Excerpt from Red Terror and Green: The Sinn Féin Bolshevik Movement War found Nationalist Ireland after a century of wandering in the political wilderness, within sight of her goal. It did more; it unclashed the deadlock which the Palace Conference had failed to solve and which threatened to produce one of two unfortunate alternatives: either such a recasting of the Home Rule Bill as would have embittered the relations between the component parts of the United Kingdom, or such an enforcement of the measure as would have caused permanent embitterment in Ireland itself.
