Dau's Blue Book for Detroit and Suburban Towns ..., 1912 Towns in Decline, AD100-1600 Terry Slater, 2017-07-05. Many European towns have experienced loss of population, degradation of physical structure, and profound economic change at least once since the height of the Roman Empire. This volume is an examination of the various causes of these changes, the results which flowed from them, and the reasons why some urban centres survived, revived, and eventually flourished again, while others failed and died. The contributors bring to bear the techniques of history and archaeology, the perspectives of economics, agronomy, medicine, architecture, and planning, geography, and law to the study. The result is a synthesis which connects the Decline of the Roman Empire to the effects of the Black Death and the economic transformation of Renaissance Florence. Studies in the Archaeology and History of Caesarea Maritima Joseph Patrich, 2011-09-23. The book well illustrated, presents in a wider historical/cultural context the results of the archaeological explorations 1990s to early 2000s at Caesarea Maritima, the provincial capital of Roman Judaea/Palaestina, where Jews, Pagans, Christians, and Samaritans lived side by side.
