Ernest Cushing Richardson,1911 Oriens ,1948 Syncretism David Chung,2001-04-19 This book explains the explosive growth of Christianity since its introduction into Korea in the eighteenth century In no other Asian country has Christianity taken root so strongly Author David Chung argues that it was the syncretic tendency of Korean religious culture that provided the context for the successful acceptance of Christianity Working from the perspective of comparative religions he explores how Korean society accommodated and assimilated religions of foreign origin such as Confucianism Taoism Buddhism and Christianity through crude equation and subtle identification of these religions with Korean indigenous beliefs Fundamentally shamanistic Korean society received and grafted these religions onto its own and made a remarkable tapestry of beliefs rites and values into a comprehensive pattern Syncretism finds this religious tapestry or internal chemistry working between Korean and Christian worldviews Religious Diversity in Chinese Thought P. Schmidt-Leukel,J. Gentz,2013-09-04 This collection of essays by major scholars analyze the religious diversity in Chinese religion bringing together topics from traditional and contemporary contexts and Chinese religions encounters with Western religion

World History as the History of Foundations, 3000 BCE to 1500 CE Michael Borgolte,2019-10-29 In World History as the History of Foundations 3000 BCE to 1500 CE Michael Borgolte investigates the origins and development of foundations from Antiquity to the end of the Middle Ages In his survey foundations emerge not as mere legal institutions but rather as total social phenomena which touch upon manifold aspects including politics the economy art and religion of the cultures in which they emerged Cross cultural in its approach and the result of decades of research this work represents by far the most comprehensive account of the history of foundations that has hitherto been published Marx and Weber on Oriental Societies Lutfi Sunar,2016-05-06 The Orient was central to the work of Marx and Weber both figures building their theories around the question of why modernity appeared to emerge only in the West While Marx s account focused on the accumulation of capital in the West Weber s explanation for this phenomenon centred on Western rationalization Extending recent work comparing the social theories of Marx and Weber this book examines their approaches to Oriental societies showing how in spite of the differences in their respective theorizations of the historical and political development of the West their work on the form of modern society in the Orient converges each complementing the other Fully conversant with recent scholarly work on Marx and Weber this comprehensive re examination of the points of convergence and departure in their work requires us to re evaluate both their positions in the history of sociology and their relevance to contemporary social questions As such it will appeal to scholars of social and political theory and classical sociology In Difer Hoffnung Verwurzelt Barbara Hoster,Dirk Kuhlmann,Zbigniew Wesolowski,2017-04-07 This Festschrift is dedicated to the former Director and Editor in chief of the Monumenta Serica Institute in Sankt Augustin Germany Roman Malek S V D in recognition of his scholarly commitment to China The two volume work contains 40 articles by his academic colleagues companions in faith confreres as well as by the staff of the Monumenta Serica Institute and the China Zentrum e V China Center The contributions in English German and Chinese pay homage to the jubilarian s diverse research interests covering the fields of Chinese Intellectual History History of Christianity in China Christianity in China Today Other Religions in China Chinese Language and Literature as well as the Encounter of Cultures Religious Publishing and Print Culture in Modern China Philip Clart, Gregory Adam Scott, 2014-12-16 Scholarly interest in print culture and in the study of religion in modern China has increased in recent years propelled by maturing approaches to the study of cultural history and by a growing recognition that both were important elements of China s recent past The influence of China in the contemporary world continues to expand and with it has come an urgent need to understand the processes by which its modern history was made Issues of religious freedom and of religion s influence on the public sphere continue to be contentious but important subjects of scholarly work and the role of print and textual media has not dimmed with the advent of electronic communication This book Religious Publishing and Print Culture in Modern China 1800-2012 speaks to these contemporary and historical issues by bringing to light the important and abiding connections between religious development and modern print culture in China Bringing together these two subjects has a great deal of potential for producing insights that will appeal to scholars working in a range of fields from media studies to social historians Each chapter demonstrates how focusing on the role of publishing among religious groups in modern China generates new insights and raises new questions They examine how religious actors understood the role of printed texts in religion dealt with issues of translation and exegesis produced print media that heralded social and ideological changes and expressed new self understandings in their published works They also address the impact of new technologies such as mechanized movable type and lithographic presses in the production and meaning of religious texts Finally the chapters identify where religious print culture crossed confessional lines connecting religious traditions through links of shared textual genres commercial publishing companies and the contributions of individual editors and authors This book thus demonstrates how in embracing modern print media and building upon their longstanding traditional print cultures Christian Buddhist Daoist and popular religious groups were developed and defined in modern China While the chapter authors are specialists in religious traditions they have made use of recent studies into publishing and print culture and like many of the subjects of their research are able to make connections across religious boundaries and link together seemingly discrete traditions Official and Popular Religion P. H. Vrijhof, Jean Jacques Waardenburg, 1979 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series From Trustworthiness to Secular Beliefs ,2023-03-27 What does the Chinese term xin mean How does it relate to the concept of faith in a Western sense How far does it still denote being trustworthy in its ancient Confucian sense When did major shifts occur in its long history of semantics that allowed later Christian missionaries to use the term regularly as a translation for the concept of believing in gods or God This volume offers a broad picture of the semantic history of this Chinese term throwing light on its semantic multi layeredness shaped by changing discursive contexts interactions between various ideological milieus and transcultural encounters The Encyclopedia of Christianity, Volume 1 (A-D) Erwin Fahlbusch,Jan Lochman,John Mbiti,Jaroslav Pelikan,Lukas Vischer,2025-04-14 A major intellectual resource Jaroslav Pelikan from the foreword The multiple award winning Encyclopedia of Christianity EC copublished by Brill and Eerdmans is a monumental five volume work presenting the history and current state of the Christian faith in its rich spiritual and theological diversity around the world Volume 1 A D contains 465 articles featuring articles on all but the smallest countries of the world including the former communist nations that have gained independence since 1989 the latest statistical information from David B Barrett on the religious affiliation and ecclesiastical breakdown of each country and continent articles on doctrines denominations and social and ethical issues in relation to the churches biographical articles on prominent figures through church history The Encyclopedia of Christianity is also available online The Encyclopedia of Christianity Erwin Fahlbusch,Geoffrey William Bromiley,1999 This multifaceted and up to date encyclopedia is sure to be of interest to pastors and church workers of all confessions equally so to students scholars and researchers around the world who are interested in any aspect of Christianity or religion in general The first volume contains 465 articles that address a comprehensive list of topics Jahrbuch des Offentlichen Rechts der Gegenwart.
