Historical Memory in Africa Mamadou Diawara, Bernard Lategan, Jörn Rüsen, 2010-06-01 A vast amount of literature both scholarly and popular now exists on the subject of historical memory but there is remarkably little available that is written from an African perspective This volume explores the inner dynamics of memory in all its variations from its most destructive and divisive impact to its remarkable potential to heal and reconcile It addresses issues on both the conceptual and the pragmatic level and its theoretical observations and reflections are informed by first hand experiences and comparative reflections from a German Indian and Korean perspective A new insight is the importance of the future dimension of memory and hence the need to develop the ability to remember with the future in mind Historical memory in an African context provides a rich kaleidoscope of the diverse experiences and perspectives and yet there are recurring themes and similar conclusions connecting it to a global dialogue to which it has much to contribute but from which it also has much to receive

Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton,1993

No Word for the Sea Diane Glancy,2017-07-21 No Word for the Sea is built on several layers of questioning What is language What is memory Where does the mind go when the circuits shut down The novel covers seven years in the lives of Solome and Stephen Savard in St Paul Minnesota Stephen is provost at Cobson College and Solome has raised three children The events alternate between Stephen s first person narrative and Solome s third person narrative in accord with the breaking text of their lives Once there was a common Indo European language with words for winter and horse but no word for the sea The history of the English language has an inland origin As they find themselves stranded in the destructive effects of Stephen s Alzheimer s there also is an exploration of resolution that comes from such an experience Mark 8 36 asks What does it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul No Word for the Sea asks What if a man gains his soul but loses the world

Silenced Voices Inez Hollander,2008 Like a number of Netherlanders in the post World War II era Inez Hollander only gradually became aware of her family's connections with its Dutch colonial past including a Creole great grandmother For the most part such personal stories have been if not entirely silenced at least only whispered about in Holland where society has remained uncomfortable with many aspects of the country's relationship with its colonial empire Unlike the majority of memoirs that are soaked in nostalgia for tempo dulu Hollander's story sets out to come to grips with her family's past by weaving together personal records with historical and literary accounts of the period She seeks not merely to locate and preserve family memories but also to test them against a more disinterested historical record Hers is a complicated and sometimes painful personal journey of realization unusually mindful of the ways in which past memories and present considerations can be intermingled when we seek to understand a difficult past Silenced Voices is an important contribution to the literature on how Dutch society has dealt with its recent colonial history      I Remember when ,1923      Curve Ball Jim Albert,Jay Bennett,2007-11-23 A look at baseball data from a statistical modeling perspective There is a fascination among baseball fans and the media to collect data on every imaginable event during a baseball game and this book addresses a number of questions that are of interest to many baseball fans These include how to rate players predict the outcome of a game or the attainment of an achievement making sense of situational data and deciding the most valuable players in the World Series Aimed at a general audience the text does not assume any prior background in probability or statistics although a knowledge of high school algebra will be helpful
