Kaufman, 2008-08-18 William Kaufman grew up on his mother's kugel and his father's boyhood stories The son of Jewish immigrants from Lithuania and the Ukraine and one of five children he learned how to translate his colorful childhood into tales of his own regaling audiences of family friends and eventually his retirement community with periodic public readings Now at the age of 93 Kaufman makes his stories filled with a sharp wit and telling detail available to a wider audience for the first time In the title story a young Jewish boy is shamed by his narrow minded teacher when she forces him to admit before the whole class that his mother cannot read English His mother's eventual encounter with the teacher offers a lesson in self respect with just the right balance of grace and moxie In The Search for God in the A the expedition meets with comic results when the young boy refuses to be bullied in this David and Goliath style parable These semi autobiographical stories populated with outsized and magnetic characters subtly layer the specifics of the Jewish experience with universal dilemmas of childhood growing up and old age      Afterlife and Other Stories Ed Krizek, 2004-02-05 Afterlife and Other Stories is a collection of moving poignant and exciting short stories set mainly in the Philadelphia PA area The stories were written and edited with great care over a period of fifteen years Anyone who has experienced the magic and the heartbreak of living with hope in desperate times will find these stories appealing Readers who appreciate all aspects of reality including angst and hope will relate to this book      The Lamp of Umm Hashim and other stories, 2006 The first of several works in Arabic to deal with the way in which an individual tries to come to terms with two divergent cultures Together with such figures as the scholar Taha Hussein the playwright Tawfik al Hakim the short story writer Mahmoud Teymour and of course Naguib Mahfouz Yahya Hakki belongs to that distinguished band of early writers who midway through the last century under the influence of Western literature began to practice genres of creative writing that were new to the traditions of classical Arabic In the first story in this volume the very short Story in the Form of a Petition Yahya Hakki demonstrates his ease with gentle humor a form rare in Arabic writing In the following two stories Mother of the Destitute and A Story from Prison he describes with typical sympathy individuals who less privileged than others somehow manage to

Stories Sön-jak Cho, 2003 Cho Sun Jak is a prolific South Korean writer of many novels and short stories. Many of his works have been adapted successfully as TV dramas and films but very few of his works have been available in English till now. He presents an honest and frank view of the reality behind the successful development of modern Korea with humor and sensitivity. The well-known novella The Preview depicts the Korean War through the eyes of a young boy and the other stories in this collection reflect the aftermath of the war, the desperate lives of the poor, the corruption of moral values and the pathos of the lives of good-hearted prostitutes. The translations capture well the atmosphere and values of the period in which the stories were written. Detailed notes clarify linguistic points and the social and cultural context. England, My

Lucky Strike Janine Amesta, 2024-01-23. Is finding an unexpected gem a lucky strike? After getting a late jumpstart in life, Luna Lanza isn't afraid to get what she wants, including the place of her dreams. When she loses out on the perfect duplex and settles for a standard apartment, she's disappointed. But Luna remains determined to make it work, even if it sparks a contentious relationship with her new landlord, the same guy she accidentally kissed in an impromptu photo shoot. Still grieving the sudden death of his brother, reformed bad boy Sam Sunderland feels trapped managing his father's rundown apartment building. When the spunky beauty who unexpectedly kissed him moves in, full of ideas he can't help being intrigued that is until she starts changing things behind his back, endangering his position and the relationship with his father. Sam and Luna wrangle over rules and misunderstandings while fighting against the undeniable attraction between them. It's a hard lesson to learn that perfect can take many different forms. The first of several works in Arabic to deal with the way in which an individual tries to come to terms with two divergent cultures. Together with such figures as the scholar Taha Hussein, the playwright Tawfik al-Hakim, the short story writer Mahmoud Teymour and, of course, Naguib Mahfouz, Yahya Hakki belongs to that distinguished band of early writers who, midway through the last century, under the influence of Western literature, began to practice genres of creative writing that were new to the traditions of classical Arabic. In the first story in this volume, the very short Story in the Form of a Petition, Yahya Hakki demonstrates his ease with gentle humor, a form rare in Arabic writing. In the following two stories, Mother of the Destitute and A Story from Prison, he describes with typical sympathy individuals who, less privileged than others, somehow manage to scrape through life's hardships. The latter story deals with the people of Upper Egypt for whom the writer had a special understanding and affection It is however for the title story in fact more of a novella of this collection that the writer is best known Recounting the difficulties faced by a young man who is sent to England to study medicine and who then returns to Egypt to pit his new ideals against tradition The Lamp of Umm Hashim was the first of several works in Arabic to deal with the way in which an individual tries to come to terms with two divergent cultures     America ,1920 The Jesuit review of faith and culture Nov 13 2017     The American Mercury Henry Louis Mencken,1924     Ruanaidh - The Story of Art Rooney and His Clan Roy McHugh,2008
