Red Women On The Silver Screen:

Red Women on the Silver Screen Ramboro Books,1997-06 Red Women on the Silver Screen Lynne Attwood,1993

The Soviet Union was the first country in the world to declare women equal to men At the same time cinema was emerging as the newest and most accessible form of popular entertainment and as a powerful tool in propagandizing the Party line This book looks at the interaction between these two phenomena at the extent to which women s new status and roles were reflected and promoted on Soviet screens throughout the country s history Part I written by Lynne Attwood provides an essential framework for readers unfamiliar with Soviet studies It offers a lucid and lively account of the milestones in Soviet history the importance of film within this history and the changing images and experiences of Soviet women within both cinema and society In Parts II and III women from the former Soviet Union film critics directors camera operators and script writers relate their own experiences in the film industry and their responses to the images of women portrayed on screen This crisply written book illustrated with evocative photographs from Soviet films will provide readers with a real insight into the relationship between women and film in the Soviet Union Women in Russia and Ukraine Rosalind J.

Marsh,1996-03-14 In this book leading western specialists and Russian and Ukrainian feminists examine how gender has shaped Russian and Ukrainian history from the twelfth century to the present In particular they analyse the current backlash against women s emancipation Using new archival materials and the insights of feminist theory the contributors explore the relevance of gender equality and difference in Russian history They find that women have not merely submitted to the patriarchal system but instead have found creative ways of resisting it Chapters focusing on contemporary Russia discuss abortion pornography sexual minorities young women s lifestyles the impact of economic reform on women and the development of the women s movement This book will be of interest to students and specialists in Russian Ukrainian and women s studies as well as to historians political scientists sociologists and economists Women Film Directors

Gwendolyn A. Foster,1995-11-14 Until now there hasn t been one single volume authoritative reference work on the history of women in film highlighting nearly every woman filmmaker from the dawn of cinema including Alice Guy France 1896 Chantal Akerman Belgium Penny Marshall U S and Sally Potter U K Every effort has been made to include every kind of woman filmmaker commercial and mainstream avant garde and minority and to give a complete cross section of the work of these remarkable women Scholars and students of film popular culture Women s Studies and International Studies as well as film buffs will learn much from this work The Dictionary covers the careers of nearly 200 women filmmakers giving vital statistics where available listings of films directed by these women and selected bibliographies for further reading This is a one volume one stop resource a comprehensive up to date guide that is absolutely essential for any course offering an overview or survey of women s cinema It offers not only all available statistics but critical evaluations of the filmmakers work as well In order to keep the length manageable this volume focuses on women who direct fictional narrative films with occasional forays into the area of the documentary and is limited to film production rather than video production New Soviet Man John Haynes, 2024-07-30 Cinema has long been recognised as the privileged bridge between Soviet ideologies and their mass public. Recent feminist oriented work has drawn out the symbolic role of women in Soviet culture but not surprisingly men too were expected to play their part. In this first full length study of masculinity in Stalinist Soviet cinema John Haynes examines the New Soviet Man not only as an ideal of masculinity presented to Soviet cinemagoers but also precisely as a man in his specific and hotly debated social cultural and political context. A detailed analysis of Stalinist discourse sets the stage for an examination of the imagined relationship between the patriarch Stalin and his model sons in the key genre cycles of the era from the capital to the collective farms and ultimately to the very borders of the Soviet state. Informed by contemporary and present day debates over the social and cultural significance of cinema and masculinity New Soviet Man draws on a range of theoretical and comparative material to produce engaging and accessible readings accounting for both the appeal of and the inherent potential for subversion within films produced by the Stalinist culture industry. New Soviet Man will be widely read by students and specialists in the fields of film studies, Russian and Soviet studies, gender and modern European history. The Oxford Handbook of the History of Communism S. A.

Smith, 2014-01-09 The impact of Communism on the twentieth century was massive, equal to that of the two world wars. Until the fall of the Soviet Union in 1991, historians knew relatively little about the secretive world of communist states and parties. Since then, the opening of state party and diplomatic archives of the former Eastern Bloc has released a flood of new documentation. The thirty five essays in this Handbook, written by an international team of scholars, draw on this new material to offer a global history of communism in the twentieth century. In contrast to many histories that concentrate on the Soviet Union, The Oxford Handbook of the History of Communism is genuinely global in its coverage, paying particular attention to the Chinese Revolution. It is global too in the sense that the essays seek to integrate history from above and from below to trace the complex mediations between state and society and to explore the social and cultural as well as the political and economic realities that shaped the lives of citizens fated to live under communist rule. The essays reflect on the similarities and differences between communist states in order to situate them in their socio political and cultural contexts and to capture their changing nature over time. Where appropriate they also reflect on how the fortunes of international communism were shaped by the wider economic, political and cultural forces of the capitalist world. The Handbook provides an informative introduction for those new to the field and a comprehensive overview of the current state of scholarship for those seeking to deepen their understanding. The New Yugoslav Woman Branka Bogdan, 2025-09-30 From 1945 to 1989 the Yugoslav state connected its claims of progressive politics and gender equality to its support of free healthcare, sex education and contraception and laws that supported reproductive choice. Yugoslav men and women internalized these messages, proclaiming their homeland's superior care for its citizens in comparison to postwar Europe and the United States. Even as Yugoslav women faced stigma and abuse for their usage of contraceptives and medical practitioners grappled with new regulations and technology alongside personal ideologies Yugoslavs celebrated their own reformation into new politically minded citizens who carefully navigated tradition and modernity as they reconstructed the nation The New Yugoslav Woman provides a social and cultural history of how Yugoslav communists used reproductive regulation to build a platform of socialism through self management and to position the country as a conduit between the global North and South Author Branka Bogdan traces reproduction as a central facet of socialist Yugoslavia s state formation through the nation s laws medical infrastructure technological growth and state run sex education programs Bringing this history to the present day with a discussion of more than two dozen interviews with Yugoslav patients and medical professionals Bogdan reveals how these recollections show key continuities with the past rather than an abrupt break between the socialist and post socialist worlds Drawing Yugoslav women s experiences into the geopolitical history of reproduction and the Cold War era state The New Yugoslav Woman reveals the centrality of reproduction contraception and abortion to socialist Yugoslavia s self conception as the developed leader of the developing world Beyond the Color Line and the Iron Curtain Kate A.

Esfir Shub Ilana Shub Sharp, 2021-12-30 Esfir Shub was the only prominent female director of nonfiction film present at the dawning of the Soviet film industry She was in fact the first woman both to write critical texts on cinema and then practically apply these theorisations in her own films As such her syncretism of cinema theory and praxis inspired her to ask questions regarding both the nature of nonfiction film such as the problem of authenticity and reality and the function of the artist in society issues which are still relevant in contemporary discussions about the documentary Accordingly this book demonstrates Shub's position not only as a significant filmmaker and recognised member of the early Soviet avant garde but also as a key figure in global cinema history Shub deserves recognition both as the founder and ardent promoter of the compilation film genre and as a pioneer of the theory and practice of documentary filmmaking
