Reforming Agricultural Markets In Africa:

Reforming agricultural markets in Africa Kherallah, Mylene, Delgado, Christopher L., Gabre-Madhin, Eleni Z., Minot, Nicholas, Johnson, Michael, 2002-01-01 The long term reduction of hunger and poverty in Sub Saharan Africa remains one of the great challenges for the international development community Eliminating hunger and promoting widespread growth in the region inevitably involves agriculture given its central role in the region s economies Over the past 20 years most African governments have carried out reforms to deregulate agricultural markets and reduce the role of state enterprises How much has the state actually withdrawn from agricultural markets Have well functioning private markets emerged How successful were these reforms in boosting agricultural production economic growth and the incomes of the rural poor What lessons can we learn from the reform process The authors of this book address these questions through an analysis based on an extensive review of experiences with reform focusing on three major agricultural markets fertilizer food crops and export crops They examine the historical rationales for intervention the factors contributing to reform the process of implementation and the impact of the reforms on farmers and consumers in Sub Saharan Africa The authors find that reforms have had many favorable results but that the impact has been muted by partial implementation and structural constraints They propose a new agenda for promoting the development of agricultural markets in Sub Saharan Africa identifying areas where governments can play a supportive role They argue that appropriate agricultural marketing policies and investments can improve livelihoods and the economic health of the region

The Road Half Traveled Mylène Kherallah, Christopher L. Delgado, Eleni Gabre-Madhin, Nicholas Minot, Michael Johnson, 2000 The need for agricultural reform How far did reforms go Impact of the reforms The future of agricultural market reform in Sub Saharan Africa African Agricultural Reforms M. Ataman Aksoy, 2012-07-10 This volume analyzes the political economy of the successes and failures of the agricultural reform programs in Sub Saharan Africa It shows that in almost all cases reforms lead to a supply response but their sustainability in face of shocks depend on the consensus about the reform and the subsequent rent distribution Agricultural Marketing in Tropical Africa H. Laurens van der Laan, Tjalling Dijkstra, Aad van Tilburg, 2018-08-09 First published in 1999 this volume explores how African agriculture has always had a strong appeal for the people of the Netherlands This is due to 1 a long established interest in tropical agriculture going back to the days when Indonesia was a Dutch colony 2 a broad based desire to help the Third World and 3 the view that Tropical Africa is highly dependent on agriculture As practical expertise in Africa and systematic research on African agriculture grew specialization became both possible and necessary This volume reflects the specialization in marketing which has been welcomed by economists geographers and scholars of agricultural marketing In addition to a general introductory chapter this book includes five contributions on staple food grains two on export crops two on cattle and one on horticulture Nine of the chapters are country specific covering Benin Burkina Faso Cameroon Cote d'Ivoire Ghana Kenya Sierra Leone Tanzania and Zambia

Agricultural Policy Monitoring and Evaluation 2022

Reforming Agricultural Policies for Climate Change Mitigation OECD,2022-06-23 This annual report monitors and evaluates agricultural policies in 54 countries including the 38 OECD countries the five non OECD EU Member States and 11 emerging economies It finds that the continued rise in agricultural support has been slower than sector growth in recent years but has been driven to record highs mainly by temporary factors Technology, Sustainability, and Rural Development in Africa Blessing M. Maumbe,Julius Okello,2013-03-31 This book provides research analytical methods techniques and development policies in ICT adoption and diffusion in Africa and around the globe highlighting the major trends in ICT applications and rural development Provided by publisher World Bank Assistance to Agriculture in Sub-Saharan Africa ,2007-01-01 Sub Saharan Africa is a critical development priority it has some of the world s poorest countries and during the past two decades the number of poor in the Region has doubled to 300 million more than 40 percent of the Region s population Africa remains behind on most of the Millennium Development Goals MDGs and is unlikely to reach them by 2015 With some of the world s poorest countries Africa is a development priority for the donor community A major drag on Africa s development is the underperformance of the critical agriculture sector which has been neglected both by donors and governments over the past two decades The sector faces a variety of constraints that are particular to agriculture in Africa and make its development a complex challenge Poor governance and conflict in several countries further complicate matters IEG has assessed the development effectiveness of World Bank assistance in addressing constraints to agricultural development in Africa over the period of fiscal 1991 2006 El hambre y los mercados Programa Mundial de Alimentos,2009-12-01 First published in 2009 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Distortions to Agricultural Incentives in Africa Kym Anderson,William A. Masters,2009-03-13 The vast majority of the world s poorest households depend on farming for their livelihoods During the 1960s and 1970s most developing countries imposed pro urban and anti agricultural policies while many high income countries restricted agricultural imports and subsidized their farmers Both sets of policies inhibited economic growth and poverty alleviation in developing countries Although progress has been made over the past two decades to reduce those policy biases many trade and welfare reducing price distortions remain between agriculture and other sectors and within the agricultural sector of both rich and poor countries Comprehensive empirical studies of the disarray in world agricultural markets appeared approximately 20 years ago Since then the Organisation for Economic Co operation and Development has provided estimates each year of market distortions in high income countries but there have been no comparable estimates for the world s developing countries This volume is the third in a series other volumes cover Asia Europe s transition economies and Latin America and the Caribbean that not only fills that void for recent years but extends the estimates in a consistent and comparable way back in time and provides analytical narratives for scores of countries that shed light on the evolving nature and extent of policy interventions over the past half century Distortions to Agricultural Incentives in Africa provides an overview of the evolution of distortions to agricultural incentives caused by price and trade policies in the Arab Republic of Egypt plus 20 countries that account for about of 90 percent of Sub Saharan Africa s population farm households agricultural output and overall GDP Sectoral trade and exchange rate policies in the region have changed greatly since the 1950s and there have been substantial reforms since the 1980s Nonetheless numerous price distortions in this region remain others have been added in recent years and there has also been some backsliding such as in Zimbabwe The new empirical indicators in these country studies provide a strong evidence based foundation for assessing the successes and failures of the past and for evaluating policy options for the years ahead

Reforming Land and Resource Use in South Africa Paul Hebinck, Charlie Shackleton, 2010-11-23 This book explores the debates surrounding land and agrarian reform in South Africa and explores how these reforms and particular those that make access easier have created new options for and broadened the use of land and natural resources

Poverty and Social Impact Analysis by the IMF Mr. Robert Gillingham, 2008-03-17 The Poverty Reduction and Growth Facility PRGF is used by the IMF to provide support for countries implementation of their poverty reduction and growth strategies A key requirement in the design of PRGF programs is understanding the effects of reform program measures on vulnerable groups particularly the poor and how to devise measures to mitigate any negative effects Poverty and social impact analysis PSIA is a critical instrument for pursuing this goal The IMF has therefore established a small group of staff economists to facilitate the integration of PSIA into PRGF supported programs In this book the group s members review analytical techniques used in PSIA as well as several important topics to which PSIA can make valuable contributions These reviews should prove useful and interesting to readers interested in PSIA in general and the IMF s PSIA efforts in particular

The Political Economy of Africa Vishnu Padayachee, 2010-06-10 The Political Economy of Africa addresses the real possibilities for African development in the coming decades when seen in the light of the continent s economic performance over the last half century This involves an effort to emancipate our thinking from the grip of western economic models that have often ignored Africa s diversity in their rush to peddle simple nostrums of dubious merit The book addresses the seemingly intractable economic problems of the African continent and traces their origins It also brings out the instances of successful economic change and the possibilities for economic revival and renewal As well as surveying the variety of contemporary situations the text will provide readers with a firm grasp of the historical background to the topic It explores issues such as employment and poverty social policy and security structural adjustment programs and neo liberal globalization majority rule and democratization taxation and resource mobilization It contains a selection of country specific case studies from a range of international contributors many of whom have lived and worked in Africa The book will be of particular interest to higher level students in political economy development studies area studies Africa and economics in general

Food Policy for Developing Countries Per Pinstrup-Andersen, Derrill D. Watson II, 2011-09-15 Despite technological advances in agriculture nearly a billion people around the world still suffer from hunger and poor nutrition while a billion are overweight or obese This imbalance highlights the need not only to focus on food production but also to implement successful food policies In this new textbook intended to be used with the three volumes of Case Studies in Food Policy for Developing Countries also from Cornell the 2001 World Food Prize laureate Per Pinstrup Andersen and his colleague Derrill D Watson II analyze international food policies and discuss how such policies can and must address the many complex challenges that lie ahead in view of continued poverty globalization climate change food price volatility natural resource degradation demographic and dietary transitions and increasing interests in local and organic food production Food Policy for Developing Countries offers a social entrepreneurship approach to food policy analysis Calling on a wide variety of disciplines including economics nutrition sociology anthropology environmental science medicine and geography the authors show how all elements in the food system function together

Unlocking markets to smallholders Herman D. van Schalkwyk, Jan A. Groenewald, Gavin C.G. Fraser, Ajuruchukwu Obi, Aad van Tilburg, 2012-03-10 This book assesses the institutional technical and market constraints as well as opportunities for smallholders notably emerging farmers in disadvantaged areas such as the former homelands of South Africa Emerging farmers are previously disadvantaged black people who started or will start their business with the support of special government programs Public support programs have been developed as part of the Black Economic Empowerment strategy of the South African government These programs aim to improve the performance of emerging farmers This requires first and foremost upgrading the emerging farmers skills by providing access to knowledge about agricultural and entrepreneurial practices To become or to remain good farmers they also need access to suitable agricultural land and sufficient water for irrigation and for feeding their cattle Finally for emerging farmers to be engaged in viable farming operations various factors need to be in place such as marketing and service institutions to give credit for agricultural inputs and investments input markets for farm machinery farm implements fertilizers and quality seeds and accessible output markets for their end products This book develops a policy framework and potential institutional responses to unlock the relevant markets for smallholders

Spatial Inequality and Development S. M. Ravi Kanbur, Anthony J. Venables, 2005 This is an introduction to spatial and regional inequality Drawing on data from 25 countries from around the world it examines the questions What exactly is spatial inequality Why does it matter And what should be the policy response to it Provided by publisher

Hunger and Markets United Nations World Food Programme, 2012-05-04 Hunger and Markets is the third volume of the UN World Food Programme's World Hunger Series created to help promote a better understanding of the choices confronting leaders as they work to fight hunger It appears at a crucial time with food prices at high levels a severe global financial crisis and vulnerable households around the world endangering their future health education and productivity by reducing both the quality and the quantity of their food intake Hunger and Markets explores the complex and multifaceted interactions between the availability of and access to food and the operations of markets The structure and dynamics of food markets and the threats and opportunities markets generate are crucial for the access to food for billions of people Markets are also critical in averting or mitigating food shortages and hunger by adjusting to shocks reducing vulnerability and coping with crises Whether markets help or harm the hungry poor is a function of markets institutions infrastructure and policies This volume analyzes the workings of markets in order to identify the sources of market failures in addressing hunger and malnutrition and to highlight the ways in which they can be improved The report sets out the ways in which programme design and policy formulation can build on the strengths of markets to prevent possible negative effects and will be essential reading for all those involved in the fight against world hunger Published with World Food Programme Hunger and Markets, 2009 First Published in 2009 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company New Directions for Smallholder Agriculture Peter B. R. Hazell, Atiqur Rahman, 2014-03-06 The majority of the poor and hungry people in the world live on small farms and struggle to subsist on too little land with low input low yield technologies At the same time many other smallholders are successfully intensifying and succeeding as farm businesses often in combination with diversification into off farm sources of income This book examines the growing divergence between subsistence and business oriented small farms and discusses how this divergence has been impacted by population growth trends in farm size distribution urbanization off farm income diversification and the globalization of agricultural value chains It finds that policy makers need to differentiate more sharply between different types of small farms than they did in the past both in terms of their potential contributions towards achieving national economic growth poverty alleviation and food security goals and the types of assistance they need The book distinguishes between smallholders that are business oriented subsistence oriented and at various stages of transition to the non farm economy and discusses strategies appropriate for assisting each type The book draws on a wealth of recent experience at IFAD and elsewhere to help identify best practice approaches
