Hirsch, 2017-01-01 In the twenty first century because of climate change and other human activities many animal species have become extinct and many others are at risk of extinction Once they are gone we cannot bring them back or can we With techniques such as cloning scientists want to reverse extinction and return lost species to the wild Some scientists want to create clones of recently extinct animals while others want to make new hybrid animals Many people are opposed to de extinction Some critics say that the work diverts attention from efforts to save species that are endangered Others say that de extinction amounts to scientists playing God Explore the pros and cons of de extinction and the cutting edge science that makes it possible Rethinking Race in Modern

Argentina Paulina Alberto, Eduardo Elena, 2016-03-21 This book reconsiders the relationship between race and nation in Argentina during the twentieth and twenty first centuries and places Argentina firmly in dialog with the literature on race and nation in Latin America from where it has long been excluded or marginalized for being a white European exception in a mixed race region The contributors based both in North America and Argentina hail from the fields of history anthropology and literary and cultural studies Their essays collectively destabilize widespread certainties about Argentina showing that whiteness in that country has more in common with practices and ideologies of Mestizaje and racial democracy elsewhere in the region than has typically been acknowledged The essays also situate Argentina within the well established literature on race nation and whiteness in world regions beyond Latin America particularly other European settler societies The collection thus contributes to rethinking race for other global contexts as well Unsettling Stories Victoria Kuttainen, 2009-12-14

The first study of the synergies between postcolonialism and the genre of the short story composite Unsettling Stories considers how the form of the interconnected short story collection is well suited to expressing thematic aspects of postcolonial writing on settler terrain Unique for its comparative considerations of American Canadian and Australian literature within the purview of postcolonial studies this is also a considered study of the difficult place of the postcolonial settler subject within academic debates and literature Close readings of work by Tim Winton Margaret Laurence William Faulkner Stephen Leacock Sherwood Anderson Olga Masters Scott R Sanders Thea Astley Tim O'Brien and Sandra Birdsell are positioned alongside critical discussions of postcolonial theory to show how awkward affiliations of individuals to place home nation culture and history expressed in short story composites can be usefully positioned within the broader context of settler colonialism and its aftermath Explorer Travellers and Adventure Tourism Jennifer Laing, Warwick

Frost, 2014-08-04 This book examines the nexus between exploring and tourism and argues that exploration travel based heavily on explorer narratives and the promises of personal challenges and change is a major trend in future tourism In particular it analyses how romanticised myths of explorers form a foundation for how modern day tourists view travel and themselves Its scope ranges from the Golden Age of imperial explorers in the 19th and early 20th centuries through the growth of adventure and extreme tourism to possible future trends including space travel The volume should appeal to researchers and students across a variety of disciplines including tourism studies sociology geography and history Didn't I Warn You Amber Bardan, 2016-04-18 In this alpha driven romance perfect for fans of Vi Keeland and S L Jennings the price of one woman's passion is everything she holds dear Not everything dangerous is bad From the moment Angelina laid eyes on him she fell into a fantasy Mysterious foreign gorgeous Haithem offered her what she needed most a chance to feel again But Haithem is much more than he appears to be He lives in a world of danger where everything comes at a price For Angelina that price is her future He's ensured the life she's left behind is in tatters Made her family believe she's dead He talks about protecting her about keeping her safe but she can't distinguish his truth from his lies She can't separate her
