Religious Life The Challenge Of Tomorrow:

Religious Life in a New Millennium Volume One Sandra M. Schneiders, I.H.M., Religious Life Cassian J. Yuhaus, 1994 The chapters in this book were originally talks given at the 25th International Institute for Religious which brought together a group of creative people to reflect on whether religious life has any future and what shape it might take The contributors to this book offer a variety of approaches that suggest the old ways of life are dead while the new ones are coming into focus Finding the Treasure Sandra Marie Schneiders, 2000 Sandra Schneiders brilliant and perceptive analysis projects a new model of religious life Deeply exciting and genuinely consoling from back cover The Evolution of a Vow Judith Schaefer, 2009 For centuries the vow of obedience has been at the heart of religious life With the renewal efforts of Vatican II the vow has been dramatically restructured but not theologically re envisioned The Evolution of a Vow Obedience as Decision Making in Communion addresses the changes in the vow and proposes a renewed theology that supports the living out of obedience in the twenty first century Obedience in communion as a theological proposal invites vowed religious to create a pattern of limitless listening that everywhere seeks the call of God to communion Against the horizon of communion obedience becomes the singular thread of grace by which vowed religious become who they are called to be A Life in Conversation Michael A. Cowan, 2015-04-30 In a long and creative academic career Professor Bernard J Lee has published and taught on the cutting edge of Catholic theology He has been a beloved teacher generous mentor and cherished colleague during his academic tenures at Maryville University St Johns University Collegeville Loyola University New Orleans and St Marys University San Antonio In A Life in Conversation his colleagues and former students offer a collection of essays that honor him on the occasion of his eightieth birthday The essays focus on many aspects of Lees pioneering work which includes explorations in process theology ecclesiology the Jewish world of Jesus sacramentology religious life small Christian communities and practical theology Gathered here under the metaphorical umbrella of conversation a commitment of primary and life long importance to Professor Lee these essays offer glimpses of the stature of a religious thinker whose life in conversation continues to affect deeply his students and colleagues alike The authors contributing to this volume are Dianne Bergant C S A Michael A Cowan Nancy Dallavalle William V DAntonio Peter Eichten Thomas F Giardino S M Andrew Simon Sleeman O S B Terry A Veling and Evelyn and James Whitehead A Life in Conversation concludes with an essay by Professor Lee Within and Without Michael John Cunningham, 2003 The General Chapter in a Religious Institute Elizabeth M. Cotter, 2008 This book examines the historical antecedents of the concept of general chapter the supreme authority in an institute of consecrated life This provides the basis for an examination of the contemporary understanding of the nature of its power and authority as portrayed in the 1983 Code of Canon Law The general chapter is analysed in terms of its juridic status collegial nature participative character and representative function as well as its dynamic aspects and faith dimension The author applies the findings to one institute of consecrated life Institute of the Blessed Virgin Mary Loreto Branch This application provides an example of the challenges inherent in working participatively and collaboratively within a hierarchical structure Because consecrated life has an inalienable ecclesial dimension understanding authority and power and their exercise in institutes of consecrated life has relevance for understanding authority and its exercise in other organs of authority at all levels in the church Spiritans Life and Mission Since Vatican II William Cleary, 2018-02-01 The Second Vatican Council 1962-65 called for the renewal of all religious institutes in the Catholic Church The Congregation of the Holy Spirit Spiritans responded initially under the leadership of Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre Different interpretations of Vatican II caused divisions culminating in Lefebvre's departure from the congregation From this difficult starting point the Spiritans sought to redefine themselves in creative fidelity to their founding intention the spirit of Vatican II and the signs of the times Spiritans Life and Mission since Vatican II recounts this journey of renewal in three parts the Spiritan world before Vatican II and the election of Archbishop Lefebvre as superior general in 1962 the ad experimentum period culminating with a new rule of life in 1986 and the implementation of this new rule as interpreted through inter congregational discourse particularly the general chapters of 1992 1998 and 2004 The development of thinking on the church's mission and the congregation's rediscovery of the founding charisms of Claude Poullart des Places and Francis Libermann provide the parameters for this positive interpretation of the Spiritan journey of renewal Its evolution in the third millennium into a multicultural international missionary community of some three thousand members from over sixty countries in service of the Missio Dei bears testimony to this Exploring Christian Spirituality Bruce H. Lescher, Elizabeth Liebert, 2006 Sandra Schneiders commands respect as one of the most significant and influential figures in the emergence of the study of Christian spirituality as an academic discipline as the focused and disciplined exploration of religious experience This book honors her contributions to the field by addressing issues that are emerging at the creative edges of the discipline In this volume colleagues and students of Dr Schneiders and other collaborators in the academic discipline of Christian spirituality examine crucial issues from their various disciplinary and methodological perspectives Questions of methodology address the status of spirituality as a discipline interdisciplinarity and self implication Other essays explore the edges of Christian spirituality and biblical spirituality gender studies the natural sciences nature writing the social sciences and interfaith issues This collection of essays will provoke students and scholars of Christian spirituality as well as practitioners to continue critically thinking discussing writing and practicing it

Journey Into Faith and Fidelity Nadine Foley, 1999-10-01 This book is a collection of related stories by members of the Adrian Dominican congregation that reflects the creative movement that has taken place in religious life as women have responded to the inspiration of Vatican Council II as well as to the impact of contemporary culture While the impetus to renewal came directly from the Church authority adaptation and change far exceeded what was originally envisioned by those who authorized the process particularly when the institutes responded to the directive to consult all the members The contributors to this book trace the most critical influences that moved religious congregations toward a renewed religious life. They embraced a God who does not remain static but who moves in human history; a loving God who relates to us in care and compassion; a Holy Spirit who dwells within and inspires through discernment the decisions and directions that are to be taken; a sense of personal worth and empowerment as women baptized into gospel mission and ministry; a response to Church teaching that action on behalf of justice is constitutive of Gospel mission. In renewing their religious life, women have an important experience to offer the Church for ongoing renewal in the future as reflection upon these essays and continuing dialogue will reveal.

The Churchman, 1927 Live Your Life Titus Lehmann, 1928 Science and Religion J.W. Fennema, Paul Iain, 2012-12-06

The world is increasingly becoming one. It is at the same time one endangered ecosystem and one thriving market place with material and spiritual goods on competitive display. And the good and evil things of life cannot easily be sorted out. The world is becoming one also in the sense that it is better understood today than it was in earlier times that the material good and the spiritual good, though seemingly belonging to different realms of fact, defined by their respective modes of existence together constitute effectively one and the same reality. The modern world of science, technology, computerized administration and power that calls upon humankind to struggle for a just participatory and sustainable society and to strive for a society of the future that will be the world over both long lived and worth living.

The Second European Conference on Science and Religion held on 10-13th March 1988 on the campus of the Universiteit Twente Enschede, The Netherlands, was meant to be a modest market place, a forum where standpoints and opinions could be presented and criticized. It was meant to offer an opportunity to meet and to make acquaintances in the expectation that the exchange of thoughts would lead to new conceptual horizons that would challenge what so far had been considered as hard fact or what until now had been looked upon as a distinctive feature of a well-established view, either of the kingdom of the sciences or of the realm of religion.

Historical Studies, 1995 Rethinking Truth Philip Higgs, Jane Smith, 2006

By offering the statement the truth or truths we accept determine what our lives are and will be, the authors of this volume explore the contemporary world and all of its contradictions: from starvation, AIDS, and illiteracy to digital technology, the human genome project, and the financial markets of Wall Street and Tokyo. This engaging, accessible text examines the truth propounded by a range of philosophies such as critical theory, existentialism, feminism, and nihilism, discussing their practical applications and offering responses to the questions asked.

Charity Alive Mary Olga McKenna, 1998

Charity Alive Sisters of Charity Halifax 1950-1980 is the sequel to Sister Maura Power's chronicle of the first one hundred years of the congregation's history. Ryerson 1956. Based on congregational records and interviews with members of the order, the book traces, describes, and assesses the events which moved the Sisters from the traditional patterns of religious life over the first century into the 1980s. It shows the Sisters' response to the documents of Vatican II and the economic, cultural, and religious challenges during three decades of adaptation, renovation, and renewal. Charity Alive also presents the transformation effected within the congregation which liberated the Sisters and empowered them to reach beyond their traditional ministries of education health and social services to embrace new forms of ministry such as serving the less visible needs of the economically poor on the fringes of society The Jewish Forum ,1926 The Future of Political Islam G.

Hogue,2010-12-28 The Promise of Religious Naturalism explores religious naturalism as a distinctly promising form of contemporary religious ethics Examining how religious naturalism responds to the challenges of recent religious transformations and ecological peril worldwide author Michael Hogue argues that religious naturalism is emerging as an increasingly plausible and potentially rewarding form of religious moral life Beginning with an introduction of religious naturalism in the larger context of religious and ethical theories the book undertakes the first extended study of the works of religious naturalists Loyall Rue Donald Crosby Jerome Stone and Ursula Goodenough Hogue pays particular attention to the ethical components of religious naturalism in relation to religious pluralism and ecological issues
