Seeing Through Writing:

Seeing through Texts Francis X. Clooney, SJ, 1996-07-03 Seeing through Texts invites us into the world of south Indian Hinduism through a study of 100 songs of the Tiruv ymoli the great masterpiece of the ninth century Hindu saint Sa k pan These unique songs dedicated to the Hindu god Vi u K a lead us through poetic and imaginative philosophical and moral reflections on the nature of the self and the world ancient myths and temple worship and the mystical moods of longing desire and love in which one seeks loses and finds again the God who loves us first The book is also a study of the interpretation of the Tiruv ymoli in the traditional Hindu rivai ava commentaries of the twelfth fourteenth centuries as well as a comparative theological study which explores the implication of the songs and their commentaries for readers from outside the rivai ava tradition

Seeing Through Writing William E. Coles, Writing and Seeing Rui Manuel G. de Carvalho Homem, Maria de Fátima Lambert, 2006 The essays in this volume are informed by a variety of theoretical assumptions and of critical methodologies but they all share an interest in the intersections of word and image in a variety of media This unifying rationale secures the present collection s central position in the current critical context defined as it predominantly is by ways of reading that are based on a relational nexus The intertextual the intermedial the intersemiotic are indeed foregrounded and combined in these essays conceptually as much as in the critical practices favoured by the various contributions Studies of literature in its relation to pictorial genres enjoy a relative prominence in the volume but the range of media and of approaches considered is broad enough to include photography film video television comic strips animated film public art material culture The backgrounds of contributors are likewise diverse culturally academically linguistically The volume combines contributions by prominent scholars and critics with essays by younger scholars from a variety of backgrounds The resulting plurality of perspective is indeed a source of new insights into the relations between writing and seeing and it contributes to making this collection an exciting new contribution to word and image studies

Exploring Creativity Through Writing Alan Maley, Sharoon Sunny, 2025-08-01 The book explores the nature of human creativity and its importance in education with reference to past and ongoing work on creativity theory It aims to direct the attention of teachers to the need for creativity in education by dispelling the mystique surrounding it and the feelings of inadequacy or apprehension it may evoke in educators particularly in the Asia region The book offers an introduction to creativity in writing the rationale for including it in language programmes the benefits it can bestow and the results it can produce as well as dealing with common objections to it It divides creative writing into two major sections poetry and stories followed by a copious set of varied classroom activities For each activity a standard format is adopted to offer teachers maximum support in implementing the procedures including supplementary comments on each activity It is distinct for its accessibility and clarity its abundance of practical and ready touse classroom activities and its unique combination of theoretical underpinnings and practical implementation This book will be useful to students pre service teachers and researchers who are new to the teaching of English Language both in the Asian context and in the wider world It will also be an essential companion to practicing in service teachers and Teacher Trainers to further sharpen their concepts and skills Seeing Through the Veil Suzanne Conklin Akbari, 2004-01-01 During the later Middle Ages new optical theories were introduced that located the power of sight not in the seeing subject but in the passive object of vision This shift had a powerful impact not only on medieval science but also on theories of knowledge and this changing relationship of vision and knowledge was a crucial element in late medieval religious devotion In Seeing through the Veil Suzanne Conklin Akbari examines several late medieval allegories in the context of contemporary paradigm shifts in scientific and philosophical theories of vision After a survey on the genre of allegory and an overview of medieval optical theories Akbari delves into more detailed studies of several medieval literary works including the Roman de la Rose Dante's Vita Nuova Convivio and Commedia and Chaucer's dream visions and Canterbury Tales The final chapter Division and Darkness centres on the legacy of allegory in the fifteenth century Offering a new interdisciplinary synthetic approach to late medieval intellectual history and to major works within the medieval literary canon Seeing through the Veil will be an essential resource to the study of medieval literature and culture as well as philosophy history of art and history of science Seeing Through Writing William E. Coles, 1987-01

Becoming a Writing Researcher Ann Blakeslee, Cathy Fleischer, 2019-07-08 Becoming a Writing Researcher effectively guides students through the stages of conducting qualitative writing research from the initial step of seeing themselves as researchers to identifying research questions selecting appropriate methodological tools conducting the research and interpreting and reporting findings Exercises and activities as well as anecdotes and examples from both novice and seasoned researchers serve to acquaint readers thoroughly with the practice of carrying out research for scholarly or professional purposes This second edition introduces students to research methods in a gradual and contextualized manner Each chapter offers a discussion of a particular portion of the research process followed by consideration of physical conceptual and strategic tools that allow a master's level researcher to conduct that part of the research Sections within each chapter also cover issues of stance and positionality that impact the researcher and the resulting research Becoming a Writing Researcher second edition is an essential text for all novice researchers and is particularly well suited for use in graduate level research methods courses in writing studies and technical communications It is also ideal for use in other disciplines with strong qualitative methodology research programs including education Writing Mathematically Candia Morgan, 2002-01-04 School mathematics curricula internationally tend to emphasise problem solving and have led to the development of opportunities for children to do maths in a more open creative way This has led to increased interest in performance based assessment which involves children in substantial production of written language to serve as evidence of their mathematical activity and achievement However this raises two important questions Firstly does this writing accurately present children's mathematical activity and ability Secondly do maths teachers have sufficient linguistic awareness to support their students in developing skills and knowledge necessary for writing effectively in their subject area The author of this book takes a critical perspective on these questions and through an investigation of teachers readings and evaluations of coursework texts identifies the crucial issues affecting the accurate assessment of school mathematics Re-writing Spatiality Britta Kuhlenbeck,2010 The objective of this project is to encourage new ways of thinking about the meaning and significance of space It follows a desire that has been expressed and theorized by Henri Lefebvre and by extension Edward W Soja to remove Spatiality from the margin of the Trialectics of Being and to bring it into the Trialectics fold alongside with and of at least equal significance to Historicity and Sociality The thesis focuses on how space of the Pilbara region in Western Australia is produced in contemporary Australian writing film art and through lived experience The thesis argues for an understanding of space as essentially dynamic

Becoming a Writing Researcher Ann M. Blakeslee,Ann Blakeslee,Cathy Fleischer,2009-03-04 Becoming a Writing Researcher effectively guides students through the stages of conducting qualitative writing research from the initial step of seeing themselves as researchers to identifying research questions selecting appropriate tools conducting the research and interpreting and reporting the findings Authors Ann M Blakeslee and Cathy Fleischer describe various qualitative methods and provide readers with examples of real world applications Exercises and activities as well as anecdotes from both novice and seasoned researchers serve to acquaint readers thoroughly with the practice of carrying out research for scholarly or professional purposes The textbook introduces students to research methods in a gradual and contextualized manner Each chapter opens with a discussion of general issues regarding a particular portion of the research process followed by a consideration of the various physical conceptual and strategic tools that allow a beginning researcher to conduct that part of the process Sections within each chapter also cover personal and theoretical perspectives and biases that influence specific stages of the research process ethical issues associated with phases of the research process the identity ethos and experiences of the researcher Becoming a Writing Researcher is an essential text for all novice researchers and is well suited for use in graduate level research methods courses in composition and technical communication It is also ideal for use in other disciplines with strong qualitative methodology research programs including education

Writing, Society and Culture in Early Rus, c.950-1300 Simon Franklin,2002-08-29 This book provides a thorough survey and analysis of the emergence and functions of written culture in Rus covering roughly the modern East Slav lands of European Russia Ukraine and Belarus Part I introduces the full range of types of writing the scripts and languages the materials the social and physical contexts ranging from builders scratches on bricks through to luxurious parchment manuscripts Part II presents a series of thematic studies of the socio cultural dynamics of writing in order to reveal and explain distinctive features in the Rus assimilation of the technology The comparative approach means that the book may also serve as a case study for those with a broader interest either in medieval uses of writing or in the social and cultural history of information technologies Overall the impressive scholarship and idiosyncratic wit of this volume commend it to students and specialists in Russian history and literature alike Awarded the Alec Nove Prize given by the British Association for Slavonic and East European Studies for the best book of 2002 in Russian Soviet or Post Soviet studies Travel Writing and Environmental Awareness Françoise Besson, 2023-08-24 Travel writing presents stories of human journeys and can guide us towards a better perception of our connections with the nonhuman world This book is a collection of essays by writers and scholars from China England France India Tunisia and the United States of America It discusses sustainable travels and travel writing and explores the sense of connection with nature From travels around one's home to mountain hikes and bicycle rides it also reminds us that planes can be used in a responsible way It discusses conscious travelling and shows the important role texts play in educating us on this issue This multidimensional book encompasses several literary genres essays autobiographies mountain reports novels poetry journals graphic novels and scientific reports It is aimed at all those who have some interest in travel ecology and the philosophy of place Revolutions in Writing Rosemary Lloyd, 1996 Presents an anthology of some of the prose and prose poems of 19th century France This reader sets these prose experiments in their cultural and historical context and provides notes to elucidate references and allusions The Naval Institute Guide to Naval Writing, 4th Edition Christopher E Crane, Estate of Robert E Shenk, 2024-06-01 With updates to every chapter this new fourth edition serves as the premier guide to professional writing for the naval services Authored by a naval officer who taught English at two service academies the book is widely used by officers enlisted men and women and civilians in both the Navy and Marine Corps Shenk provides sound practical advice on all common naval writing assignments across digital and print platforms Fully revised the book reflects the changing landscape of professional communication in general and changes in naval culture in the last decade across the fleet making it an essential guide Michael Ondaatje: Haptic Aesthetics and Micropolitical Writing Milena Marinkova, 2011-07-14 This study of selected literary and cinematic works by Michael Ondaatje investigates the political potential of the Canadian author's aesthetics Contributing to current debates about affect and representation ideology critique and the artwork trauma and testimony this book uses the concept of the haptic to demonstrate how Ondaatje's multisensory fluid and historically inflected writing can forge an enabling relationship between audience author and text This is where Ondaatje's micropolitics often misconstrued as ideologically suspect aestheticism emerges a praxis that intimates how one can write and read politically with a difference Writing, Kingship and Power in Anglo-Saxon England Rory Naismith, David A. Woodman, 2017-11-16 The workings of royal and ecclesiastical authority in Anglo Saxon England can only be understood on the basis of direct engagement with original texts and material artefacts This book written by leading experts brings together new research that represents the best of the current scholarship on the nexus between authority and written sources from Anglo Saxon England Ranging from the seventh to the eleventh century the chapters in this volume offer fresh approaches to a wide range of linguistic historical legal diplomatic and palaeographical evidence Central themes include the formation of power in early Anglo Saxon kingdoms during the age of Bede d 735 and Offa of Mercia 757 96 authority and its articulation in the century from Edgar 959 75 to 1066 and the significance of books and texts in expressing power across the period Writing Kingship and Power in Anglo Saxon England represents a critical resource for students and scholars alike with an interest in early medieval history from political institutional and cultural perspectives

Seeing through the Smoke Peter Grinspoon,2023-04-20 Depending on which doctor you speak with or which websites you read cannabis could be an appealing low risk medicine even an aid to wellness or an insidiously addictive drug rotting the brains of our youth This dissonance confuses young people distressed patients and paralyzes politicians all while inviting dubious sources of information and resulting in uninformed choices enhanced polarization and a fragmented national policy Seeing Through the Smoke is an unflinching examination at the grossly misunderstood drug that uses data driven medical science and a critical historical perspective to reveal the truth behind cannabis In this balanced and measured investigation Cannabis specialist and Instructor in Medicine at Harvard Medical School Dr Peter Grinspoon untangles the reality behind cannabis revealing how we ended up with radically divergent understandings of the drug and pointing a way toward a middle ground that we can all share Moving through an illuminating tour of the social history and the medical science behind cannabis Grinspoon unpacks the layers of disinformation left by a sordid history of government propaganda racial suppression and indifference from the medical community to answer questions like Is cannabis addictive What are its best established medical uses Can cannabis help cure cancer How does cannabis affect memory How dangerous is cannabis for teens Is cannabis a safer treatment for ADHD and PTSD What exactly is CBD and how is it different from marijuana What are the most concerning side effects By focusing on the most critical purported harms driving pregnancy addictiveness memory and by focusing on the most commonly cited medical benefits relieving chronic pain sleep anxiety PTSD autism and cancer Seeing Through the Smoke will help patients parents doctors health experts regulators and politicians move beyond biased perceptions and arrive at a shared reality towards cannabis
