Diasporas and Homeland Conflicts

Bahar Baser,2016-03-09 As violent conflicts become increasingly intra state rather than inter state international migration has rendered them increasingly transnational as protagonists from each side find themselves in new countries of residence In spite of leaving their homeland the grievances and grudges that existed between them are not forgotten and can be passed to the next generation This book explores the extension of homeland conflicts into transnational space amongst diaspora groups with particular attention to the interactions between second generation migrants Comparative in approach Diasporas and Homeland Conflicts focuses on the tensions that exist between Kurdish and Turkish populations in Sweden and Germany examining the effects of hostland policies and politics on the construction shaping or elimination of homeland conflicts Drawing on extensive interview material with members of diasporic communities this book sheds fresh light on the influences exercised on conflict dynamics by state policies on migrant incorporation and multiculturalism as well as structures of migrant organizations As such it will be of interest to scholars of sociology political science and international studies with interests in migration and diaspora integration and transnational conflict

The Refugee in International Law Guy S.

Goodwin-Gill,Jane McAdam,2007-03-22 Millions of people today are forced to flee their homes as a result of conflict systemic discrimination persecution and other violations of their human rights The core instruments on which they must rely to secure international protection are the 1951 Convention relating to the Status of Refugees and its 1967 Protocol now complemented by international and regional human rights treaties This book the leading text in a field where refugee law is now a subject of global importance examines key challenges to system of international protection including those arising from within the asylum process increased controls over the movements of people and the new concern with security The situation of refugees is one of the most pressing and urgent problems facing the international community and refugee law has grown in recent years to a subject of global importance In this long awaited third edition each chapter has been thoroughly revised and updated every issue old and new has received fresh analysis and complementary or human rights based protection is given special attention Features include analysis and assessment of developments in interpreting the refugee definition with particular reference to social group exclusion procedures and the impact of European Union harmonization initiatives In addition this book reviews the situation of refugee women and children the plight of Palestinian refugees the protection of internally displaced persons the role and responsibilities of the UNHCR including in the administration of camps and settlements the current status in general international law of the fundamental principles of non refoulement asylum and the right to seek asylum and the extent of protection possibilities in human rights treaties particularly the European Convention on Human Rights Key of Kappa Kappa Gamma Fraternity ,1918 Indochina Evacuation and Refugee Problems

United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary. Subcommittee to Investigate Problems Connected with Refugees and Escapees,1975 White Saviorism and Popular Culture Kathryn Mathers,2022-09-15 This book interrogates the white savior industrial complex by exploring how America continues to present an imagined Africa as a space for its salvation in the 21st century Through close readings of multiple mediated sites where Americans imagine Africa White Saviorism and Popular Culture examines how an era of new media technologies is reshaping encounters between Africans and westerners in the 21st century especially as Africans living and experiencing the consequences of western imaginings are also mobilizing the same mediated spaces Kathryn Mathers emphasizes that the articulation of different forms of humanitarian engagement between America and Africa marks the necessity to interrogate the white savior industrial complex and the ways Africa is being asked to fulfill American needs as life in the United States becomes increasingly intolerable for Black Americans Drawing on case studies from Savior Barbie barbiesavior to Black Panther and Black is King Mathers posits that global imperialism not only still reigns but that it also disguises white supremacy by outsourcing Black American emancipation onto an imagined Africa This is crucial reading for courses on the cultural politics of representation particularly in relation to race social media and popular culture as well as anyone interested in issues of representation in the global humanitarianism industry Refugee Voices Rob Sharp,2024-03-12 This book explores how participatory creative production can allow refugees to be recognised in emotional legal and social ways It also explains how decisions around participation in these forms of creative production can equally exclude refugee voices from the public sphere inhibit recognition and in fact lead to refugee misrecognition Building on the concept of performative refugeeeness it considers how refugee voices are ambivalently enacted in alternative forms of media and considers the differences between the refugee voices expressed in and beyond them in contexts surrounding their creation Furthermore it analyses the forms of refugee voices expressed in such creative projects which encompass fiction photography video audio and or drawing in linear as well as messy and interrupted ways and assesses how promises of offering a voice might claim to have been fulfilled in such cases The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of migration and refugee studies media and culture studies performance studies and communication studies When Boat People were Resettled, 1975-1983 Becky Taylor,Karen Akoka,Marcel Berlinghoff,Shira Havkin,2021-06-21 This book traces the reception and resettlement of Vietnamese

Cambodians and Laotians in France Germany the United Kingdom the Netherlands and Israel during the boat people crisis of 1975-79. These years saw hundreds of thousands of people displaced by the emergence of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam and political instability across south east Asia. Using a comparative historical approach the authors demonstrate the multiple ways in which refugees were contested, accepted, received and resettled across different national contexts. This episode is held up today as an example of European generosity. Yet this book illustrates how the reception of boat people in Western Europe and Israel was shaped by the Cold War and by specific national preoccupations over international prestige, immigration, labour supply and the place of foreign born strangers in their increasingly diverse societies. While the post 2015 refugee crisis in Europe has often been construed as a new challenge requiring an unprecedented coordinated international response, this book shows the longer history of such dilemmas. African Migration, Human Rights and Literature Fareda Banda, 2020-12-24. This innovative book looks at the topic of migration through the prism of law and literature. The author uses a rich mix of novels, short stories, literary realism, human rights and comparative literature to explore the experiences of African migrants and asylum seekers. The book is divided into two parts. Part one is conceptual and focuses on art, activism and the myriad ways in which people have sought to write justice. Using Mazrui's diasporas of slavery and colonialism, it then considers histories of migration across the centuries before honing in on the recent anti-migration policies of western states. Achiume is used to show how these histories of imposition and exploitation create a bond which bestows on Africans a status as co-sovereigns of the First World through citizenship. The many fictional examples of the schemes used to gain entry are set against the formal legal processes. Attention is paid to life post-arrival which for asylum seekers may include periods in detention. The impact of the increased hostility of receiving states is examined in light of their human rights obligations. Consideration is paid to how Africans navigate their post-migration lives which includes reconciling themselves to status fracture, taking on jobs for which they are over-qualified while simultaneously dealing with the resentment borne of status threat on the part of the citizenry. Part two moves from the general to consider the intersections of gender and status, focusing on women, LGBTI individuals and children. Focusing on their human rights and the fictional literature, chapter four looks at women who have been trafficked as well as domestic workers and hotel maids while chapter five is on LGBTI people whose legal and literary stories are only now being told. The final substantive chapter considers the experiences of children who may arrive as unaccompanied minors. Using a mixture of poetry and first person accounts, the chapter examines the post-arrival lives of children, some of whom may be citizens but who are continually made to feel like outsiders. The conclusion follows, starting with two stories about walls by Hadero and Lanchester which are used to illustrate the themes discussed in the book. Few African lawyers write about literature and few books and articles in Western law and literature look at books by or about Africans so a book that engages with both is long overdue. This book provides fascinating reading for academics.
