Religion And World History A Selection From The Works Of Christopher Dawson:

Religion and World History Christopher Dawson, 1975 Christianity and European Culture (Selections from the Work of Christopher Dawson) Christopher Dawson, 1998-09 This book provides a comprehensive introduction to the development of Dawson's thinking on questions that remain of contemporary importance A Historian and His World Christina Scott, 2023-03-17 The English historian of culture Christopher Dawson 1889-1970 was an independent scholar and the author of more than twenty books. He served as assistant lecturer in the History of Culture, University College Exeter 1925; Forwood Lecturer in the Philosophy of Religion, University of Liverpool 1934; Gifford Lecturer at the University of Edinburgh 1947-1949; and as Professor of Catholic Studies at Harvard University 1958-1962. He was elected Fellow of the British Academy in 1943 and edited the Dublin Review during the Second World War. This biography by Christina Scott, Dawson's daughter, is a sensitive portrait of a complex and fascinating scholar. Unlike other English Christian converts of the twentieth century who excelled in literature like G. K. Chesterton or C. S. Lewis, Dawson turned to the social sciences. He drew from the new idea of culture as a common way of life emerging from anthropology at the time of the Great War to shape a new approach to history. His study of the intimate relationship between religion and culture throughout world history shaped his trenchant criticisms of his own times. He wrote in 1955 that the first step in the transformation of culture is a change in the pattern of culture within the mind, for this is the seed out of which there spring new forms of life which ultimately change the social way of life and thus create a new culture. Dawson's engagement with anthropology and the idea of culture marked an important moment of development in the Catholic intellectual tradition. Christina Scott shows that Dawson is best understood as he himself interpreted his historical subjects in the context of the spiritual world in which he lived: the ideas that moved him and the faith that inspired his action. Dawson was not a historian of ideas for their own sake; he had a passionate belief in their liberating power. A Historian and His World will be of interest to intellectual historians, historians of religion and culture, and students of modern Catholic thought. The Introduction is written by Dawson scholar Joseph T. Stuart, and the book is graced by a postscript by Christopher Dawson reflecting upon the meaning of his work. The Third Spring Adam Schwartz, 2005-02 This book is the first detailed examination of these four authors as part of a Roman Catholic counter-modern community of discourse. It is informed by extensive research in the writers' works, scholarship on them, and their personal papers. Religion Dans L'histoire Michel Despland, Gérard Vallée, Canadian Corporation for Studies in Religion, 1992-03-03 The history of the concept of religion in Western tradition has intrigued scholars for years. This important collection of eighteen essays brings further light to the ongoing debate. Three of the invited participants, W. C. Smith, M. Despland, and E. Feil, have each previously written impressive books treating this subject; the last two acknowledged the impact and continuing influence of Smith's work. The Meaning and End of Religion: An introduction and a recapitulation of Smith's contribution as a scholar set the stage for a retrospective look at the published literature. Contributors then examine the transformation of words the classical religio to the modern religion particularities of religion in nineteenth century France Troeltsch's concept of religion the study of religion from an Asian point of view and the categorization of World Religions The concluding essays elaborate contemporary anthropological cross disciplinary semiological deconstructive and psychoanalytical methodological approaches to the concept and study of religion Exploring critically different aspects of the concept and study of religion these provocative essays typically reflect the methodological pluralism currently existing in the field of Religious Studies Of interest to scholars and students alike this collection also contains a complete bibliography of W C Smith's publications

Understanding World Religions Irving Hexham, 2011-03-22 Globalization and high speed communication put twenty first century people in contact with adherents to a wide variety of world religions but usually valuable knowledge of these other traditions is limited at best On the one hand religious stereotypes abound hampering a serious exploration of unfamiliar philosophies and practices On the other hand the popular idea that all religions lead to the same God or the same moral life fails to account for the distinctive origins and radically different teachings found across the world's many religions Understanding World Religions presents religion as a complex and intriguing matrix of history philosophy culture beliefs and practices Hexham believes that a certain degree of objectivity and critique is inherent in the study of religion and he guides readers in responsible ways of carrying this out Of particular importance is Hexham's decision to explore African religions which have frequently been absent from major religion texts He surveys these in addition to varieties of Hinduism Buddhism Judaism Christianity and Islam

Thomas Berry Mary Evelyn Tucker, John Grim, Andrew Angyal, 2019-06-04 Thomas Berry 1914-2009 was one of the twentieth century's most prescient and profound thinkers As a cultural historian he sought a broader perspective on humanity's relationship to the earth in order to respond to the ecological and social challenges of our times This first biography of Berry illuminates his remarkable vision and its continuing relevance for achieving transformative social change and environmental renewal Berry began his studies in Western history and religions and then expanded to include Asian and indigenous religions which he taught at Fordham University Barnard College and Columbia University Drawing on his explorations of history he came to see the evolutionary process as a story that could help restore the continuity of humans with the natural world Berry urged humans to recognize their place on a planet with complex ecosystems in a vast evolving universe He sought to replace the modern alienation from nature with a sense of intimacy and responsibility Berry called for new forms of ecological education law and spirituality as well as the creation of resilient agricultural systems bioregions and ecocities At a time of growing environmental crisis this biography shows the ongoing significance of Berry's conception of human interdependence with the earth as part of the unfolding journey of the universe

Charles Weller, 2024-09-23 This is the first comparative study of Mosaic and Islamic law in American history to be published Constructing a complex picture in trans Atlantic trans European and world historical perspectives this book elucidates the intersections that lie beneath and behind the rise of the debates in the 1990s and 2000s over the promotion of the Ten Commandments and Mosaic Law as alleged sources of American Constitutional law and symbols of American national identity These debates have taken shape in close connection with resurgent anti Semitism anti Sharia protests and anti Sharia legislation throughout the United States and other Western societies No Place for Truth David F. Wells, 1994-12-20 Evangelicals argues Wells have largely lost the truth that God also stands outside all human experience that he still summons sinners to repentance and belief regardless of their self image and that he calls his church to stand fast in his truth against the blandishments of the modern world Evolution and Victorian Musical Culture Bennett Zon, 2017-10-12 This engaging book explores the dynamic relationship between evolutionary science and musical culture in Victorian Britain drawing upon a wealth of popular scientific and musical literature to contextualize evolutionary theories of the Darwinian and non Darwinian revolutions Bennett Zon uses musical culture to question the hegemonic role ascribed to Darwin by later thinkers and interrogates the conceptual premise of modern debates in evolutionary musicology Structured around the Great Chain of Being chapters are organized by discipline in successively ascending order according to their object of study from zoology and the study of animal music to theology and the music of God Evolution and Victorian Musical

Culture takes a non Darwinian approach to the interpretation of Victorian scientific and musical interrelationships debunking the idea that the arts had little influence on contemporary scientific ideas and by probing the origins of musical interdisciplinarity the volume shows how music helped ideas about evolution to evolve

God in the Wasteland David F. Wells,1994 In this sequel to the widely praised No Place for Truth David Wells calls for the restoration of the church based on a fresh encounter with the transcendent God By looking anew at the way God s transcendence and immanence have been taken captive by modern appetites Wells argues convincingly for a reform of the evangelical world

Mere Spirituality Joshua Spatha, Without Rival Lisa Bevere,2016-08-16 Now a New York Times bestseller There is a reason we look at others as rivals and limit ourselves to comparison and competition We have an enemy assaulting our mind will and emotions in the hope that we ll turn on ourselves and each other It s a cycle that isolates us from intimate connections creates confusion about our identity and limits our purpose In Without Rival bestselling author Lisa Bevere shares how a revelation of God s love breaks these limits You ll learn how to stop seeing others as rivals and make the deep connections with your Creator you long for connections that hold the promise of true identity and intimacy With biblically sound teaching filled with prophetic insight for our day Lisa uses humor and passion to challenge you to Flip rivalry so it brings out the best in you Stop hiding from conversations you need to be a part of Answer the argument that says women are unfit easily deceived and gullible Dismantle gender rivalry and work with the men in your life It s time to step forward to live a life without rival

Dynamics of World History Christopher Dawson,2014-05-20 In scope and in vision Christopher Dawson s historiography ranks with the work of men like Spengler Northrop and Toynbee Several major themes run through Dawson s work but perhaps his most unique contribution was his insistence on the importance of religion in shaping and sustaining civilizations Religion Dawson believed is the great creative force in any culture and the loss of a society s historic religion therefore portends a process of social dissolution For this reason Dawson concluded that Western society must find a way to revitalize its spiritual life if it is to avoid irreversible decay Progress the real religion of modernity is insufficient to sustain cultural health And an ahistorical secularized Christianity is an oxymoron a pseudo religion only nominally related to the historic religion of the West Dawson maintained that the hope of the present age lay in the reconciliation of the religious tradition of Christianity with the intellectual tradition of humanism and the new knowledge about man and nature provided by modern science Dynamics of World History shows that though such a task may be difficult it is not impossible

Christopher Dawson Joseph T. Stuart,2022-01-14 The English historian Christopher Dawson 1889 1970 was the first Catholic Studies professor at Harvard University and has been described as one of the foremost Catholic thinkers of modern times Joseph T Stuart argues that through Dawson s study of world cultures he acquired a cultural mind by which he attempted to integrate knowledge according to four implicit rules intellectual architecture boundary thinking intellectual asceticism and intellectual bridges Dawson responded to the cultural fragmentation after the Great War 1914 1918 through this multilayered approach to culture which was an instantiation of John Henry Newman's philosophical habit of mind. Stuart demonstrates how Dawson formed his cultural mind practicing an interdisciplinary science of culture involving anthropology, sociology, history, and comparative religion, and applied his cultural thinking to problems in politics and education. The Catholic Historical Review, 1978
