Remember The Alibi:

Remember the Alibi Elizabeth Daniels Squire,2009-09 A serial killer is swindling the elderly then killing them The conman makes a mistake however when he targets Peaches Dann s father The suspects include the wife of a gun crazy mountaineer who runs a doll hospital a history professor who shows Peaches some bizarre memory systems and a suspicious fortune teller How to be a Spy Denis Rigden,2004-04-01 In the early years of World War II top secret training schools taught prospective agents the skills of a spy from disguise to assassination How to Be a Spy ,2004-04 During World War II training in the black arts of covert operation was vital preparation for the ungentlemanly warfare waged by the Special Operations Executive SOE against Hitler s Germany and Tojo s Japan Reproduced here is the most comprehensive training syllabus used at SOE s Special Training Schools STSs showing how agents learnt to wreak maximum destruction in occupied Europe and beyond The training took place in country houses and other secluded locations ranging from the Highlands of Scotland to Singapore and Canada An array of unconventional skills are covered from burglary close combat and silent killing through to propaganda surveillance and disguise giving insight into the workings of one of World War II s most intriguing organizations Denis Rigden s introduction sets the documents in its historical context and includes stories of how these lessons were put into practice on actual wartime missions The Dying Body as a Lived Experience Alan Blum,2016-10-04 The anxiety over death persists in everyday life though often denied or repressed lingering as an unconscious worry or intuition that typically seems to compromise one s feelings of well being and experience in a range of areas coming out often as malaise depression and anger in much conduct If one accepts the cliché that life is preparation for death we must accept that the lived experience of the dying body is not highlighted merely in obvious cases of deterioration such as in the ageing or diseased body but in everyday life as a normal phenomenon This book proposes that sensitivity to this dimension can empower us to develop creative relationships to the vulnerability of others and to ourselves as well Part One lays the groundwork for a study of the ways the aura and fear of death recurs as a constant premonition in life and how people try to deal with this uneasiness Part Two then goes on to apply this focus to particular concerns and problems such as dementia depression aging retirement and a range of anxieties frustrations and aggressions The Dying Body as Lived Experience will be of interest to a wide interdisciplinary audience in the health sciences in the sociology of health and illness philosophy bioethics and in the expanding field of medical humanities Alibis and Corroborators Joshua D. Behl,Megan R. Kienzle,2022-05-09 This book aims to increase understanding of alibis and corroborators examining the role alibis play or fail to play in innocence cases It analyses the factors that can influence the suspect the defense team the alibi corroborator and ultimately the alibi statement itself Recognition of and reactions to wrongful convictions have been on the rise as researchers and society take a closer more critical look at America s criminal justice system In addition to serving as a complete review of the science this volume discusses issues such as alibi generation alibi believability a proposed theory of alibis international comparisons of issues in alibi corroboration age and gender differences in alibi corroboration attorney perceptions and use of alibi evidence and erroneous alibis Offering an in depth empirical view this book will appeal to students and researchers interested in Criminology Legal Psychology Social Psychology Law and practitioners in our legal and criminal justice systems who are making tough decisions about this distinctive witness type The Northeastern Reporter, 1922 Cases argued and determined in the courts of Illinois Indiana Massachusetts New York Ohio with key number annotations varies Myers on Evidence in Child, Domestic, and Elder Abuse Cases John E.
