Across the Diaspora Andrea O'Reilly Herrera, 2011-07-11 As an island a geographical space with mutable and porous borders Cuba has never been a fixed cultural political or geographical entity Migration and exile have always informed the Cuban experience and loss and displacement have figured as central preoccupations among Cuban artists and intellectuals A major expression of this experience is the unconventional multi generational itinerant and ongoing art exhibit CAF The Journeys of Cuban Artists In Cuban Artists Across the Diaspora Andrea O'Reilly Herrera focuses on the CAF project to explore Cuba's long and turbulent history of movement and rupture from the perspective of its visual arts and to meditate upon the manner in which one reconstitutes and reinvents the self in the context of diaspora Approaching the Cafeteros art from a cultural studies perspective O'Reilly Herrera examines how the history of Cuba informs their work and establishes their connections to past generations of Cuban artists In interviews with more than thirty artists including Jos Bedia Mar a Brito Leandro Soto Glexis Novoa Baruj Salinas and Ana Albertina Delgado O'Reilly Herrera also raises critical questions regarding the many and sometimes paradoxical ways diasporic subjects self affiliate or situate themselves in the narratives of scattering and displacement She demonstrates how the Cafeteros artmaking involves a process of re-rooting absorption translation and synthesis that simultaneously conserves a series of identifiable Cuban cultural elements while re-inscribing and transforming them in new contexts An important contribution to both diasporic and transnational studies and discussions of contemporary Cuban art Cuban Artists Across the Diaspora ultimately testifies to the fact that a long tradition of Cuban art is indeed flourishing outside the island Cuban-American Literature and Art Isabel Alvarez Borland, Lynette M. F.

Bosch, 2009-01-26 This groundbreaking collection offers an understanding of why Cuban American literature and visual art have emerged in the United States and how they are so essentially linked to both Cuban and American cultures The contributors explore crucial issues pertinent not only to Cuban American cultural production but also to other immigrant groups hybrid identities biculturation bilingualism immigration adaptation and exile The complex ways in which Cuban Americans have been able to keep a living memory of Cuba while developing and thriving in America are both intriguing and instructive These essays written from a variety of perspectives range from useful overviews of fictional and visual works of art to close readings of individual texts Latino History Day by Day Caryn E. Neumann, Tammy S. Allen, 2013-05-09 This title takes a calendrical approach to illuminating the history of Latinos and life in the United States and adds more value than a simple this day in history through primary source excerpts and resources for further research Latino a history has been relatively slow in gaining recognition despite the population s rich and varied history Engaging and informative Latino History Day by Day A Reference Guide to Events will help address that oversight Much more than just a this day in history list the guide describes important events in Latino a history augmenting many entries with a brief excerpt from a primary document All entries include two annotated books and websites as key resources for follow up The day to day reference is organized by the 365 days of the year with each day drawing from events that span several hundred years of Latino a history from Mexican Americans to Puerto Ricans to Cuban Americans With this guide in hand teachers will be able to more easily incorporate Latino a history into their classes Students will find the book an easy to use guide to the Latino a past and an ideal starting place for research

Transnational American Spaces Tina Powell, Patricia Sagasti Suppes, 2022-06-07 As people migrate they face the need to create a stable space within a disconcertingly unfamiliar environment This experience of creating new spaces opens opportunities for positive transcultural connections however these opportunities can also serve as the disciplining of the migrant body This text focuses on the movement of bodies in transnational communities and the formation of domestic and communal spaces that provide respite from migratory paths negotiate transnational relationships or establish a new home In doing so we explore literary texts that question challenge and deepen our understanding of the experience of migration through the use of space and place The texts in question examine three levels of transnational spaces intimate spaces such as family personal growth or sexuality inherited spaces reflected in generational conflicts religious identity and inherited histories and national spaces that look at issues of broader national identities The texts we examine engage with transnational communities within the United States and the ways in which narratives reimagine new space to negotiate change and create new norms These narratives can sometimes bridge both cultures or can sometimes result in a violent sense of displacement Each chapter problematizes a different aspect of transcultural adaptation and the geographic ties of each community focus reflect the multicultural reality of the U S with connections to Asia the Caribbean Europe the Middle East and Latin America

Essays in Cuban Intellectual History R. Rojas, 2008-03-17 Well known essayist and Cuban historian Rafael Rojas presents a collection of his best work one which focuses on and offers alternatives to the central myths that have organized Cuban culture from the nineteenth century to the present Rojas explores the most important themes of Cuban intellectual history including the legacy of Jos Mart the cultural effect of the war in 1898 the construction of a national canon of Cuban literature the works of classical intellectuals of the republican period the literary magazine Or genes the ideological impact of the Cuban Revolution and the possibilities of a democratic transition in the island at the beginning of the twenty first century

Culture and the Cuban State Yvon Grenier, 2017-11-08 Culture and the Cuban State examines the politics of culture in communist Cuba It focuses on cultural policy censorship and the political participation of artists writers and academics such as Tania Bruguera Jes s D az Rafael Hern ndez Kcho Reynier Leyva Novo

Leonardo Padura and Jos Toirac The cultural field is important for the reproduction of the regime in place given its pretense and ambition to be eternally revolutionary and to lead a genuine cultural revolution Cultural actors must be mobilized and handled with care given their presumed disposition to speak their mind and to cherish their autonomy This book argues that cultural actors also seek recognition by the main for a long time the only sponsor and patron of the art in Cuba the curator state The curator state is also a gatekeeper state arbitrarily and selectively opening and closing the space for public expression and for access to foreign currencies and the global market The time when everything was either mandatory or forbidden is over in Cuba The regime seems to have learned from egregious mistakes that led to a massive exodus of artists writers and academics In a country where things change so everything could stay the same the controlled opening in the cultural field playing on the actors ambition and fear illuminates a broader phenomenon the evolving rules of the political game in the longest standing dictatorship of the hemisphere Reading U.S. Latina Writers A. Quintana, 2003-03-18 This essential teaching guide focuses on an emerging body of literature by U S Latina and Latin American Women writers It will assist non specialist educators in syllabus revision new course design and classroom presentation The inclusive focus of the book that is combining both US Latina and Latin American women writers is significant because it introduces a more global and transnational way of approaching the literature The introduction outlines the major historical experiences that inform the literature the important genres periods movements and authors in its evolution the traditions and influences that shape the works and key critical issues of which teachers should be aware The collection seeks to provide readers with a variety of Latina texts that will guarantee its long term usefulness to teachers and students of pan American literature Because it is no longer possible to understand U S Latina literature without taking into consideration the histories and cultures of Latin America the volume will through its organization argue for a more globalized type of analysis which considers the similarities as well as the differences in U S and Latin American women s cultural productions In this context the term Latina evokes a diasporic transnational condition in order to address some of the pedagogical issues posed by the bicultural nature which is inherent in pan American women s literature Cuban Studies 33 Lisandro Perez, Uva De Aragon, 2003-02-01 Cuban Studies has been published annually by the University of Pittsburgh Press since 1985 Founded in 1970 it is the preeminent journal for scholarly work on Cuba Each volume includes articles in both English and Spanish a large book review section and an exhaustive compilation of recent works in the field Latino Education in the United States V. MacDonald, 2004-11-12 Winner of a 2005 Critics Choice Award from The American Educational Studies Association this is a groundbreaking collection of oral histories letters interviews and governmental reports related to the history of Latino education in the US Victoria Mar a MacDonald examines the intersection of history Latino culture and education while simultaneously encouraging undergraduates and graduate students to reexamine their relationship to the world of education and their own histories Encyclopedia of Hispanic-American Literature Luz Elena Ramirez, 2015-04-22 Presents a reference on Hispanic

American literature providing profiles of Hispanic American writers and their works Identity, Memory, and Diaspora

Jorge J. E. Gracia, Lynette M. F. Bosch, Isabel Alvarez Borland, 2009-01-08 This fascinating volume contains interviews with nineteen prominent Cuban American artists writers and philosophers who tell their stories and share what they consider important for understanding their work Struggling with issues of Cuban American identity in particular and social identity in general they explore such questions as how they see themselves how they have dealt with the diaspora and their memories what they have done to find a proper place in their adopted country and how their work has been influenced by the experience Their answers reveal different perspectives on art literature and philosophy and the different challenges encountered personally and professionally The interviews are gathered into three groups nine artists six writers and four philosophers An introductory essay for each group is included and the interviews are accompanied by brief biographical notes along with samples of the work of those interviewed Seeing in Spanish Ryan Prout, Tilmann Altenberg, 2011-05-25

Religious and Ethical Perspectives on Global Migration Elizabeth W. Collier, Charles R. Strain, 2014-06-05 Religious and Ethical Perspectives on Global Migration examines the complicated social ethics of migration in today s world Editors Elizabeth W Collier and Charles R Strain bring the perspectives of an international group of scholars toward a theory of justice and ethical understanding for the nearly two hundred million migrants who have left their homes seeking asylum from political persecution greater freedom and safety economic opportunity or reunion with family members Migrants move out of fear desperation hope love for their families or a myriad of other complex motivations Faced with both the needs and flows of people and the walls that impede them what actions ought we both individually and collectively take What is the moral responsibility of those of us in particular who reside comfortably in our native lands There is no univocal response to these questions Instead multiple perspectives on migration must be examined This book begins by looking at different geographic regions around the world and highlighting particular issues within each Finding that religious traditions represent the strongest countervailing sources of values to the homogenizing tendencies of economic globalization the study then offers a plurality of religious perspectives The final chapters examine the salient issues and the proposed solutions that have emerged specifically within the U S context These studies range from militarization of the U S border with Mexico to the impact of migrants on native born low skilled workers Encompassing a wide range of cultural and scholarly voices Religious and Ethical Perspectives on Global Migration provides insight for ethics moral philosophy social and political philosophy religious studies social justice globalization and identity formation Cuba Andrea O'Reilly Herrera, 2012-02-01 In Cuba internationally renowned artists philosophers and writers reflect on the idea of a nation displaced Featuring contributions from Isabel Alvarez Borland Antonio Ben tez Rojo Mar a Cristina Garc a William Navarrete Eliana Rivero Rafael Rojas and Carlos Victoria as well as many others Cuba is a rich collection of essays testimonials and interviews that reveal the complex often antagonistic cultural and political debates coexisting within the Cuban exile population As a multivoiced text Cuba formulates a deeper understanding of diasporic identity and broadens the discussion of the manner in which Cuban cultural identity and nationhood have been constructed negotiated and transformed by physical and cultural displacement
