Secured Transactions Law in Asia Louise Gullifer, Dora Neo, 2021-03-25 This collection of essays offers a unique insight and overview of the secured transactions law in many of the most important countries in Asia as well as reflections on the need for benefits of and challenges for reform in this area of the law The book provides a mixture of general reflections on the history successes and challenges of secured transaction law reform and critical discussion of the law in a number of Asian countries In some of the countries the law has already been reformed or reform is under way and here the reforms are considered critically with recommendations for future work In other countries the law is not yet reformed and the existing law is analysed so as to determine what reform is desirable and whether it is likely to take place First this book will enable those engaging with the law in Asia to understand better the contours of the law in both civil and common law jurisdictions Second it provides analytical insights into why secured transactions law reform happens or does not happen the different methods by which reform takes place the benefits of reform and the difficulties that need to be overcome for successful reform Third it discusses the need for reform where none has yet taken place and critically assesses the reforms which have already been enacted or are being considered In addition to providing a forum for discussion in relation to the countries in question this book is also a timely contribution to the wider debate on secured transactions law reform which is taking place around the world Secured Transactions Guide: Topical index; case table; charts; secured transactions explained; Uniform commercial code, selected provisions; State divisions (Alabama through Hawaii) Commerce Clearing House, 1987 The AALS Directory of Law Teachers, 2007 Research Handbook on International Commercial Contracts Andrew Hutchison, Franziska Myburgh, 2020-12-25 This comprehensive Research Handbook examines the continuum between private ordering and state regulation in the lex mercatoria highlighting constancy and change in this dynamic and evolving system in order to offer an in depth discussion of international commercial contract law International scholars from a range of jurisdictions and legal cultures across Africa North America and Europe dissect a plethora of contract types including sale insurance shipping credit negotiable instruments and agency against the backdrop of key legal regimes commonly chosen in international agreements Doing Business 2016 World Bank, 2015-10-27 Doing Business 2016 is the 13th publication in a series of annual reports comparing business regulation in 189 economies This year the publication addresses regulations affecting 10 areas of everyday business activity including Starting a business Dealing with construction permits Getting electricity Registering property Getting credit Protecting minority investors Paying taxes Trading across borders Enforcing contracts Resolving insolvency Doing Business 2016 updates all indicators as of June 1 2015 ranks economies on their overall ease of doing business and analyzes reforms to business regulation identifying which economies are strengthening their business environment the most This report illustrates how reforms in business regulations are being used to analyze economic outcomes for domestic entrepreneurs and for the wider economy It is a flagship product produced by the World Bank Group that garners worldwide attention on regulatory barriers to entrepreneurship More than 60 economies have used the Doing Business indicators to shape reform agendas and monitor improvements on the ground In addition the Doing Business data has generated over 2 100 articles in peer reviewed academic journals since its inception Federal Register, 2013-12 International and Comparative Secured Transactions Law Spyridon V Bazinas, Orkun Akseli, 2017-10-19 The law of secured transactions has seen dramatic changes in the last decade International organisations particularly the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law UNCITRAL have been working towards the creation of international legal standards aimed at the modernisation and harmonisation of secured financing laws eg the United Nations Convention on the Assignment of Receivables in International Trade the UNCITRAL Legislative Guide on Secured Transactions and its Intellectual Property Supplement the UNCITRAL Guide on the Implementation of a Security Rights Registry and the UNCITRAL Model Law on Secured Transactions The overall theme of this book is international or cross border secured transactions law It assembles contributions from some of the most authoritative academic voices on secured financing law This publication will be of interest to those involved in secured transactions around the world including policy makers practitioners judges arbitrators and academics Secured Transactions Law Reform Louise Gullifer, Orkun

Akseli,2016-10-20 Secured transactions law has been subjected to a close scrutiny over the last two decades One of the main reasons for this is the importance of availability of credit and the consequent need to reform collateral laws in order to improve access to finance The ability to give security effectively influences not only the cost of credit but also in some cases whether credit will be available at all This requires rules that are transparent and readily accessible to non lawyers as well as rules that recognise the needs of small and medium sized enterprises This book critically engages with the challenges posed by inefficient secured credit laws It offers a comparative analysis of the reasons and the needs for a secured transactions law reform as well as discussion of the steps taken in many common law civil law and mixed law jurisdictions The book written under the auspices of the Secured Transactions Law Reform Project informs the debate about reform and advances novel arguments written by world renowned experts that will build upon the existing literature and as such will be of interest to academics legal practitioners and the judiciary involved in secured transactions law around the world The text considers reform initiatives that have taken place up to the end of April 2016 It has not been possible to incorporate events since then into the discussion However notable developments include the banks decree passed by the Italian Government on 29th June 2016 and the adoption of the Model Law on Secured Transactions by UNCITRAL on 1st July 2016 Cross-border

Transfer and Collateralisation of Receivables Woo-jung Jon,2018-01-25 Legal systems around the world vary widely in terms of how they deal with the transfer of and security interests in receivables The aim of this book is to help international financiers and lawyers in relevant markets in their practice of international receivables financing Substantively this book analyses three types of receivables financing transactions ie outright transfer security transfer and security interests This book covers comprehensive comparison and analysis of the laws on the transfer of and security interests in receivables of fifteen major jurisdictions encompassing common law jurisdictions Roman Germanic jurisdictions and French Napoleonic jurisdictions as well as relevant EU Directives To be more specific this book compares and analyses the relevant legal systems of the US Canada New Zealand Australia Korea Japan France Belgium England Hong Kong Singapore China Germany Austria and the Netherlands Furthermore in order to analyse those legal systems from the international perspective this book compares relevant international conventions it also proposes to establish an international registration system for the transfer of and security interests in receivables
