Making Of A Nation In The Balkans:

Making and Remaking the Balkans Robert C. Austin, 2019-01-01 With more than 25 years since the collapse of communism the end of the wars and billions of dollars in aid the Balkans are still characterized by corruption state capture and decidedly unmodern states that are often either weak or authoritarian Taking the contemporary Balkans as a starting point Making and Remaking the Balkans studies the region's history combined with observations based on more than twenty years of field experience Primarily concerned with current issues in the Balkans since 1989 this book explains why the region has endured such a prolonged and fraught transition to democracy and eventual membership in the European Union The young and educated have largely left Governmental crisis and economic stagnation is the norm and much needed regional cooperation has been suppressed by renewed nationalism Wars on corruption have proved to be largely rhetorical Making and Remaking the Balkans offers a systematic study of the issues the entire region faces as it struggles to complete the European integration process at a time when the European Union faces bigger problems elsewhere Humanitarian intervention in the long nineteenth century Alexis Heraclides, Ada Dialla, 2015-07-01 This book is a comprehensive presentation of humanitarian intervention in theory and practice during the course of the nineteenth century Through four case studies it sheds new light on the international law debate and the political theory on intervention linking them to ongoing issues and paying particular attention to the lesser known Russian dimension The book begins by tracing the genealogy of the idea of humanitarian intervention to the Renaissance evaluating the Eurocentric gaze of the civilisation barbarity dichotomy and elucidates the international legal arguments of both advocates and opponents of intervention as well as the views of major political theorists It then goes on to examine four cases as humanitarian interventions the Greek War of Independence 1821-31 the Lebanon and Syria 1860-61 the Bulgarian atrocities 1876-78 and the U S intervention in Cuba 1895-98 Humanitarian intervention in the long nineteenth century will be of benefit to scholars and students of international relations international history international law and international political theory An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence Imagining Europe Michael J. Wintle, 2008 The authors of this research collection are not so much interested in what Europe thinks of itself but rather what others think of it They take a number of scenarios from recent history and examine how Europe has appeared to people in other parts of the world America China the Arab world for example Normalizing the Balkans Dušan I. Bjelic, 2016-05-23 Normalizing the Balkans argues that following the historical patterns of colonial psychoanalysis and psychiatry in British India and French Africa as well as Nazi psychoanalysis and psychiatry the psychoanalysis and psychiatry of the Balkans during the 1990s deployed the language of psychic normality to represent the space of the Other as insane geography and to justify its military or its symbolic takeover Freud's self analysis influenced by his journeys through the Balkans was a harbinger of orientalism as articulated by Said However whereas Said intended Orientalism to be a critique of the historical construction of the Orient by and in relation to the West for Freud it constituted a medical and psychic truth Freud's self-orientalization became the structural foundation of psychoanalytic language which had tragic consequences in the Balkans when a demonic conjunction developed between the ingrained self-orientalizing structure of psychoanalysis and the Balkans' own propensity for self-orientalization. In the 1990s in the ex-Yugoslav cultural space psychoanalytic language was used by the Serb psychiatrist-politicians Drs Rašević and Karadžić as conceptual justification for inter-ethnic violence. Kristeva's discourse on abject geography and Žižek's conceptualization of the Balkans as the Real have done violence to the region in an intellectual register on behalf of universal subjectivity. Following Gramsci's and Said's discourse geography Bjelić transmutes the psychoanalytic topos of the imaginary geography of the Balkans into the geopolitics inherent in psychoanalytic language itself and takes to task the practices of normalization that underpin the Balkans' politics of madness.

Nationalism, National Identity and Conflict in Southeast Europe: Towards a Comparative Approach Alexis Heraclides, 2025-07-10

Looking into the intricate relationship between nationalism, national identity and conflict, this book offers a comparative approach to understanding the enduring tensions in Southeast Europe. Alexis Heraclides examines the complex dynamics of five nations: Albanians, Bulgarians, Greeks, Macedonians, and Turks, and four key axes of conflicts: Greece and Turkey, Greece and Macedonia, Bulgaria and Macedonia, and Greece and Albania. Through in-depth analysis, the Heraclides explores how historical narratives and the denial of others' identities fuel protracted rivalry and hinder conflict resolution in the region. From the roots of national identity formation to the manifestations of us versus them mentalities, this work sheds light on the critical interplay between identity and foreign policy. This study is essential for scholars and anyone seeking to understand the deep-seated nationalisms that continue to shape the political landscape of Southeast Europe.

The Politics of Conflict and Transformation Gladys Ganiel, David Mitchell, 2021-11-24. This book contains original research on conflict, peacebuilding, and the current state of identities and relationships in relation to the Northern Ireland conflict. It accesses the state of national identity politics in Northern Ireland a generation after the 1998 Agreement, as well as the impact and meaning of Brexit. It considers feminist and faith-based peace activism during the Troubles and expressions of Irish national identity. It also includes revealing comparative case studies: Protestant-Catholic conflict elsewhere in Europe and nationalism in the Balkans. The Politics of Conflict and Transformation: The Island of Ireland in Comparative Perspective arises from a conference celebrating the work of Jennifer Todd, Professor in the School of Politics and International Relations at University College Dublin, who has been one of the most influential scholars of her generation. Her research has examined conflict and transformation in Ireland from the level of grassroots identities to geopolitical forces. She has placed contemporary crises in the peace process in the context of patterns of conflict and change over centuries. She has both expounded the rich detail of the Northern Ireland and Irish-British conflicts and placed them in their regional and global contexts. Written by some of the leading scholars on peace and conflict in Ireland, the chapters in this edited volume build on Todd's work and are a testament to the thematic and methodological breadth and depth of her output. This book will be of interest to students and scholars of Irish and British history and politics, Peace and Conflict Studies, and the sociology of identity, conflict, and peacebuilding. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Irish Political Studies.

Southeast European Studies in a Globalizing World Christian Promitzer, Siegfried Gruber, Harald Heppner, 2014. Since the early 1990s, Southeast European studies have undergone profound changes, being shaped by the wars of Yugoslav succession and the ramifications of post-socialism, coupled with democratic deficiencies which characterize most of Southeast Europe. The countries which it encompasses rest uneasily on the periphery of the developed variant of Western capitalism, but they have nonetheless to contend with the challenges of adjusting to a market economy The imprint of these contexts on academic research has led to a discussion of the role of Southeast European studies It is the task of this volume to summarize and raise awareness of this discussion Series Studies on South East Europe Vol 16 Subject European Studies Sociology Politics Atlas of the Balkan War, 1912
