Remember Ruben Mongo Beti, 2021 Remember Ruben Mongo Beti, 1983 Critical Perspectives on Mongo Beti Stephen H. Arnold, 1998

Mongo Beti is considered one of the most prolific and widely read authors from Cameroon and his writings have called world attention to political corruption in his native country. These essays cover the three distinct periods of his greatest activities as a writer: 1953, 1958, 1974, and 1991. Deep hiStories, 2021-11-22, represents the first substantial publication on gender and colonialism in Southern Africa in recent years and suggests methodological ways forward for a post-apartheid and postcolonial generation of scholars. The volume's theorizing, which is based on Southern African regional material, is certain to impact on international debates on gender debates which have shifted from earlier feminisms towards theorizations which include sexual difference, subjectivities, colonial and postcolonial discourses, and the politics of representation. Deep hiStories goes beyond the dichotomies which have largely characterized the discussion of women and gender in Africa and explores alternative models of interpretation such as genealogies of voice. These genealogies transcend the conventional binaries of visibility and invisibility, speaking and silence. Works covering South Africa from the eighteenth to the twentieth century and Zimbabwe, Namibia, and Cameroon in the twentieth include: Colonial readings of Foucault, Ideologies of domesticity, Torture and testimony of slave women, Women as missionary targets, Gender and the public sphere, Race, science and spectacle, Male nursing on mines, Infanticide, insanity and social control, Fertility and the postcolonial state, Literary reconstructions of the past, Gender blending and code switching, De-colonizing the queer. The collection includes diverse research on the body in Southern Africa for the first time. It brings new subtleties to the ongoing debates on culture, civility, and sexuality, dealing centrally with constructions of race and whiteness in history and literature. It is an important resource for teachers and students of gender and colonial studies. European-language Writing in Sub-Saharan Africa, Albert S. Gérard, 1986-01-01. The first major comparative study of African writing in western languages. European language Writing in Sub-Saharan Africa, edited by Albert S. Gérard, falls into four wide-ranging sections: an overview of early contacts and colonial developments; Under Western Eyes, chapters on Black Consciousness manifest in the debates over Pan-Africanism and Negritude; a group of essays on mental decolonization expressed in Black Power texts at the time of independence struggles; and finally Comparative Vistas, sketching directions that future comparative study might explore. An introductory essay stresses the millennia of writing in Africa side by side with a richly eloquent and artistic set of vernacular oral traditions. Written and oral traditions have become interwoven in adaptations of imported forms and linguistic innovations that challenge traditional high literary norms. Gérard uses the mathematical concept of fuzzy sets to explain why the focus on Black Africa has led him to set aside for future analysis the literatures produced in North Africa which fall under the influence of Muslim civilization, as well as the diasporic literatures of the New World. Over sixty scholars from twenty-two countries contribute specialized studies of creative writing by leading authors in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries such as Achebe Mphahlele Ngugi Senghor Soyinka and Tutuola Critical analyses are organized primarily around regions reflecting different colonial languages imposed through schools and other social institutions Some authors trace the adaptation of western genres others identify syncretism with folktales or myths The volumes are attentive to the heterogeneity of national literatures addressed to polyethnic and multilingual populations and they note the instrumental politics of language in newly independent states A closing chapter Tasks Ahead identifies areas for future scholars to explore Anxiety For Dummies Charles H. Elliott, Laura L. Smith, 2021-01-07 Take control of your anxiety and start living your life Feel like your life is spinning out of control Not sure how to handle what seems like constant change and chaos You re not alone the world has taken some pretty crazy turns recently but if you suffer from an anxiety disorder you re likely suffering far more than you need to Anxiety is our natural reaction to unfamiliar stressful and dangerous situations but for some of us this reaction can become all consuming and ultimately debilitating Anxiety For Dummies has the antidote to this showing you how to manage feelings of uneasiness distress and dread and take back control of your life In a straightforward and friendly style clinical psychologists Charles H Elliot and Laura L Smith show you how to pinpoint your triggers use proven techniques and therapies improve health and eating habits and make other practical changes to your lifestyle that will have you feeling better fast Understand what makes you anxious and learn to let go Change your thinking to right size your worry Evaluate self help as an adjunct to professional therapy Explore healthy lifestyles and medication options Including updates to the clinical literature and discussions of the impacts of world events such as COVID 19 this book has everything you need to manage your worries and put you not them in charge of your life Nalani Claudia Genoveva Medrano, 2010-11-05 War greed and fear that is what the world of Ezekiel knows all too well Well throughout the years war has ravaged the seven nations like a disease But where there is violence peace does eventually follow but peace never lasts long Three centuries after the great battle in Gamaliel peace begins to shrivel away as a new power hungry group called Maura seizes control over the nations It seems that no one is able to stop them not even the governments Corruption is one of the tools that Maura takes advantage of But hope is not completely erased there is one who still has a strong will to fight off this new threat Even as she struggles to understand herself and remember her past she falls into this cold world and finds that her past is somehow tied with Mauras Now as she confronts the enemy and their victims she finds herself torn between her past and the present Will she be able to confront her past that will help shape not only her destiny but the worlds Will she find this Legendary Ezekiel or find herself part of the old legend *Grevnin v. Migrating Words and Worlds E. Anthony Hurley,Renée Brenda Larrier,Joseph McLaren,1999 The essays presented here demonstrating concepts of Pan Africanism which historically were concerned with colonialism racial identity and African unity extend the discussion of an Africa that exists beyond the continent and includes the Caribbean the Americas and Europe Playing with the Boss Lexi Buchanan,2019-09-12 Five hot brothers who are about to meet five equally hot partners Michael McKenzie CEO of McKenzie Holdings has a bad habit of putting work before all else until a chance encounter in an elevator changes his outlook It s Lily Redmond s first day in the office and she doesn t know whether to be shocked or delighted that her new boss is the sexy business man who she met on the way into work Michael and Lily deserve a happily ever after but is that ever going to be possible with David Lily's boyfriend wanting forgiveness or will Michael fight for what he considers his Lily

Lost Kites and Other Treasures Cathy Carr, 2024-02-06 Cathy Carr's Lost Kites and Other Treasures is a moving and heartfelt middle grade novel about mental illness the transformative power of art and the ever changing complications and joys of family life Sincere and funny leaves readers with a sense of hope Sara Zarr author of A Song Called Home Will be treasured by readers everywhere Megan E Freeman award winning author of Alone Twelve year old Franny Petroski never lets anyone know how often she thinks of the charismatic troubled mom who left her years ago any more than she talks about the unaccountable things Mom did while she was still in the picture Life with Nana is safe and secure and Franny's innovative art projects fill in any lonesome times But when Nana has an accident and Franny's estranged uncle comes home to help out for a while some long guarded family secrets come to light Franny has to use all of her courage as well as all of her creativity to come to terms with the discoveries she makes about her mother and herself

Start Shooting Charlie Newton, 2012-01-10 The best way I can describe the Four Corners neighborhood of Chicago is find a length of rebar scratch a big cross into the concrete set your feet solid in the quadrant you like best lean back and start shooting Officer Bobby Vargas is hard edged but idealistic a Chicago cop who stands at the epicenter of a subterranean plot that will have horrific ramifications for both himself and the entire city Twenty five years earlier a gruesome murder rocked the unforgiving streets of Four Corners Now suddenly a dying Chicago paper is running a serial exposé on new evidence in that old case threatening to implicate Bobby and his older brother Ruben a decorated high ranking detective and cop prince of the streets The smear campaign stirs up decades old bad blood leading the Vargas brothers down an increasingly twisted and terrifying path where the sins of the past threaten to destroy what remains of the truth As readers and critics discovered in his first novel Calumet City Charlie Newton's Chicago is a landscape as brutal and poignant as any in modern crime fiction a multi faceted shockingly violent labyrinth of gangland politics political backstabbing corporate malfeasance and possibly hope Start Shooting is a riveting read

Decolonizing Translation Kathryn

Batchelor, 2014-04-08 The linguistically innovative aspect of Francophone African literature has been recognized and studied from a variety of angles over recent decades yet little attention has been paid to what happens to such literature when it is translated into another language Taking as its corpus all sub Saharan Francophone African texts that have ever been published in English this book explores the ways in which translators approach innovative features such as African language borrowings neologisms and other deliberate manipulations of French depictions of sociolinguistic variation and a variety of types of wordplay The implications of their translation decisions are drawn out with reference to the broader significances that are often accorded to postcolonial literature and earlier critics calls for a decolonized translation practice are explored from both a practical and theoretical angle These findings are used to push towards a detailed investigation of the postcolonial turn in translation studies drawing on the work of key postcolonial theorists such as Homi K Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak This is a timely and incisive critical assessment of contemporary discourses on the ethics and politics of translation

African Rythmns Chin Ce, Charles Smith, 2014-04-02 With new integrative and indigenous approaches to literary affairs the focus of this volume is on the influence of tradition in African writing Using the work of Chinua Achebe two scholars from outside Africa offer insight on oratorical devices in modern African fiction two chapters follow which by fusing traditional elements in transitional societies illustrate the cultural awareness that touch on the exalted role of the artist in their communities The post colonial rhetoric also continues with echoes of political commitment on modern poetry town issues in the discourse of Africas literary progress in the last decade The growing concern for African youth development is at the heart of a dialogue with childrens fiction writer Anezi Okoro Two scholars of Africa orature have written on the birth songs of Cameroonian women performers and the riddle contents of youth artists from Nigerian in a manner which recognises the immediate relevance of this cherished but neglected part of African literary aesthetics

African Film Josef Gugler, 2003 In African Film Re imagining a Continent Josef Gugler provides an introduction to African cinema through an analysis of 15 films made by African filmmakers These directors set out to re image Africa their films offer Western viewers the opportunity to re imagine the continent and its people As a point of comparison two additional films on Africa one from Hollywood the other from apartheid South Africa serve to highlight African directors altogether different perspectives Gugler s interpretation considers the financial and technical difficulties of African film production the intended audiences in Africa and the West the constraints on distribution and the critical reception of the films

Mennonites and Post-Colonial African Studies John M. Janzen, Harold F. Miller, John C. Yoder, 2021-02-28 This book examines the evolution of post colonial African Studies through the eyes of Africanists from the Anabaptist Mennonite and Church of the Brethren community The book chronicles the lives of twenty two academics and practitioners whose work spans from the immediate post colonial period in the 1960s to the present day a period in which decolonization and development have dominated scholarly and practitioner debate Reflecting the values and perspectives they shared with the Mennonite Central Committee and other church sponsored organizations the authors consider their own personal journeys and professional careers the power of the prevailing scholarly paradigms they encountered and the realities of post colonial Africa Coming initially from Anabaptist service programs the authors ultimately made wider contributions to comparative religion church leadership literature music political science history anthropology economics and banking health and healing public health extension education and community development The personal histories and reflections of the authors provide an important glimpse into the intellectual and cultural perspectives that shaped the work of Africanist scholars and practitioners in the post colonial period The book reminds us that the work of every Africanist is shaped by their own life stories
