Dutch Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Walter A. Liedtke, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2007 Presents a catalog that surveys the Dutch paintings found in the Metropolitan Museum of Art A Catalogue of Paintings, Drawings, Etchings and Lithographs by Professor Alphonse Legros (1837-1911) Francis Edward Bliss, Charles S. Ricketts, 1922 American Art Annual, 1911 American Art Directory, 1911 The biographical material formerly included in the directory is issued separately as Who's who in American art 1936 37 Hyde's Weekly Art News, 1913 The New York Times Index, 1924 Frank Lloyd Wright and the Johnson Wax Buildings Jonathan Lipman, Frank Lloyd Wright, 2003-01-01 Thoroughly researched study of the design and construction of this radical inspiring workplace draws on much unpublished archival material From the genesis of the structurally unique Administration Building its design development innovations and furnishings to the construction and completion of the Research Towers Lipman presents a wealth of information 172 black and white illustrations Boston Museum Bulletin Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, 1916 Arts Digest, 1929 Bulletin Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, 1909 Museum of Fine Arts Bulletin Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, 1903 Boston Museum Bulletin, 1913 Magazine of Art, 1922 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1976 The United States Catalog Mary Burnham, Carol Hurd, 1928 Rembrandt/not Rembrandt in the Metropolitan Museum of Art: Paintings, drawings, and prints: art-historical perspectives Hubertus von Sonnenburg, Walter A. Liedtke, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1995 A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings VI Ernst van de Wetering, 2014-11-11 A revised survey of Rembrandt's complete painted oeuvre The question of which 17th century paintings in Rembrandt's style were actually painted by Rembrandt himself had already become an issue during his lifetime It is an issue that is still hotly disputed among art historians today The problem arose because Rembrandt had numerous pupils who learned the art of painting by imitating their master or by assisting him with his work as a portrait painter He also left pieces unfinished to be completed by others The question is how to determine which works were from Rembrandt's own hand Can we for example define the criteria of quality that would allow us to distinguish the master's work from that of his followers Do we yet have methods of investigation that would deliver objective evidence of authenticity To what extent do research techniques used in the physical sciences help Or are we after all still dependent on the subjective expert eye of the connoisseur The book provides answers to these questions Prof Ernst van de Wetering the author of our forthcoming book which deals with these questions has been closely involved in all aspects of this research since 1968 the year the renowned Rembrandt Research Project RRP was founded In particular he played an important role in developing new criteria for authentication Van de Wetering was also witness to the way the often overly zealous tendency to doubt the authenticity of Rembrandt's paintings got out of hand In this book he re attributes to the master a substantial number of unjustly rejected Rembrandts He also was closely involved in the re discovery of a considerable number of lost or completely unknown works by Rembrandt The verdicts of earlier specialists including the majority of members of the original RRP up to 1989 were based on connoisseurship the self confidence in one's ability to recognise a specific artist's style and hand Over the years Van de Wetering has carried out seminal research into 17th century studio practice and ideas about art current in Rembrandt's time In this book he demonstrates the fallibility of traditional connoisseurship especially in the case of Rembrandt who was par excellence a searching artist The methodological implications of this critical view are discussed in an introductory chapter which relates the history of the developments in this turbulent field of research Van de Wetering's account of his own involvement in it makes this book a lively and sometimes unexpectedly personal account The catalogue section presents a chronologically ordered survey of Rembrandt's entire painted oeuvre of 336 paintings richly illustrated and annotated For all the paintings re-attributed in this book extensive commentaries have been included that provide a multi-faceted new insight into Rembrandt's world and the world of art historical research Rembrandt's Paintings Revisited is the concluding sixth volume of A Corpus of Rembrandt Paintings Volumes I V 1982 1986 1989 2005 2010 It can also be read as a revisionary critique of the first three Volumes published by the old RRP team up till 1989 and of Gerson's influential survey of Rembrandt's painted oeuvre of 1968-69 At the same time the book is designed as an independent overview that can be used on the basis that anyone seeking more detailed information will be referred to the five previous digital versions of the Volumes and the detailed catalogues published in the meantime by the various museums with collections of Rembrandt paintings This work of art history and art research should belong in the library of every serious art historical institute university or museum including Leonardo and Raphael Unlike other publications of Rembrandt's drawings here they are arranged thematically which makes his genius abundantly clear Individual chapters focus on self portraits portraits of family members and friends the lives of women and children nudes copies model and study sheets animals landscapes and buildings religious and mythological subjects historical subjects and genre scenes Slive discusses possible doubtful attributions which account for the considerable reduction from earlier times in the number of drawings now ascribed to the master
