Sex, Drugs, Death, and the Law David A. J. Richards, 1986 Among the most commonly argued legal questions are those involving victimless crimes consensual adult sexual relations including homosexuality and prostitution the use of drugs and the right to die How can they be distinguished from proper crimes and how can we as citizens judge the complex moral and legal issues that such questions entail David Richards a teacher of law in the areas of constitutional and criminal law and a moral and legal philosopher concerned with the investigation of legal concepts applies an interdisciplinary approach to the question of overcriminalization he draws on legal and philosophical arguments and links the subject to history psychology social science and literature To demonstrate how gross and unjust overcriminalization has developed Professor Richards explores basic assumptions that often underlie the common American sense of proper criminalization Library Book Catalog United States.
