Discovering God Through Action and Reflection Mike Deeb, 2024-08-01 The See Judge Act or Review of Life methodology initially articulated by Fr later Cardinal Joseph Cardijn in the early 1900s has become widely accepted in the Catholic Church and in many other churches as an effective method of evangelisation However unfortunately See Judge Act has frequently become simply a slogan lacking precise content or it has been used to describe approaches that do not take all the elements intended fully into account To address this challenge in its own ranks the International Young Christian Students IYCS International Team of 2003 2007 commissioned the production of this book to assist the training of its students and chaplains in this methodology as integral to its spirituality of critical reflection and action within the perspective of transforming their local and global realities It is therefore hoped that this book will contribute to deepening the understanding of See Judge Act as a timeless spirituality enabling effective evangelisation or communication of the Good News proclaimed by Jesus Christ in order to bring God's justice and peace to our world

Faith Seeking Action Gregory P. Leffel, 2007-06-01 In Faith Seeking Action author Gregory Leffel links a description of the church as a global movement with a description of contemporary social movements that are actively challenging today's societies such as the environmental global justice and identity movements Not surprisingly Christian communities and communities of social activists share much in common as they each work to enrich their societies It is natural then to ask what missionally concerned Christians may learn from social movements about the public role of their churches the connection of their beliefs to social change and the mobilization of their people It can also be asked how these often divided communities may find ways to collaborate around common actions rooted in such shared values as peace justice life and the integrity of the environment Building on growing interest in the field of missiology and its missional church concept Leffel has created a dialog between the church as a social actor and social movements Along with introducing movement theory to mission studies Leffel introduces a new way of addressing the issues involved in the church's engagement with society a concept he calls missio ecclesiology Of interest to those seeking vital ways to live out their faith in the world missiologists missional church leaders and street level workers alike this work fuels fresh thinking about the church's role in cultural and social change

The Theology of Renewal for His Church Douglas G. Bushman, 2024-01-26 Almost sixty years after Vatican II the question of its interpretation is as lively as ever While numerous theologies of renewal are advanced conspicuously absent is any serious erudition of the text taken by Paul VI John Paul II and Benedict XVI as the hermeneutical key to understanding the Council s goal and method namely Paul VI s encyclical Ecclesiam Suam This study corrects this inattention and proposes that Pope Paul s logic of renewal is so profoundly a dimension of divine revelation and of the Church s life that it is not just one theology of renewal among many but the theology of renewal It is thus the key to understanding the Council s authentic pastoral character The logic of renewal sets personal spiritual metanoia as the center path of renewal preceded by the path of doctrinal penetration which assures that renewal is faithful to God and complemented by the path of reinvigorated mission which is the fruit of conversion As the first post Christendom ecumenical council Vatican II addressed the question What does it mean to be the Church of Christ at this point in history Its answer Become what you are Convert into a more perfect realization of your own mystery vocation and mission The Christian Faith Michael Horton, 2011-01-04 Theology the study of God is a concern for every believer not just theologians or those in ministry It s the goal of good theology to humble us before the triune God of majesty as we come to understand him better This is a book of and about good theology Award winning author theologian and professor Michael Horton wrote The Christian Faith as a book of systematic theology and doctrine that can be preached experienced and lived as well as understood clarified and articulated It s written for a growing cast of pilgrims in ministry and laity who are interested in learning about Christ as a way of living as a Christian Who understand that knowing doctrine and walking in practical Christianity are not competing interests The Christian Faith is divided into six parts five of which each focus on an aspect of God while the first part sets up an understanding and appreciation for the task of theology itself addressing topics like The source of theology where the idea of theology comes from and what its limits are The origin of the canon how the modern Bible came about and why we can trust it The character of theology is the nature of theology practical theoretical or can it be both In a manner equally as welcoming to professors pastors students and armchair theologians Horton has organized this volume in a readable fashion that includes a variety of learning features A brief synopsis of biblical passages that inform certain doctrines Surveys of past and current theologies with contemporary emphasis on exegetical philosophical practical and theological questions Substantial interaction with various Christian movements within the Protestant Catholic and Orthodoxy traditions as well as the hermeneutical issues raised by postmodernity Charts sidebars questions for discussion and an extensive bibliography divided into different entry levels and topics At the heart of this book is a deep love for and curiosity about God Its basic argument is that a personal relationship with God goes hand in hand with the pursuit of theology It isn't possible to know God without studying him
