The French Review James Frederick Mason, Hélène Harvitt,

Transformational Reminiscence John A. Kunz, Florence Gray Soltys, 2007-04-23 As recently as fifty years ago people believed that reminiscing was a sign of senility Today along with a greater understanding of the significance of reminiscence we have seen the rising popularity of private memoirs in various forms from oral histories by universities to audio and videotapes for family archives

John A Kunz and Florence Gray Soltys have made a major contribution to the field by providing a framework for individuals and groups engaged in this enriching and important work Robert N Butler MD Finally a book that takes a big picture look at the complexities of using life story work with older adults Using the life story matrix as a framework the authors and their contributors cover the complexities of reminiscence and life review techniques and advice for making a personal story public and the delicate balance of when to focus on content and when the process of telling one's life story can be therapeutic or destructive Transformational Reminiscence teaches the reader how to use the full spectrum of life story approaches to enhance quality of life for older adults ameliorate social and psychological problems and intervene if they occur Practical applications anecdotes exercises that help clarify the experiential side of the content and helpful suggestions enhance each chapter and ensure a safe and ethical application of this technique This book is a must read for anyone who uses a life story approach in his or her work with older adults or is teaching or supervising others in doing so The Venice Biennale and the Asia-Pacific in the Global Art World Stephen Naylor, 2020-05-14 This monograph uses the national pavilions of the Venice Biennale as a vehicle to examine the development of international contemporary art trends within the Asia Pacific region including Australia Japan and Korea and 16 additional national entities who have had less continuous participation in this global art event Analysing both the spatial and visual representation of contemporary art presented at the Venice Biennale and incorporating the politics behind national selections this monograph provides insights into a range of important elements of the global art industry Areas analysed include national cultural trends and strategies the inversion of the peripheral to the centre stage of the Biennale geopolitics in gaining exhibition space at the Venice Biennale curatorial practices for contemporary art presentation and artistic trends that seek to deal with major economic cultural religious and environmental issues emerging from non European art centres This monograph will be of interest to scholars in art history museum studies and Asia Pacific cultural history The Oxford Handbook of Clinical Geropsychology Nancy A. Pachana, Ken Laidlaw, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Clinical Geropsychology is a landmark publication in this field providing broad and authoritative coverage of the research and practice issues in the field today as well as innovations expanding the field's horizons It includes chapters from the foremost scholars in clinical geropsychology from around the world Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2006 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office, 2003 American Furniture Oscar P. Fitzgerald, 2017-12-22 Drawing on the latest scholarship this comprehensive lavishly illustrated survey tells the story of the evolution of American furniture from the 17th century to the present Not viewed in isolation furniture is placed in its broader cultural historic and aesthetic context The focus is not only on the urban masterpieces of 18th century William and Mary Queen Anne Chippendale and Federal styles but also on the work of numerous rural cabinetmakers Special chapters explore Windsor chairs Shaker and Pennsylvania German furniture which do not follow the mainstream style progression Picturesque and anti classical explain Victorian furniture including Rococo Renaissance and Eastlake Mission and Arts and Crafts furniture introduce the 20th century Another chapter identifies the eclectic revivals such as Early American that dominated the mass market throughout much of the 20th century After World War II American designers created many of the Mid Century Modern icons that are much sought after by collectors today The rise of studio furniture and furniture as art which include some of the most creative and imaginative furniture produced in the 20th and 21st centuries caps the review of four centuries of American furniture A final chapter advises on how to evaluate the authenticity of both traditional and modern furniture and how to preserve it for posterity With over 800 photos including 24 pages of color this fully illustrated text is the authoritative reference work
