handbook on Inequalities in Sentencing and Corrections among Marginalized Populations offers state of the art volumes on seminal and topical issues that span the fields of sentencing and corrections The volume is a comprehensive and fresh approach to examining sentencing and community and institutional corrections The book includes empirical and theoretical essays and recent developments on the pressing concerns of persons of traditionally non privileged statuses including racial and ethnic minorities indigenous populations gender immigrant status LGBTQ transgender disability aging veterans and other marginalized statuses The handbook considers a wide range of perspectives for understanding the experiences of persons who identify as a member of a traditionally marginalized group This volume aims to help scholars and graduate students by providing an up to date guide to contemporary issues facing corrections and sentencing It will also assist practitioners with resources for developing socially informed policies and practices This collection of essays contributes to the knowledge base by summarizing what is known in each area and identifying emerging areas for theoretical empirical and policy work This is Volume 7 of The ASC Division on Corrections and Sentencing Handbook Series The handbooks provide in depth coverage of seminal and topical issues around sentencing and corrections for scholars students practitioners and policymakers      Encyclopedia of Race and Crime Helen Taylor Greene,Shaun L. Gabbidon,2009-04-14 The organization of the reader s guide especially the groupings of landmark cases race riots and criminology theories is impressive Other related titles lack the breadth detail and accessibility of this work Recommended for all libraries essential for comprehensive social studies collections Library Journal As seen almost daily on local and national news race historically and presently figures prominently in crime and justice reporting within the United States in the areas of hate crimes racial profiling sentencing disparities wrongful convictions felon disenfranchisement political prisoners juveniles and the death penalty and culturally specific delinquency prevention programs The Encyclopedia of Race and Crime covers issues in both historical and contemporary context with information on race and ethnicity and their impact on crime and the administration of justice These two volumes offer a greater appreciation for the similar historical experiences of varied racial and ethnic groups and illustrate how race and ethnicity has mattered and continues to matter in the administration of American criminal justice Key Features Covers a number of broad thematic areas basic concepts and theories of criminal justice the police courts and corrections juvenile justice public policy the media organizations specific groups and populations and specific cases and biographies Addresses such topics as gender hate bias crimes immigrant experiences international and cross cultural issues race and gangs and race and law Presents experiences of all major racial and ethnic groups in the U S including Asians Blacks Latinos Native Americans and Ethnic Whites as well as religious minorities such as Muslims Includes coverage of recent incidents like the alleged rape of a black female North Carolina Central University student by white male members of the Duke University Lacrosse Team the Jena 6 incident the Tulia Texas drug arrests the Rodney King beating the O J Simpson trials in the 1990s and more recent racial profiling incidents Two appendices provide information on locating and interpreting statistical data on race and crime as well as detailed instructions on how to access statistical data on the web for such specific areas as arrests drugs gang membership hate crimes homicide trends juvenile justice prison populations racial profiling the death penalty and victimization Because the topic of race and crime is of wide interest and relevance entries in this Encyclopedia are written in an accessible style to appeal to a broad audience making it a welcome addition to academic and public libraries alike

Contemporary Parenting and Parenthood Michelle Y.

Janning,2018-11-16 Headlines from news sources are combined with the latest and best social science research to offer scholars practitioners and parents a much needed source for understanding contemporary American parenthood News and social media headlines abound with contradictory stories about parents from tales of neglect to fear of helicopter parenting What readers know about parenting and parenthood can stem from misinformation and oversimplification In Contemporary Parenting and Parenthood a wide variety of contributors share research on topics ranging from international adoption to technology to talking with children about racial issues Scholars students parents and practitioners alike will find that this book breaks new ground in terms of its timely approach its spotlight on current topics and its attention to thinking through exaggerated and conflicting media claims about contemporary parenting Importantly the book focuses on both parenting the lived experiences of parents and parenthood the social and cultural construction of parenthood in today s world making it a resource for those interested in the truth of the everyday lives of American parents

Racism and Psychiatry Morgan M. Medlock,Derri Shtasel,Nhi-Ha T. Trinh,David R. Williams,2018-10-04 This book addresses the unique sociocultural and historical systems of oppression that have alienated African American and other racial minority patients within the mental healthcare system This text aims to build a novel didactic curriculum addressing racism justice and community mental health as these issues intersect clinical practice Unlike any other resource this guide moves beyond an exploration of the problem of racism and its detrimental effects to a practical solution oriented discussion of how to understand and approach the mental health consequences with a lens and sensitivity for contemporary justice issues After establishing the historical context of racism within organized medicine and psychiatry the text boldly examines contemporary issues including clinical biases in diagnosis and treatment addiction and incarceration and perspectives on providing psychotherapy to racial minorities The text concludes with chapters covering training and medical education within this sphere approaches to supporting patients coping with racism and discrimination and strategies for changing institutional practices in mental healthcare Written by thought leaders in the field Racism and Psychiatry is the only current tool for psychiatrists psychologists administrators educators medical students social workers and all clinicians working to treat patients dealing with issues of racism at the point of mental healthcare

Health Disparities in the United States Donald A. Barr, 2019-08-20 Challenging students to think critically about the complex web of social forces that leads to health disparities in the United States The health care system in the United States has been called the best in the world Yet wide disparities persist between social groups and many Americans suffer from poorer health than people in other developed countries In this revised edition of Health Disparities in the United States Donald A Barr provides extensive new data about the ways low socioeconomic status race and ethnicity interact to create and perpetuate these health disparities Examining the significance of this gulf for the medical community and society at large Barr offers potential policy and physician based solutions for reducing health inequity in the long term This thoroughly updated edition focuses on a new challenge the United States last experienced more than half a century ago successive years of declining life expectancy Barr addresses the causes of this decline including what are commonly referred to as deaths of despair from opiate overdose or suicide Exploring the growing role geography plays in health disparities Barr asks why people living in rural areas suffer the greatest increases in these deaths He also analyzes recent changes under the Affordable Care Act and considers the literature on how race and ethnicity affect the way health care providers evaluate and treat patients As both a physician and a sociologist Barr is uniquely positioned to offer rigorous medical explanations alongside sociological analysis An essential text for courses in public health health policy and sociology this compelling book is a vital teaching tool and a comprehensive reference for social science and medical professionals

A Feminist Perspective on Human Trafficking of Women and Girls Nancy M. Sidun, Deborah L. Hume, 2019-05-16 Focusing on the trafficking of women and girls from a feminist perspective this book examines how social structures and gender influence human trafficking While women and girls are not the only victims of trafficking they tend to be disproportionately represented Structural inequities including poverty gender based violence racism class and caste based discrimination and other forms of oppression and marginalization place some individuals at substantially greater risk to be trafficked The contributors explore topics including trauma informed assessment of and therapy with survivors of human trafficking issues facing children of trafficked women when they are reintegrated into their communities post trafficking the intersection of trafficking with racial and cultural oppression critical aspects of international sex trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of children The book concludes with a discussion of how human trafficking intersects with both intracountry adoption and brokered marriages This book was originally published as a special issue of Women Therapy
