The book, a story told in verse by a then young Navy Journalist, reminds us all of the unforgettable expansive granite monument saluting each of more than 58,000 brave Americans who died in a far off place, 58,000 of our finest who died honoring America's commitment to protect and preserve God's gift of freedom.

When it was originally published, the twenty-five volume Vietnam Experience offered the definitive historical perspectives of the Vietnam War from some of the best rising authors on the conflict. This new and reimagined edition updates the war on the fifty years that have passed since the war's initiation. The official successor to the Pulitzer Prize nominated set, The American Experience in Vietnam combines the best serious historical writing about the Vietnam War with new, never before published photos and perspectives. New content includes social, cultural, and military analysis; a view of post-1980s Vietnam; and contextualizing discussion of US involvement in the Persian Gulf, Iraq, and Afghanistan. Even if you own the original, The American Experience in Vietnam is a necessary addition for any modern Vietnam War enthusiast. Praise for The American Experience in Vietnam: The heart of the book is a well-written, objectively presented history of the war that includes a lot of military history.

Vietnam Veterans of America Why Vietnam Margaret Colbert Brown, 2025-03-30 Explores the complex reasons behind the USA's involvement in Vietnam, analyzing political, social, and military factors. The reasons behind the USA's involvement in Vietnam remain a subject of extensive debate. Initially, America supported the French until their defeat at Dien Bien Phu, which then shifted to backing the South Vietnamese government due to fears of communism spreading throughout Southeast Asia. Why Vietnam delves into the myriad reasons for US involvement, examining theories that date back to 1918 when Woodrow Wilson ignored Ho Chi Minh's plea for independence at the Treaty of Versailles, through to Johnson's full commitment to the undeclared war, which restrained the military to a defensive role in protecting South Vietnam instead of an offensive one that would send troops across the DMZ into Laos and Cambodia. The questions of why the USA became involved, whether their involvement was justified, and if the war was ever winnable have been fiercely debated for over 50 years. This book seeks to address these whys by providing a thorough examination of all contributing factors from presidential actions to foreign policy and the social and political climates of the war era

A Vietnam Experience James B. Stockdale, 2013-09-01 The decade that followed James Stockdale's seven and a half years in a North Vietnamese prison saw his life take a number of different turns from a stay in a navy hospital in San Diego to president of a civilian college to his appointment as a senior research fellow at the Hoover Institution In this collection of essays he offers his thoughts on his imprisonment Describing the horrors of his treatment as a prisoner of war Stockdale tells how he discovered firsthand the capabilities and limitations of the human spirit in such a situation As the senior officer in confinement he had what he humbly describes as the easiest leadership job in the world to maintain the organization resistance and spirit of ten of the finest men I have ever known His reflections on his wartime prison experience and the reasons for his survival form the basis of the writings reprinted here In subject matter ranging from methods of communication in prison to military ethics to the principles of leadership the thirty four selections contained in this volume are a unique record of what Stockdale calls a melting experience a pressure packed existence that forces one to grow Retired Vice Admiral James B Stockdale a Hoover Institution fellow from 1981 to 1996 was Ross Perot's 1992 presidential running mate and a recipient of the Medal of Honor after enduring seven and a half years as a prisoner of war in North Vietnam He died in 2005 at the age of 81
