Haiku Origins Hugo Raines, AI, 2025-05-06 Haiku Origins explores the captivating evolution of haiku revealing its journey from classical Japanese poetry to a globally embraced art form Delving into literary and cultural history the book illuminates how elements like kigo seasonal word and kireji cutting word contribute to haiku s layered meanings within its concise structure Haiku s deceptively simple 5 7 5 syllable structure belies its profound artistry offering a unique vessel for capturing fleeting moments and evoking emotions The book traces haiku s roots in earlier Japanese forms like tanka and hokku highlighting its development through the works of master poets such as Basho and Issa Understanding haiku s historical context including the influence of Zen Buddhism and the Edo period is key to appreciating its significance Each chapter builds upon the last beginning with historical predecessors and culminating in an examination of haiku s global spread and impact on other art forms By analyzing original Japanese haiku and critical essays Haiku Origins connects to broader fields like history cultural studies and linguistics It emphasizes the dynamic interplay between form and content showing how the constraints of the structure enhance creative possibilities making it valuable to both academic readers and anyone interested in poetry or Japanese culture

The Zen Manifesto: Freedom From Oneself Osho, 2023-03-17 It is time ripe time for a Zen manifesto The Western intelligentsia have become acquainted with Zen have also fallen in love with Zen but they are still trying to approach Zen from the mind They have not yet come to the understanding that Zen has nothing to do with mind Its tremendous job is to get you out of the prison of mind It is not an intellectual philosophy it is not a philosophy at all Nor is it a religion because it has no fictions and no lies no consolations It is a lion s roar And the greatest thing that Zen has brought into the world is freedom from oneself All the religions have been talking about dropping your ego but it is a very weird phenomenon they want you to drop your ego and the ego is just a shadow of God God is the ego of the universe and the ego is your personality Just as God is the very center of existence according to religions your ego is the center of your mind of your personality They have all been talking about dropping the ego but it cannot be dropped unless God is dropped You cannot drop a shadow or a reflection unless the source of its manifestation is destroyed
