Transaction Costs and Security Institutions M. Weiss,2011-04-12 Examines international cooperation in European security from a transaction cost economics perspective This book addresses the puzzle of how to approach differing institutional preferences It argues that the reduction and limitation of transaction costs was the primary determinant of security preferences

The Italian Civil Security System Federica Di Camillo,et al.,2014-03-15 Civil security is an increasingly important policy field in Europe as both Member States and the EU work to protect European societies from a range of threats and risks including natural and man made disasters as well as terrorist attacks Over time each European country has developed a unique civil security system based on its national specificities which interacts with both neighbour countries and the Union This research paper analyses the Italian case on the basis of four analytical dimensions cultural and historical aspects legal aspects the relation between the civil security system and citizens the role of private sector Three critical qualitative measures of the system are also discussed effectiveness efficiency and legitimacy In addition because of the importance of international cooperation and EU role in this field the relations between the Italian security system and the European context are addressed Specific attention has been devoted to the way the system responded to the earthquake in L'Aquila and the pandemic influenza A H1N1 both occurred in 2009 as major crises faced in the last decade In particular the L'Aquila case study has underlined both strengths and weaknesses of the way the system does function Several key points of the Italian civil security system have been identified such as the flexible cooperation among institutional actors the issue of levels of governance the role of changing legal frameworks the contribution of non profit organizations      Compensation and Working Conditions ,1998

Democracy, Society and the Governance of Security Jennifer Wood,Benoît Dupont,2006-02-23 The promotion of security is no longer a state monopoly It is dispersed and takes place through the practices of states corporations non governmental actors and community based organizations But what do we know about the ways in which security is thought about and promoted in this pluralized field of delivery Are democratic values being advanced and protected or threatened and compromised Wood and Dupont bring together a team of renowned scholars to shed light on our understanding of the arrangements for contemporary security governance Offering a friendly dialogue between those who argue that democratic transformation rests in the development of strong state institutions and those who propose a more de centered agenda the scholars in this volume bring cutting edge theoretical analyses to bear on empirical examples This volume will appeal to researchers in the fields of criminology political science sociology and security studies      The Changing East Asian Security Landscape Stefan Fröhlich,Howard Loewen,2017-11-14 The topic of this book deals with a highly relevant empirical issue East asian security and the dynamics of the respective governance structure or architecture are not only of regional but of global concern Since the pivot of the American pivot to East Asia and other external actor s responses to it the security architecture has changed in form size and function In order to analyze and explain these changes hypotheses derived from IR middle range theories i e soft and hard balancing will be applied to cases of bilateral and multilateral security governance in East Asia      Beyond Horizons David N. Spires,2007      National Security, Democracy, and Good Governance in Postmilitary-Rule Nigeria, Volume Two Dr. Dan Mou,2017-01-12 This book shows that the security economic political and social problems challenging national security democracy and good governance currently in Nigeria would get better or worse depending on what happens to the 71 percent of Nigerias population still living below the poverty line This is in spite of the billions of petrodollars that Nigeria garnered as revenue over the past few decades It reveals that one does not need to be a political prophet to predict that if these challenges are not successfully addressed through good governance and inclusive growth this country will witness worse civil disobedience violence revolts militancy breakdown of law and order more kidnappings and more of the citizens trying to check out of the country to other parts of the world in the future It concludes however that under such intense pressures the Government of Nigeria even if it is simply for its self preservation will be forced by the objective conditions to move against the interests of the dominant groups and classes in Nigeria These are the ones who have for long captured and hijacked state power and the resources of the country for their exclusive use There is this perception that Nigerians dont write and read This perception is deep seated even among intellectuals who see our authors as shallow researchers But Dr Dan Mou has debunked that myth and shown that Nigerians can write well researched and detailed books It is quite prophetic in its assessment of the Nigerian State Agbo Agbo deputy editor The Nation Dr Dan Mou has proven himself a world class scholar and an intellectual colossus His reputation as an internationally renowned public policy expert has continued to soar I congratulate him for these remarkable achievements Professor Justice Abdul Fatai Kuti first justice of Abuja High Court and former dean faculty of law University of Ado Ekiti Ekiti State of Nigeria Dr Mou is certainly one of the best scholars we have on the African continent As an educationist myself before I became a traditional ruler I agree totally with his analysis and conclusions I share the optimism Dr Mou has expressed that once the recommendations therein are adopted and meticulously implemented with proper monitoring and evaluation of such resultant policies and programmes Nigeria and indeed Africa would be able to solve most of these challenges HRH Alh Dr Sheban Audu Nizazo III Etsu Kwali Etsu Kwalis Palace Abuja Nigeria      Criminology in the 21st Century J.
