Maier, 2013-10-24 Pauline Christianity sprang to life in a world of imperial imagery In the streets and at the thoroughfares in the market places and on its public buildings and monuments and especially on its coins the Roman Empire s imperial iconographers displayed imagery that aimed to persuade the Empire's diverse and mostly illiterate inhabitants that Rome had a divinely appointed right to rule the world and to be honoured and celebrated for its dominion Harry O Maier places the later often contested letters and theology associated with Paul in the social and political context of the Roman Empire's visual culture of politics and persuasion to show how followers of the apostle visualized the reign of Christ in ways consistent with central themes of imperial iconography They drew on the Empire's picture language to celebrate the dominion and victory of the divine Son Jesus to persuade their audiences to honour his dominion with praise and thanksgiving Key to this imperial embrace were Colossians Ephesians and the Pastoral Epistles Yet these letters remain neglected territory in consideration of engagement with and reflection of imperial political ideals and goals amongst Paul and his followers This book fills a gap in scholarly work on Paul and Empire by taking up each contested letter in turn to investigate how several of its main themes reflect motifs found in imperial images The Art of Travel Philip Dodds, 2013-08-21 First published in 1982 The Art of Travel is the first collection of critical essays to be devoted to British travel writing It attempts to give a sense of the wealth of such writing to map some of its forms and conventions and implicitly to claim a place for travel writing in any revised definition of literature For this collection travel includes sea voyages European tours commissioned enquiries into social conditions and urban writing travel writing ranges from works such as Sea and Sardinia by D H Lawrence whose status as a novelist guarantees his travel books some attention through the essays and books of Victorian middle class travellers into working class London to the work of V S Naipaul a contemporary writer who has increasingly preferred the travel book to the novel Hunter of Themes Karen Link Rosenflanz, 2005

Krzizanovskij summed himself up in one of his notebooks I am known for being unknown Yet he was an authority on Shakespeare and Shaw a noted scholar and the author of very popular dystopian and phantasmagoria short stories Rosenflanz examines the life and work of this Russian modernist whose imagination used the Russian formalism and futurism then current in new and rich ways whose skill with the pun rose even to the aural level and whose life s goal was to resurrect the idea of word as thing in all its permutations as words as things words and as words things even unto words as prophecy which Rosenflanz interprets as recollections of the future Krzizanovskij s being known for being unknown is perhaps rooted in the fact that he was so far ahead that others could not recognize him as leading the charge Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com Social Trust and Human Communities Trudy Govier, 1997 Govier offers a general account of trust in a variety of social contexts and explores the negative effects of distrust on society For example she examines the role of trust in relationships between doctors and patients and between politicians and constituents With well chosen examples ranging from the Oka crisis to Meech Lake Govier points out that distrust in politics has been especially prevalent and while it may be well founded can have pernicious effects Social Trust and Human Communities will be of great interest to students and scholars in the areas of applied ethics social theory and politics On Liberty Daniel Frank, 2019-06-19 The communitarian critic of liberalism argues that the socio political context is fundamental to any understanding of the individual as such This debate is advanced by particularising it to the experience of Jews in the modern world Essays focus on the variety of views of the relationships between the individual Jew and the communities religious and secular of which he or she is a member
