

A dramatic landscape photograph featuring a narrow, sandy path that leads from the foreground into a dark, rocky canyon. The path is illuminated by a warm, golden light, likely from a low sun. In the background, the path opens up to a view of the ocean under a cloudy sky at sunset or sunrise. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

Dismantling Glory Lorrie Goldensohn, 2003

Dismantling Glory deals with the poetry written about the honors and horrors of battle by the very soldiers who put their lives on the line Focusing on American and English poetry from World Wars I and II and the Vietnam War Lorrie Goldensohn presents the move from a poetry largely bound to trench warfare to a global war poetry dominated by air power invasion and occupation Civilians prisoners and children enter this poetry in new and compelling ways as do issues of race and gender changing and complicating the representation of war and expanding the scope of antiwar thinking
