Writers of Multicultural Fiction for Young Adults M. Daphne Kutzer,1996-01-09 Multicultural fiction is an essential part of the American literary landscape This reference helps scholars teachers and librarians choose significant texts from both the past and present and provides guidance in approaching multicultural issues as they are discussed in fiction for young adults Included are entries for 51 writers some of whom have nearly been forgotten others who are just emerging Each entry provides biographical critical and bibliographical information while a general bibliography of works on multicultural literature concludes the book Authors included range from the nearly forgotten such as Laura Adams Armer to the newly discovered such as Graham Salisbury winner of the 1994 Scott O Dell Award for Historical Fiction The breadth of authors covered ensures an historical context for the issues raised by multiculturalism and the sections on the critical reception of each author address such important issues as the authority and authenticity of the writer to comment on a different culture Contributors are of many different ethnicities and include important scholars of children s literature lending authenticity and authority to the volume itself Race and Identity in Hispanic America Patricia Reid-Merritt,Michael S. Rodriguez,2020-04-03 This book offers a historical and comparative overview of the evolution of racial classifications in the United States Latin America and the Caribbean The Hispanicization of America is precipitating a paradigm shift in racial thinking in which race is no longer defined by distinct characteristics but rather is becoming synonymous with ethnic cultural identity Traditionally assimilation has been conceived of as a unidirectional and racialized phenomenon Newly arrived immigrant groups or longstanding minority indigenous populations were Americanized in confining their racial and ethnic natures to the private sphere and adopting in the public sphere the cultural mores norms and values of the dominant cultural racial group In contrast the Hispanicization of America entails the horizontal assimilation of various groups from Spanish speaking countries throughout the Western Hemisphere and Caribbean into a pan ethnic Hispanic Latino identity that also challenges the privileged position of whiteness as the primary and exclusive referent for American identity Instead of focusing on one Hispanic group ethnic identity or region this book chronicles the development of racial identity across the largest Hispanic groups throughout the United States Multicultural Social Work Practice Derald Wing Sue,2005-10-13 The groundbreaking new text for culturally competent social work practice In Multicultural Social Work

Practice author Derald Wing Sue one of the most prominent and respected pioneers in diversity research and practice explores and synthesizes the important theoretical political and philosophical concepts related to cultural competence in the field of social work This comprehensive yet practical text offers students definitive guidance on culturally sensitive social work practice This important new work challenges the reader to consider the different worldviews of a highly diversified population and achieve cultural competence through increased awareness knowledge and skills It provides specific definitions of multiculturalism cultural competence and multicultural social work that clearly guide discussion analysis and debate It also highlights the sociopolitical and social justice aspects of effective practice and closely examines how social work theories concepts and practices are often rooted in and reflective of the values of the dominant society Multicultural Social Work Practice features sections on Conceptual dimensions of multicultural social work practice The political dimensions of social work practice Racial cultural identity development social work implication The practice dimensions of multicultural social work Systemic and ecological perspectives of multicultural social work Profiles in culturally competent care for diverse populations In addition to the aforementioned coverage this innovative text features unique chapters on barriers to effective practice cultural styles in intervention strategies and indigenous healing strategies It also employs generous clinical and real life examples to illustrate important concepts A lively provocative guidebook that challenges traditional social work practice and featuring a foreword by Monica McGoldrick Multicultural Social Work Practice is a benchmark text for students of social work professional social workers and others in the helping professions Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1993 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Resources in Education ,2000-10 Central Europe Thirty Years after the Fall of Communism Aliaksei Kazharski,2022-05-23 This book examines the politics and international relations of Central Europe the Visegrád Four three decades after the fall of communism Once bound together by a common geopolitical vision of returning to the West the Czech Republic Hungary Poland and Slovakia now find themselves in a more ambiguous position The 2015 European migration crisis exposed serious normative differences with Western Europe leading to a collective V4 rebellion against the European Union's migration policies At the same time as this book demonstrates despite this normative rift with Western Europe and despite the democratic backsliding in some of the V4 states they remain deeply dependent on the West in both symbolic and material terms Furthermore ways in which individual Central European states position themselves vis à vis the West exhibit notable differences informed by their specific political and cultural legacies The author examines these in separate country chapters This book also contains a chapter that analyzes the effect of the COVID 19 crisis on political discourses in the V4

Negotiating Multicultural Europe H. Armbruster,U. Meinhof,2011-10-27 This book examines neighbourhoods and networks between the diverse people of contemporary Europe who live in a globalized and globalizing world across different types of borders physical and mental geopolitical and symbolic Survey Methods in Multinational, Multiregional, and
