is based on the first edition published in 1660 compared with the last published in 1821 During the interval between these dates only one other complete edition made its appearance 1673 The Preface by Dr John Worthington to whose care the Author s papers were committed after his death contains all the requisite information respecting the preparation of them for the Press Notwithstanding the learning and industry bestowed by him upon the task the first edition of the Discourses abounds in errors and of these scarcely one had been corrected by subsequent editors The Discourse on Prophecy the most learned of all and that by which the Author is best known was translated into Latin and prefixed by Le Clerc to his Commentary on the Prophets all the errors of the original which are neither few nor trifling still remaining In the present edition the references have been carefully examined and in several instances assigned to the right authors in place of others
