Making Of The Filipino Nation Republic:

The Making of the Filipino Nation and Republic Jose Veloso Abueva,1998 The Philippine Republic ,1923 Filipino Nation ,1929 The Filipino People ,1914 Mixed Blessing Hazel McFerson,2001-12-30 Invidious distinctions on the basis of race and overt racism were central features in American colonial policy in the Philippines from 1898 to 1947 as America transported its domestic racial policy to the island colony This collection by young Filipino scholars analyzes American colonialism and its impact on administration and attitudes in the Philippines through the prism of American racial tradition a structural concept which refers to beliefs attitudes images classifications laws and social customs that shape race relations and racial formation in multiracial and colonial societies The dominance of this tradition was manifested in the wanton prerogatives of the U S Congress and others who helped to carry out colonial policy in the region The Spanish flexible racial tradition had resulted in a system based on ethnicity and class as determinants of social and economic structure while the rigid U S racial tradition assigned race the more dominant role The cultural affinity between the early individual American administrators and the Filipino elite however meant that class based distinctions in the islands were not broken up Thus the extreme elitist character of the Philippines economy and society persisted and became impervious to the influences which in other Asian countries led to a progressive weakening of elite structures as the 20th century advanced

Philippine Studies Priscelina Patajo-Legasto,2008 These essays by Philippine and U S based scholars illustrate the dynamism and complexities of the discursive field of Philippine studies as a critique of vestiges of universalist Western hegemonic paradigms as an affirmation of traditional and emergent cultural practices as a site for new readings of old texts and new popular forms brought into the ambit of serious scholarship and as a liberative space for new art and literary genres
