Yorkers have always been pressed for space in life and in death Central Park is synonymous with New York City But without Green Wood Cemetery located in South Brooklyn Central Park would have never existed Founded in 1838 Green Wood became the city s most popular tourist attraction The cemetery was so popular that urban planners challenged architects to come up with plans for a separate green space for Manhattan Hence both Central Park founded in 1857 and Brooklyn s Prospect Park in 1867 were born Green Wood presented not only a place to bury the dead but a meditative haven away from the hustle and bustle of the city Other cemeteries followed in the park style including Sleepy Hollow and Woodlawn New York s changing cultural landscape made Ferncliff Cemetery one of the most coveted places to spend eternity with the rising popularity of Westchester County and suburban living New Yorkers even secured a place for the four legged members of the family with Hartsdale Pet Cemetery now the largest and oldest pet cemetery in the United States From the movers and shakers of New York society to corrupt political bosses and mafiosi Jazz legends and a Brooklyn native son who returned to Green Wood as one of the most famous artists of the 20th century the stories of the permanent residents of these cemeteries are just as diverse and vibrant as the city itself To travel through the cemeteries of New York is to travel through the hidden
