marketing one's abilities and conducting a job search Lopsided Schools Gerard Giordano, 2011-01-16 Lopsided Schools introduces readers to the case method and helps the reader to use the case method to examine the scholastic challenges that critics posed from World War I to the present. Some critics have stirred up educators with threats to reduce their budgets or fire them. Others upset them with disconcerting questions: Should parents demand that their children learn speed reading? Should teachers emphasize vocational activities? Should principals train their own successors? Should superintendents award bonuses to teachers? Should employers hire the graduates with the highest scores on standardized tests? Should politicians assume greater responsibility for schooling? Should journalists publicize information about lopsided schools? This book examines these and the numerous other questions that critics posed The Literature Lover's Book of Lists Judie L. H. Strouf, 1999-09-15 Wonderful for browsing and invaluable for finding specific information. Literature Lovers Book of Lists is a compendium of useful and sometimes whimsical information for anyone who loves books and loves to read at any age or reading level. It is organized into nine sections and provides nearly 200 lists relating to genres, authors, characters, and settings, awards, literary terms with their definitions, and much more. There are even lists of books of prose and poetry available on audiocassettes. If it has to do with literature, this book has the answers. What book has had the longest run on The New York Times best seller list? Who is the only four-time winner of the Pulitzer Prize for drama? What is the complete list of Shakespeare's plays and poems? Who are some of the most notable African American authors? What are the three main variations of the sonnet? What famous writers belonged to The Bloomsbury Group? Literature Lovers Book of Lists is both exciting and informative at the same time Brain Dancing Patrick T. Magee, 1998 Work a 4-Hour Day Arthur K.
