

A romantic scene of a man and a woman kissing passionately in the rain. The man is shirtless and wearing light blue jeans, holding the woman in his arms. The woman is wearing a light blue crop top and white shorts, and is being lifted slightly off the ground. They are standing on a wet, reflective surface, possibly a pool deck or a wet street. The background is a blurred view of a body of water and greenery, with rain falling heavily around them. The overall mood is romantic and intimate.

Robinson,2014-03-11 Poems come to me unexpectedly as does the weather to each day Sometimes its fine and sunny and then its dark and stormy often its something caught between these two extremes Just like the weather I have no real control over the form each poem decides to take and its quite a buzz being in the moment when a thought spills onto the page Poetry most definitely has a life of its own and at best all I can do is guide it around the page and hope the reader likes it Love and melancholy are never far away in my poetry and therefore reflecting high emotions they can soar to brilliant heights of glory or self destruct in the deepest depths of doom I make no apology for this for isnt this just life And if nothing else my poems are all about life Kevin Robinson
