Lauren Carruth, 2021-10-15 Lauren Carruth s Love and Liberation tells a new kind of humanitarian story The protagonists are not volunteers from afar but rather Somali locals caring for each other nurses aid workers policymakers drivers community health workers and bureaucrats The contributions of locals are often taken for granted and the competencies aspirations and effectiveness of local staffers frequently remain muted or absent from the planning and evaluation of humanitarian interventions structured by outsiders Relief work is traditionally imagined as politically neutral and impartial and interventions are planned as temporary extraordinary and distant Carruth provides an alternative vision of what humanitarian response means in practice not driven by International Humanitarian Law the missions of Western relief organizations or trends in the aid industry or academia but instead by what Somalis call samafal Samafal is structured by the cultivation of lasting relationships of care interdependence kinship and ethnic solidarity Samafal is also explicitly political and potentially emancipatory humanitarian responses present opportunities for Somalis to begin to redress histories of colonial partitions and to make the most out of their political and economic marginalization By centering Love and Liberation around Somalis understanding and enactments of samafal Carruth offers a new perspective on politics and intervention in Africa Love for Liberation Robin J. Samuel,1976 The Liberation of Life Charles Birch,John B. Cobb,1985-01-10 This book is about the liberation of the concept of life from the bondage fashioned by the interpreters of life ever since biology began and about the liberation of the life of humans and non humans alike from the bondage of social structures and behaviour which now threatens the fullness of life s possibilities if not survival itself It falls into a tradition of writings about human problems from a perspective informed by biology It rejects the mechanistic model of life dominant in the Western world and develops an alternative ecological model which is applicable to the life of the cell and the life of the human community For the first time it brings together in one work the insights of modern biology with those of a modern holistic philosophy and a liberal theology in a way which challenges conventional approaches to science agriculture sociology politics economics development and liberation movements An Intimate Liberation Marie Silva,2022-08-29 A passionate and illicit affair awakens the sexual fire of a repressed man and an untouched woman Moving to a small town in Vermont was a fresh start for Sarah Clarke an author struggling with writer s block The reason for the change of scenery was to focus on her manuscript but an innocent dinner party connects her to a man who starts to dominate her sexual fantasies She s instantly drawn to the local priest and her lustful desire for him leads her into forbidden territory It was a time of crisis for Father Ben Michaels a man deeply devoted to his faith Recent doubts make him question his dedication His quiet orderly life is suddenly upended by the arrival of a mysterious woman to his town He becomes enthralled by her and cannot resist the temptation to live a double life of being a good shepherd and pursuing sinful passion What starts out as lustful infatuation blossoms into an erotic journey that will end in an intimate liberation God's Daughters R. Liberating the Holy Name Daniel Spiro,2014-07-07 In an increasingly polarized world atheists and religious fundamentalists still agree on one thing how God must be defined Both dogmatically claim that God can only refer to the supernatural Lord of Scripture In Liberating the Holy Name Daniel Spiro takes square aim at this attempt to assert a monopoly over the meaning of divinity He explains how his Jewish atheist upbringing and later exposure to Orthodox Judaism set him on a lifelong search for truth and meaning through the annals of modern Jewish philosophy Christian theology and Islam He then reveals how this search has led to a highly original theology in which God can be conceived in the third person embraced in the second person and recognized in the first person Liberating the Holy Name leads the reader on a voyage through some of our species most influential and profound perspectives on divinity Spiro models how this search for divinity can be our greatest privilege while arguing that in order to appreciate this privilege we must liberate the Name itself from those who wish to monopolize it If successful he contends we will improve religion s standing in the world and unleash a powerful force for social unity Partners in God's Love John Davey,2007-04 Written by a retired missionary in the form of a daily devotional this book combines a lifetime of personal experiences with biblical principles It covers topics such as patriotic love brotherly love love calling children home love among the ruins and self love Practical Life Liberation through Reconciliation O.
