The Blackwell Companion to Political Theology Peter Manley Scott,William T. Cavanaugh,2008-04-15 Written by a team of international experts drawn from various traditions of political theology this outstanding resource brings together 35 newly commissioned essays in the field Demonstrates that Christian theology is inherently political and shows how theology impacts on present day political issues Considers the interface of theology with political ideologies including the contribution of theology to feminist ecological black and pacifist movements Assesses the contribution of the major political theologians and theological movements Explores the political aspects of Christian sources such as scripture and liturgy The Making of the 1963 Baptist Faith and Message A. J. Smith, 2008-08-05 Questions regarding the orthodoxy of Dale Moody and Ralph Elliott propelled the Southern Baptist Convention SBC toward a re evaluation of its doctrinal statement the Baptist Faith and Message BFM The SBC adopted this document in 1925 under the leadership of E Y Mullins when faced by the challenge of modernism This dissertation argues that the 1962 Committee on Baptist Faith and Message produced a document that expressed subtle shifts in Baptist theology This shift had the effect of assuring the conservative base while allowing enough latitude in interpretation for those serving in the academy to teach more progressive views After a first introductory chapter chapters 2 and 3 trace the historical developments leading to the formation of the Committee Biblical inspiration and interpretation were key concerns but as chapter 3 demonstrates other concerns drew the attention of the Committee Chapters 4 and 5 deal with the ever sensitive issue of the relationship between Baptist confessionalism soul liberty and soul competency Each chapter examines how Baptist confessionalism functioned in relation to these concepts Chapter 6 examines in detail the work of the Committee itself and looks at those persons or groups who influenced the outcome of the Committee s work Of special note are the contributions made by Wayne Ward Leo Garrett the religion faculty of Mercer University and the theology faculty of Southern Seminary Chapter 7 examines four areas where the 1963 BFM altered the confessional expression of Baptist doctrines 1 Scripture 2 Man 3 Salvation 4 The Church Chapter 8 is the conclusion Four appendices contain early drafts of the Committee s work Thy Kingdom Come Harold L. Patterson, 2008-12 Thy Kingdom Come is a panoramic overview of the present reign of Jesus Christ at the right hand of God the Father and of the future consummation of that reign It presents three authoritative apostolic New Testament guidelines for the interpretation of the Old Testament prophecies It fairly examines the three main positions on the millennium and offers scriptural conclusions that incorporate elements of truth from all three Detailed expositions of the 110th Psalm and the book of Revelation are based on the apostolic guidelines Harold Patterson was born in Portland Oregon in 1920 In 1942 he was appointed as a Patrol Inspector in the Immigration Border Patrol and was assigned to work on the Mexican border in Southern California His career as a Border Patrolman was interrupted by military service during WW II During his military service he met and married Shirley Van Hamm in Denver Colorado In 1951 Harold and Shirley enrolled in BIOLA Bible College in Los Angeles After graduation they accepted teaching positions in Taholah Washington on the Quinault Indian Reservation They remained in Taholah for 17 years and served the Indian community in various ways during that time To upgrade his professional skills Harold earned the Bachelor of Education degree at Seattle Pacific University and the Master of Education degree at the University of

Washington In 1972 Mr Patterson was appointed Associate Supervisor of Indian Education for the State of Washington and served in that capacity for nine years He also served as a lay minister and Bible teacher in various churches In 1972 the Pattersons moved to a ranch at Brooklyn Washington Throughout the years Harold maintained a very close relationship with the Quinault people and in 2005 he was adopted as an enrolled member of the Quinault Indian Nation

Enemy Combatants, Terrorism, and Armed Conflict Law David K. Linnan, 2008-01-30 With a renewed emphasis on national and homeland security the United States is once again seeking to balance the needs of the state with both the rights of its citizens as well as those of other nations This book represents an interdisciplinary approach to the legal dilemmas borne out by the war on terror against the specific background of Afghanistan Iraq and this new kind of conflict It is a strong contribution to a broader debate visible since 9/11 which will remain in the public eye for the foreseeable future It addresses the overlap between religion ethics armed conflict and law within the context of the current conflict While many issues in areas such as intelligence reconciliation of civil liberties dealing with terrorist threats and the permissible bounds of interrogation treatment of prisoners and laws governing armed conflict have long standing precedents under domestic and international law this war has challenged even long standing legal interpretations The contributors to this volume explore those precedents and contemporary challenges to them Now that traditional wars between nation states are no longer the rule the terrorist threat has gained credence popularly terrorism and its claimed breeding ground in failed states linked in practice to issues of intervention on the territory of states harboring such groups In military circles the idea of armed struggle between modern military forces and what were formerly called guerillas has now largely been replaced by asymmetric warfare and the concept of intelligence and preventive action interchangeably within U S borders and overseas Opposing views contemplate that different and presumably lower legal standards may apply in internal armed conflicts Such legal issues are visible under current circumstances of asymmetric warfare in conjunction with questions about prisoner status and detentions including the permissible bounds of interrogation versus torture following the Abu Ghraib prison scandal in Iraq but also the treatment at the Guantanamo Bay facility of alleged Al Qaeda captives from Afghanistan All of the contributors in this book explore the changing circumstances against which these contentious new legal issues now unfold The experts strike no consensus Indeed one of the work s many strengths can be attributed to the fact that the many facets of the ongoing debate are represented herein

The Watchman-examiner, 1924 Systematic Theology/Historical Theology Bundle Wayne A. Grudem, Gregg Allison, 2015-10-27 A collection that includes two of our most exemplary textbooks Systematic Theology and Historical Theology The ebook will provide an introduction to Biblical and Christian doctrine Christian Theology for a Secular Society Mark G. McKim, 2008-01-01 It s hard to be the only one That single sentence from a teenage congregant sums up the conviction that motivated Christian Theology for a Secular Society In these dying days of Christendom the reality that most Western Christians face is living out their faith as a minority in the midst of a culture that is at every level personal institutional and societal secular in nature While most living in Western societies still affirm belief in God and often other vaguely recognizable Christian beliefs these affirmations frequently have little to do with how daily life is lived The idea that the God best known to us in Jesus Christ is actually in charge of life is foreign For most Christianity simply does not form an overarching system of meaning that shapes life Instead life is lived largely without reference to God And to live any other way is often hard In this volume Mark McKim sets out to do theology in this context How does one explain the core historic Christian doctrines in a way that makes sense in a secular culture and in a way that will gain a hearing What does it mean to be the church in this new situation Throughout McKim asks the question so what as he relates Christian teachings to a secular society and to what is actually happening in the local church McKim s goal is to enable the singing of the Lord s song in the new and strange land of a secular society Church in China: Faith, Ethics, Structure Aiming Wang, 2009 The Protestant Church in China is growing very fast However the role of the Church in society is still fragile and marginal The Church needs a strong ethical and structural development This study analyses the theological ethical and ecclesiological heritage of the Reformation and it shows how this can build the foundation for the future of the Church in China Four models serve as orientation the Reformers Luther and Calvin and the theologians Bonhoeffer and Barth in the 20th century with their vision of Christian faith and a humane society The critical analysis of the missionary heritage since the 19th century shows its contribution for the acceptance of the tradition of the Reformation for the growing Church in China The author combines this theological and ethical perspective with the inculturation in the strong ethical tradition of the Chinese culture He proposes the encounter between the spirituality of the Western culture and that of the traditional culture of China through the relationship with Confucianism The book also offers elements for the dialogue around modern values such as human rights and civil society In this dialogue Chinese Protestantism can play more and more an important role

The Family in Christian Social and Political Thought Brent Waters, 2007-07-19 An alternative voice in the culture wars over family values Brent Waters proposes a normative account of the family's role in social and political ordering that draws upon a spectrum of theological and philosophical resources He contends that when families are properly ordered they are oriented toward broader spheres of human association
