Religious Issues And Interreligious Dialogues:

Religious Issues and Interreligious Dialogues Charles Wei-hsun Fu, Gerhard E. Spiegler, 1989-06-26 A monumental collection essential for academic and seminary libraries and highly recommended for public libraries as well Library Journal An important new voice in contemporary philosophical theological discourse this book highlights a number of issues that have been of particular concern to scholars religious leaders politicians and the general public since the end of World War II The contributors purpose is to force a reexamination of basic concerns in religion religious beliefs and religious studies and to encourage both a reshaping of entrenched attitudes and a continuation of meaningful dialogue among different religious groups To this end they address a wide range of topics from the perplexing problem of relativism and the issue of feminism in the church to questions of Muslim identity and Hindu Christian dialogue Divided into two principal parts the book begins by exploring a broad spectrum of religious issues Norbert Samuelson analyzes theism and atheism in Western religious philosophy Ernest Stoeffler focuses on the parallel trends of conservatism and liberalism in American Protestantism Gustavo Benavides examines religion and modernization in Latin America Additional papers address a universal theology Christianity and sociopolitical thought postwar neo Confucian philosophy among other topics In the second section the contributors turn to interreligious dialogues examining the ways in which various religions have attempted to forge deeper mutual understanding often in the face of rising sociopolitical tensions Taken together these essays offer an eloquent testimonial to the critical importance of interreligious dialogue in contemporary society Religious Issues and Interreligious Dialogues will be an important addition to the reading list for studies in world religions contemporary religious issues and comparative religion

Understanding Interreligious Relations David Cheetham, Douglas Pratt, David Richard Thomas, David Thomas, 2013-11 Understanding Interreligious Relations is a multi authored volume that explores the theme of the religious other from the perspective of five major religions Hinduism Judaism Buddhism Christianity and Islam and discusses a range of issues in which interreligious relations are central These include conversion the impact and nature of religious extremism the contemporary development of inter religious dialogue the dynamics operating between majority and minority religious groups belonging to more than one religion or faith tradition examples of cross religious co operation religion in the public domain and the task of peace building among others In a religiously plural world how different religious communities get along with one another is not just an academic question it is very much a focus of socio political and wider community attention The challenge to understand interreligious relations is of critical importance in today s world

Evaluating Interreligious Peacebuilding and Dialogue Mohammed Abu-Nimer, Renáta Katalin Nelson, 2021-09-20 In the emerging fields of religious and interreligious peacebuilding the question of monitoring and evaluation is a challenging yet necessary process The need to develop comprehensive yet fitting evaluation models for religious and interreligious peacebuilding is not only important for donor interests but also critical as a means of documenting and learning for peacebuilders themselves

Theories and best practices in monitoring and evaluation have become prevalent in many fields yet the amount of literature on evaluating intercultural and especially religious and interreligious projects remains scant in comparison This volume offers a unique contribution that not only looks at several of the challenges and implications faced by religious and interreligious peacebuilders but also provides concrete examples of new models and tools for monitoring and evaluating religious and interreligious peacebuilding projects In doing so this volume serves as a tool and point of reference for individuals and organizations developing and implementing interreligious dialogue and peacebuilding projects

The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to Inter-Religious Dialogue Catherine Cornille,2020-06-08 This comprehensive volume brings together a distinguished editorial team including some of the field's pioneers to explore the aims practice and historical context of interfaith collaboration Explores in full the background history objectives and discourse between the leaders and practitioners of the world's major religions Examines relations between religions from around the world moving well beyond the common focus on Christianity to also cover over 12 major religions Features a wealth of case studies on contemporary interreligious dialogue Charts a long term shift away from a competitive rivalry between belief systems and a change in focus towards the more respectful cooperative approach reflected in institutions such as the World Council of Churches Includes up to date commentary on the growing dialogue of recent years written by some of the leading figures working in the field of interfaith discourse

Women and Interreligious Dialogue Catherine Cornille,Jillian Maxey,2013-09-26 Though women have been objects more often than subjects of interreligious dialogue they have nevertheless contributed in significant ways to the dialogue just as the dialogue has also contributed to their own self understanding This volume the fifth in the Interreligious Dialogue Series brings together historical critical and constructive approaches to the role of women in the dialogue between religions These approaches deal with concrete examples of women's involvement in dialogue critical reflections on the representation of women in dialogue and the important question of what women might bring to the dialogue Together they open up new avenues for reflection on the nature and purpose of interreligious dialogue

The Problem with Interreligious Dialogue Muthuraj Swamy,2016-03-24 Muthuraj Swamy provides a fresh perspective on the world religions paradigm and interreligious dialogue By challenging the assumption that world religions operate as essential entities separate from the lived experiences of practitioners he shows that interreligious dialogue is in turn problematic as it is built on this very paradigm and on the myth of religious conflict Offering a critique of the idea of dialogue as it has been advanced by its proponents such as religious leaders and theologians whose aims are to promote inter religious conversation and understanding the author argues that this approach is elitist and that in reality people do not make sharp distinctions between religions nor do they separate political economic social and cultural beliefs and practices from their religious traditions Case studies from villages in southern India explore how Hindu Muslim and Christian communities interact in numerous ways that break the neat categories often used to describe each religion Swamy argues that those who promote dialogue are ostensibly attempting to overcome the separate identities of religious practitioners through understanding but in fact they re enforce them by encouraging a false sense of separation The Problem with Interreligious Dialogue Plurality Conflict and Elitism in Hindu Christian Muslim Relations provides an innovative approach to a central issue confronting Religious Studies combining both theory and ethnography Religious Issues and Interreligious Dialogues Charles Wei-hsun Fu, Gerhard E. Spiegler, 1989-06-26 A monumental collection essential for academic and seminary libraries and highly recommended for public libraries as well Library Journal An important new voice in contemporary philosophical theological discourse this book highlights a number of issues that have been of particular concern to scholars religious leaders politicians and the general public since the end of World War II The contributors purpose is to force a reexamination of basic concerns in religion religious beliefs and religious studies and to encourage both a reshaping of entrenched attitudes and a continuation of meaningful dialogue among different religious groups To this end they address a wide range of topics from the perplexing problem of relativism and the issue of feminism in the church to questions of Muslim identity and Hindu Christian dialogue Divided into two principal parts the book begins by exploring a broad spectrum of religious issues Norbert Samuelson analyzes theism and atheism in Western religious philosophy Ernest Stoeffler focuses on the parallel trends of conservatism and liberalism in American Protestantism Gustavo Benavides examines religion and modernization in Latin America Additional papers address a universal theology Christianity and sociopolitical thought postwar neo Confucian philosophy among other topics In the second section the contributors turn to interreligious dialogues examining the ways in which various religions have attempted to forge deeper mutual understanding often in the face of rising sociopolitical tensions Taken together these essays offer an eloquent testimonial to the critical importance of interreligious dialogue in contemporary society Religious Issues and Interreligious Dialogues will be an important addition to the reading list for studies in world religions contemporary religious issues and comparative religion

Controversies in Interreligious Dialogue and the Theology of Religions Paul Hedges, 2013-01-03 A challenging controversial discussion of the current state of the debate about Christianity and other world faiths Pathways for Inter-Religious Dialogue in the Twenty-First Century Vladimir Latinovic, Gerard Mannion, Peter C. Phan, 2016-01-26 Without question inter religious relations are crucial in the contemporary age While most dialogue works on past and contemporary matters this volume takes on the relations among the Abrahamic religions and looks forward toward the possibility of real and lasting dialogue The book centers upon inter faith issues It identifies problems that stand in the way of fostering healthy dialogues both within particular religious traditions and between faiths The volume s contributors strive for a realization of already existing common ground between religions They engagingly explore how inter religious dialogue can be re energized for a new century The Problem with Interreligious Dialogue Muthuraj Swamy, 2016-03-24 Muthuraj Swamy provides a fresh perspective on the world religions paradigm and interreligious dialogue By challenging the assumption that world religions operate as essential entities separate from the lived experiences of practitioners he shows that interreligious dialogue is in turn problematic as it is built on this very paradigm and on the myth of religious conflict Offering a critique of the idea of dialogue as it has been advanced by its proponents such as religious leaders and theologians whose aims are to promote inter religious conversation and understanding the author argues that this approach is elitist and that in reality people do not make sharp distinctions between religions nor do they separate political economic social and cultural beliefs and practices from their religious traditions Case studies from villages in southern India explore how Hindu Muslim and Christian communities interact in numerous ways that break the neat categories often used to describe each religion Swamy argues that those who promote dialogue are ostensibly attempting to overcome the separate identities of religious practitioners through understanding but in fact they re enforce them by encouraging a false sense of separation The Problem with Interreligious Dialogue Plurality Conflict and Elitism in Hindu Christian Muslim Relations provides an innovative approach to a central issue confronting Religious Studies combining both theory and ethnography

Religious Diversity and Interreligious Dialogue Anna Körs, Wolfram Weisse, Jean-Paul Willaime, 2020-04-07 This edited volume offers solutions on the challenges of religious pluralisation from a European perspective It gives special attention to interreligious dialogue and interfaith relations as specific means of dealing with plurality In particular the contributors describe innovative scientific approaches and broad political and social scopes of action for addressing the diversity of beliefs practices and traditions In total more than 25 essays bring together interdisciplinary and international research perspectives The papers cover a wide thematic range They highlight how religious pluralisation effects such fields as theology politics civil society education and communication media The contributors not only illustrate academic debates about religious diversity but they also look at the political and social scope for dealing with such Coverage spans numerous countries and beliefs from Buddhism to Judaism This book features presentations from the Herrenhausen Conference on Religious Pluralisation A Challenge for Modern Societies held in Hanover Germany October 2016 This insightful collection will benefit students and researchers with an interest in religion and laicism interreligious dialogue governance of religious diversity and religion in the public sphere

Theological Issues in Christian-Muslim Dialogue Charles Tieszen, 2018-06-08 Theological Issues in Christian Muslim Dialogue addresses the main theological topics of discussion that appear in Christian Muslim engagement Many of these topics originate in the medieval period and the earliest encounters between Christians and Muslims Even so the topics persist in contemporary contexts of dialogue and engagement Christians and Muslims still discuss whether or not God should be understood as strictly one or as a Trinity in Unity and debates over the nature of revelation or prophethood remain Theological reflection therefore must continue to be brought to bear on these topics in light of their history and in view of their applicability to growing contexts of inter religious engagement Theological Issues in Christian Muslim Dialogue is a comprehensive theological sourcebook for students learning about Christian Muslim relations and practitioners engaged in

Christian Muslim dialogue     Courage for Dialogue Stanley J. Samartha, 1981     World Christianity Encounters World Religions Edmund Kee-Fook Chia, 2018-10-23 Synthesizing the thinking of the most prominent scholars Professor Edmund Chia discusses practically everything that should be known about Christianity's encounter with other religions in this comprehensive book Topics include the invention of the idea of World Religions and World Christianity the Bible and the church's attitude toward other faiths Vatican II Asian Christianity and interfaith dialogue the what why when and how of dialogue the global ecumenical movement theologies of religious pluralism cross textual hermeneutics comparative theology interfaith worship religious syncretism multiple religious belonging interfaith learning in seminaries     Pope Francis and Interreligious Dialogue Harold Kasimow, Alan Race, 2018-10-29 This book engages thinkers from different religious and humanist traditions in response to Pope Francis's pronouncements on interreligious dialogue The contributors write from the perspectives of Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism Sikhism Buddhism and Humanism Each author elaborates on how the pope's openness to dialogue and invitation to practical collaboration on global concerns represents a significant achievement as the world faces an uncertain future The theological tension within the Catholic double commitment to evangelization on the one hand and dialogue on the other remains unresolved for most writers but this does not prevent them from praising the strong invitation to dialogue especially with the focus on justice peace and ecological sustainability

Theological Issues in Christian-Muslim Dialogue Charles Tieszen, 2018-06-08 Theological Issues in Christian Muslim Dialogue addresses the main theological topics of discussion that appear in Christian Muslim engagement Many of these topics originate in the medieval period and the earliest encounters between Christians and Muslims Even so the topics persist in contemporary contexts of dialogue and engagement Christians and Muslims still discuss whether or not God should be understood as strictly one or as a Trinity in Unity and debates over the nature of revelation or prophethood remain Theological reflection therefore must continue to be brought to bear on these topics in light of their history and in view of their applicability to growing contexts of inter religious engagement Theological Issues in Christian Muslim Dialogue is a comprehensive theological sourcebook for students learning about Christian Muslim relations and practitioners engaged in Christian Muslim dialogue     Interreligious Dialogue Models Alwani Ghazali, Muhammad Kamal, 2023-12-15 How did the Prophet Muhammad pbuh converse and engage with other religious believers Did he start off with prejudice and mistrust Or was he convivial and open minded This book analyses six models of the dealings in the lifetime of the Prophet Muhammad pbuh specifically but not restricted to the siblings of Abrahamic religious believers The six models of dialogue analysed in the book are dialogue with Ashamah Najashi of Abyssinia delegation of Najran Christians different Jews of Yathrib and emperors of Byzantine and Sassanid The analysis applies Ibn Khaldun's d 1406 historical approach which the author termed as Khaldunian Hermeneutics due to the similarity between his ideas to that of Johann Gustav Droysen d 1884 a German philosopher in historical hermeneutics As such the analysis goes beyond the dialogue content taking into consideration the immediate and larger contextual settings and changes of the contexts due to the passage of time It critically considers the suitability of each model due to the difference in times and contexts The book serves as a reference for Muslim dialogue advocates and practitioners to provide substantial evidence of the dialogue application by the role model of Muslims the Prophet Muhammad pbuh whom they hold very dear to their hearts Introducing Christian Mission Today Michael W. Goheen, 2014-07-14 Michael Goheen gives us a full scale introduction to mission studies today in its biblical theological and historical dimensions Goheen covers the full horizon of major issues in mission including its global urban and holistic contexts This text shows how the missional church encounters the pluralism of Western culture and global religions

Dialogue as an Imperative to Ecumenical and Interreligious Problems in Nigeria Casmir Chimezie

Obi, 2015-08-06 The Church is the Sacrament of Communion with God and unity among all men Cf Vatican II doc L G 1 Christ prayed for this unity amongst his adherents in accordance with the unity between him and God the Father Cf Jn 17 21 This unity will be a sign by which the outside world is to believe in him hence calling on the Church to rise up to this demand Efforts were made by the Church to respond to this demand but it was at the Second Vatican Council that the search for unity became an imperative With this Council the Church acknowledged the possibility of Salvation for the members of other Christian traditions and people of other religions The Church has done a lot to promote this unity through the teachings of the Magisterium and the activities of the recent Popes It is then important to study the situation of Nigeria where this call of the Vatican II has received scant response both in ecumenical and interreligious relations Having done pastoral work in places with interdenominational and interreligious rivalry in Nigeria I became concerned and worried The present religious crises in Nigeria has escalated to an issue of grave concern with the Boko Haram insurgency My motivation is to demonstrate the teaching of the Church regarding interdenominational and interreligious dialogue within Nigeria There has been no sustained effort to build bridges of religious unity in the country This research will demonstrate the necessity of ecumenical dialogue as a prelude to interreligious dialogue in Nigeria On the global level the need for various religions to foster relationships has become an imperative Two important bodies CAN and NIREC will be studied in this book The work aims at demonstrating the involvement of the Nigerian Christians and Muslims in ecumenical and interreligious dialogue Essentially concerned with the Catholic view of ecumenical and interreligious dialogue its application to the Nigerian situation No in depth study of the religions involved It is rather the fact of their existence the role dialogue will play with them to solve religious problems in Nigeria Though ATR was considered in this work but the issue of dialogue will only involve Nigerian Muslims Christians The research wishes to provoke further study on dialogue between ATR and any of the other two religions Two issues involved the reality importance of the Catholic teachings on ecumenical interreligious dialogue and their application to the Nigerian situation Key methods involved in this work are literary research and analysis through theological historical critical descriptive analytical expository approaches Faith-based Diplomacy and Interfaith Dialogue Scott

Blakemore,2019-05-27 Scholars are seeking to identify how to constructively integrate faith into diplomacy Proponents of faith based diplomacy recognise that incorporating faith into peacemaking activities assists in managing identity based conflict and religiously motivated violence in the contemporary international system A promising strategy within the scope of faith based diplomacy is interfaith dialogue The study and practice of interfaith dialogue has been reinvigorated since the advent of 9 11 and yet the link between interfaith dialogue and diplomacy remains underdeveloped The cases of Indonesia and the United States present lessons on how states can effectively use interfaith dialogue to achieve policy objectives while recognising that some policies are detrimental to achieving diplomatic goals This paper seeks to provide some framework for bringing interfaith dialogue into the scope of diplomacy by illuminating how faith based diplomacy and interfaith dialogue can be innovative diplomatic perspectives useful in addressing contemporary global issues
