through the program with her own son and continues to rely on its principles within her family      Understanding Marriage, Family, and Intimate Relationships Jerry D. Lehman, 2005 This introductory textbook is for students who are interested in learning about and establishing healthy marriage family and intimate relationships With divorce rates high and relationships fragile books and courses are needed that help students address important issues regarding relationships The readers of this text examine many important and relevant issues through the lens of theory and research and do so using a written format that is readable understandable and easy to apply to one's life It was written so that each chapter has information that readers will find helpful as they attempt to establish and maintain meaningful healthy relationships There are questions throughout each chapter that help readers focus not only on the material but also on how the material relates to their present and past relationship and family situations The text provides material on the research of John Gottman the object relations theory of Harville Hendrix the solution focused approach of Michele Weiner Davis and the PREP approach to conflict management of Markman Stanley and Blumberg These and other topics discussed are very relevant to students concerns and are addressed in greater depth than found in most other texts The emphasis is not just on couple relationships but also on family relationships Therefore in this book there is extensive coverage of family systems theory and the influence of family rules and family structure on the development of families There is also material on how change produces transitions in family life that must be assimilated into the family structure for example when a couple has their first child Thus both couple and family issues are addressed throughout the book For instructors who want to focus their courses on marriage family and intimate relationships this book would be an ideal choice A study guide for students and instructional material for instructors can be obtained by visiting www.understandingrelationships.net      Building Christian Families Mitch Finley, Kathy Finley, 2000-10      Christian Initiation of Children 2009 - 2010: Weekly Resources for Ages 5 - 14 - Celebrating the Lectionary ,      How to Really Love Your Grandchild D. Ross M.D. Campbell, Rob Suggs, 2008-08-01 Grandparents and their grandchildren have always had a special bond but living in a culture that has lost its moral compass many parents are at a loss as to how to raise a child with moral values and a sense of decency finding the adolescent years especially difficult Within this vacuum grandparents are becoming increasingly involved and important in providing the needed stability for their grandchildren However the culture in which grandparents find themselves is radically different from the one in which they were raised In How to Really Love Your Grandchildren Dr D Ross Campbell offers invaluable help and encouragement for all grandparents as they attempt to counter the unhealthy influences of our day and help provide direction and influence for their grandchildren Topics covered include helping your children in parenting distance grandparenting parenting grandkids training children in anger management making a critical difference in the area of discipline giving grandchildren the love and security they crave special needs grandkids leaving a legacy of faith      Investigating Emotional, Sensory and Social Learning in Early Years Practice Sarah Cousins, Wendy Cunnah, 2017-10-12 This book explores learning in the early years and emphasises the importance of learning in social contexts through the senses and within close relationships. It moves away from the focus on learning as the acquisition of knowledge and instead emphasises the importance of personal social and emotional development in early years education. Arguing that young children learn best when they are supported by reliable, engaged and attentive people who know them well, this book challenges readers to reflect on their own practice and think about how emotions play a part in young children's learning and development. Each chapter of this book discusses a different aspect of emotional, sensory and social learning from philosophical perspectives on learning, leadership and inclusive practice to the importance of promoting the development of children's emotional intelligence, forming close attachments to children and encouraging them to learn through their senses. The reader is provided with a wealth of ideas and examples for application in the classroom. Numerous practical examples, reference to contemporary research and the authors' acknowledgement of the challenges faced by practitioners make this an inspiring and pertinent resource for new and experienced teachers and practitioners as well as trainees and students in the fields of early years and primary education. Readers will develop the skills needed to engage in outstanding learning-focused practice. The Molding of a Champion

It safeguards our rights as individuals and without appearing to, impacts all our relationships. In this ground-breaking book, bestselling author and psychologist Dr. Tony Humphreys addresses the many issues surrounding discipline in both the broad and immediate sense. With his usual clarity, he helps define areas that have become confused in our rapidly changing and expanding society. A common misconception is that discipline applies only to children, but it is as much an issue for adults as it is for young people. It is not about controlling others. Dr. Humphreys points out instead it is about helping others to learn to control themselves. Discipline demands creativity, commitment and time. It is about parents, teachers, carers and communities working as partners. True discipline is not abusive, aggressive, cynical or manipulative. It is about clear communication, consistent application adaptability support and co operation Most of all it is about respect acceptance and love In A Different Kind of Discipline Dr Humphreys guides us through steps to create a positive environment in homes schools and communities where mutual respect and thus discipline all have their place Heart and Body General Norman T.
