Hirst, Kath Hirst, Cathy Nutbrown, 2005 Focusing on early childhood experiences and the factors at work this title examines the expanding field of early childhood education and care highlighting the critical issues to be aware of and how this can affect the child in later life The Hundred Languages of Children Carolyn Edwards, Lella Gandini, George Forman, 2011-12-13

Why does the city of Reggio Emilia in northern Italy feature one of the best public systems of early education in the world This book documents the comprehensive and innovative approach that utilizes the hundred languages of children to support their well being and foster their intellectual development Educators in Reggio Emilia Italy use a distinctive innovative approach that supports children's well being and fosters their intellectual development through a systematic focus on symbolic representation From birth through age six young children are encouraged to explore their environment and express their understanding through many modes of expression or languages including verbal communication movement drawing painting sculpture shadow play collage and music This organic strategy has been shown to be highly effective as the children in Reggio Emilia display surprising examples of symbolic skill and creativity This book describes how the world renowned preschool services and accompanying practical strategies for children under six in Reggio Emilia have evolved in response to the community's demographic and political transformations and to generational changes in both the educators and the parents of the children The authors provide the reader with a comprehensive introduction to the Reggio Emilia experience and address three of the most important central themes of the work in Reggio in detail teaching and learning through relationships the hundred languages of children and how this concept has evolved and integrating documentation into the process of observing reflecting and communicating

Taking the PYP Forward Simon Davidson, Steven Carber, 2009 The International Baccalaureate Primary Years Programme stands in a proud tradition of reflective educators incorporating best practice into international schools For the PYP to maintain relevance in education today inquiry has to be rethought refreshed and reapplied Taking the PYP Forward does exactly that Raising many questions and recognising the new challenges facing educators this collaborative work brings together voices from both within and outside of the PYP Intending to broaden our view of inquiry and circulate fresh thinking about the relevance of the PYP for all areas of learning this is an essential contribution

I Love Forest School Martin Pace, 2014-10-14 This is not a treatise to get children into the outdoors that is acknowledged as read This is a book which considers the following i Different approaches educators can take to working with children in outdoor environments ii The benefits of each approach favouring those which are more child led iii The book will examine how practice in the woodland can influence educators and how they can support children s learning outdoors and indoors The book will bring new understandings to practice in the nursery garden or school grounds and will include an evaluation of how practice at Reflections Nursery has changed and developed in this context

Handbook on Teaching and Learning for Sustainable Development Walter Filho Leal, Amanda Lange Salvia, Fernanda Frankenberger, 2021-06-25 Exploring the important role of education in both pursuing and implementing sustainable development this timely Handbook highlights how teaching methods at schools and universities can impact the future It looks at ways not only to inform students about matters related to sustainable development but also to empower them to adopt behaviours and actions that lead to more sustainable lifestyles

The Language of Art Ann Pelo, 2016-10-10 Typical art resources for teachers offer discrete art activities but these don t carry children or teachers into the practice of using the languages of art This resource offers guidance for teachers to create space time and intentional processes for children s exploration and learning to use art for asking questions offering insights exploring hypotheses and examining experiences from unfamiliar perspectives Inspired by an approach to teaching and learning born in Reggio Emilia Italy The Language of Art Second Edition includes A new art exploration for teachers to gain experience before implementing the practice with children Advice on setting up a studio space for art and inquiry Suggestions on documenting children s developing fluency with art media and its use in inquiry Inspiring photographs and ideas to show you how inquiry based practices can work in any early childhood setting Ann Pelo is a teacher educator program consultant and author whose primary work focuses on reflective pedagogical practice social justice and ecological teaching and learning and the art of mentoring Currently Pelo consults early childhood educators and administrators in North America Australia and New Zealand on inquiry based teaching and learning pedagogical leadership and the necessary place of ecological identity in children's and adults' lives. She is the author of several books including the first edition of The Language of Art and co-author of Rethinking Early Childhood Education. The School I'd Like Catherine Burke, Ian Grosvenor, 2003-12-08 In 2001 The Guardian launched a competition called The School I'd Like in which young people were asked to imagine their ideal school. This vibrant groundbreaking book presents material drawn from that competition offering a unique snapshot of perceptions of today's schools by those who matter most: the pupils. The book is wonderfully illuminated by children's essays, stories, poems, pictures, and plans. Placing their views in the centre of the debate, it provides an evaluation of the democratic processes involved in teaching and learning by identifying consistencies in children's expressions of how they wish to learn, highlighting particular sites of dissonance in the education system today, illustrating how the built environment is experienced by today's children, posing questions about the reconstruction of teaching and learning for the twenty-first century. This book offers a powerful new perspective on school reform and is essential reading for all those involved in education and childhood studies, including teachers, advisors, policy makers, academics, and anyone who believes that children's voices should not be ignored. Flows, Rhythms, and Intensities of Early Childhood Education Curriculum Veronica Pacini-Ketchabaw, 2010 In this book a group of researchers and educators consider in detail the possibilities and tensions of curriculum making in early childhood education. The book discusses a wide range of issues related to postfoundational approaches to curriculum, such as the images of children and educators, pedagogical narrations, reflective practice, transitions and routines, the visual arts, social change, and family/educator involvement in the classroom.
