Exploring the relevance of Attachment Theory to Dramatherapy practice in the field of Psychosis. Rosemary Kate Hughes, 2013-06-06 A study of recent changes in thinking about the treatment of Psychosis and discussion on how Dramatherapeutic techniques could be used to address Attachment issues Whitaker's Books in Print, 1998

Reflections on Therapeutic Storymaking Alida Gersie, 1997 With a strong emphasis on working in group settings Reflections on Therapeutic Storymaking develops both the theory and practice of storymaking enlivened by many examples from various cultures in which Alida Gersie has worked The author reflects on the dynamics of the storytelling process and explores the common experiences and attitudes which emerge in story work The book discusses a broad range of topics including the various types of narrative and their uses the impact of race class and other factors on the group and group leader the need to encourage tolerance for the expression of emotional range the potential benefits of the group storytelling process Extending the author's earlier work on the use of stories to bring about healing change this book will enrich the practice of anyone engaged in therapeutic work in either a group or individual setting Therapeutic Uses of Storytelling Camilla Asplund Ingemark, 2013-12-03 How can stories and legends written and oral help people suffering from severe traumas or harsh conditions now or in the past Can storytelling help us sort out our innermost feelings and troubles This deeply human subject is relevant not only to practitioners of psychotherapy but to all of us as we sometimes go through difficult times in life In Therapeutic Uses of Storytelling a cross disciplinary group of researchers examine the ways in which narrative might aid in coping with difficult situations in life and with the emotions that these situations engender Starting with an introduction to basic narrative theories and the therapeutic effects of storytelling the book then moves on to a series of lucid case studies The authors present a diversity of material such as blogs poetry magazines memoirs and oral accounts from Antiquity to the present Authors from several different disciplines make for a diversity of perspectives The authors specialise in folkloristics psychology writing studies poetry therapy and classical studies Psychologists social workers researchers therapists all can benefit from this book including everyone interested in the possibility of inner exploration through stories Storymaking in Education and Therapy Alida Gersie, Nancy King, 1990 This book contains myths and tales from all over the world which are grouped around seven themes The authors suggest ways in which these myths and tales can be used to develop our imagination's unique voice through educational and therapeutic encounter and how this expression can be communicated to others who are engaged in the same task Routledge International Handbook of Therapeutic Stories and Storytelling Clive Holmwood, Sue Jennings, Sharon Jacksties, 2022-02-14 The Routledge International Handbook of Therapeutic Stories and Storytelling is a unique book that explores stories from an educational community social health therapeutic and therapy perspectives acknowledging a range of diverse social and cultural views in which stories are used and written by esteemed storytellers artists therapists and academics from around the globe The book is divided into five main sections that examine different approaches and contexts for therapeutic stories and storytelling The collected authors explore storytelling as a response to the Covid 19 pandemic in education social and community settings and in health and therapeutic contexts The final section offers an International Story Anthology written by co editor Sharon Jacksties and a final story by Katja Gore an This book is of enormous importance to psychotherapists and related mental health professionals as well as academics storytellers teachers people working in special educational needs and all those with an interest in storytelling and its applied value

101 Healing Stories George W. Burns,2001-04-05 George W Burns examines the healing value of using metaphors in therapy and provides 101 inspirational story ideas that therapists can adapt to share with clients for effecting change He explains how to tell stories that engage the client how to make them metaphoric and where to find sources for such tales Burns also shows readers how to build stories from personal experiences or their own imagination to use in session making this thoughtful book an especially creative therapeutic tool BOOK JACKET
