Major Power Relations In Northeast Asia Winwin Or Zerosum Game:

Major Power Relations in Northeast Asia; Win-Win or Zero-Sum Game David M. Lampton, 2001-10 Three countries China Japan and the United States and relations among them are likely to have a disproportionate impact on prospects for peace and prosperity in Asia Pacific in the twenty first century If the differences among these major actors are managed successfully the prospects for the region are bright indeed Conversely if the three fail to manage their relationship successfully or if relations between any two of the parties are seen to threaten the third the risks for the region and beyond will increase dramatically The Economy-security Nexus in Northeast Asia T. J. Pempel, 2013 The dynamics of Northeast Asia have traditionally been considered primarily in military and hard security terms or alternatively along their economic dimensions This book argues that relations among the states of Northeast Asia are far more comprehensible when the mutually shaping interactions between economics and security are considered simultaneously It examines these interactions and some of the key empirical questions they pose the answers to which have important lessons for international relations beyond Northeast Asia Contributors to this volume analyze how the states of the region define their security and how bilateral relations in hard security issues and economic linkages play out among Japan China and the two Koreas Further the chapters interrogate how different patterns of techno nationalist development affect regional security ties and the extent to which closer economic connections enhance or detract from a nation's self perceived security The book concludes by discussing scenarios for the future and the conditions that will shape relations between economics and security in the region This book will be welcomed by students and scholars of Asian politics Asian economics security studies and political economy

Conflict Management and Dispute Settlement in East Asia Ramses Amer, 2016-05-23 Through a multi disciplinary approach this volume studies the management and settlement of conflict and disputes in East Asia Conflict and disputes exist everywhere in human society The management and settlement of them has become an imperative This volume is a significant contribution to a broader understanding of the complexities involved in managing and settling disputes and conflicts at regional inter state and intra state levels in the East Asian region Drawing on expertise in Peace and Conflict International Relations and International Law the volume presents to the reader a general picture of how conflict can be managed at the international and regional levels through various mechanisms in particular through prominent regional organizations such as ASEAN It then moves on to case studies at the regional level including inter state and intra state conflicts and disputes The last part of the volume highlights how states resolve their maritime disputes This has drawn much attention from the international community due to various factors such as the increasing demand for natural resources from the oceans These disputes disrupt the smooth development of international relations as well as trigger tensions and confrontation between states

The US Policy Making Process for

Post Cold War China Wenzhao Tao, 2017-07-13 Combining a study of American Think Tanks and a study of American diplomatic policy on China following the Cold War this book explores in detail the policy making process procedures and mechanisms as well as the roles of various interest groups in the policy making process for China related policies Further it dissects the policy making process with regard to selected sensitive policies such as the US diplomatic policy on Taiwan China US trade policy on China US human rights policy on China and US environmental and energy policy on China and analyzes the function and influence of the American Think Tanks in the policy debates Characterized by its high theoretical value wealth of historical materials and painstaking analysis the book is not only of important academic value but also offers a valuable reference guide to support the practical work of related departments in the Chinese government China's Rise - Threat Or Opportunity? Herbert S. Yee, 2010-10-15 This book presents a comprehensive overview of how China's rise is perceived in a wide range of countries and regions these include China's neighbours other world powers the parts of China not part of mainland China Taiwan Hong Kong and Macau and regions of the world where China is having an unexpected impact such as the Middle East Between Ally and Partner Chae-ho Chŏng, 2008 Definitive study on China's relations with the Korean peninsula since the 1970s concentrating on the burgeoning relationship between the Chinese and South Korean governments societies and business communities Japan's Foreign Policy, 1945-2009 Kazuhiko Tōgō, 2010 This book stands out amongst the crop of textbooks on Japanese foreign policy that have been available to date because of its authoritative insider voice Here we not only learn what happened in postwar Japan's foreign policy but what the thinking was behind these decisions This is an invaluable element that brings the reader inside the policy making rooms of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs itself In the process Japan's world view and its own self image are concurrently revealed in fascinating and unexpected ways This book destroys stereotypes and vastly improves the quality of our understanding of Japan as an international player We are spoiled by the wisdom and experience of not just one but three major forces in the shaping of Japan's international existence Mr Tōgō's own formidable experience plus the seminal contributions of his father and grandfather who was instrumental in the closing phases of World War II All of this makes this book indispensable to those who wish to truly understand Japan in her own terms and through her own eyes Rikki Kersten Professor Modern Japanese Political History Australian National University Ambassador Tōgō's distinctive account of Japanese foreign policy highlights the impact of the vacuum left by the humiliation of defeat in 1945 It bears witness to the intellectual and diplomatic challenge of finding answers to unresolved issues including managing the U S alliance and enhancing cooperation in Asia Updated to cover the results of the 2009 victory of the Democratic Party of Japan this book shows how its change of course fits into a long term narrative In contrast to more impersonal often unsympathetic analysis of Western authors and the self serving writing of many Japanese Tōgō offers a guide to Japan's quest not a defense of its choices The result is a wide ranging look at foreign policy over more than 60 years seen from the perspective of an insider attentive to a proud nation's
