Commentary on Aristotle's Categories Sebastian Walshe, 2025-03-07 Aristotle's Categories remains one of the foundational works in the history of Philosophy At the foundations of all human thought and argument is the precise understanding of our words and in his Categories Aristotle proves to be a master unsurpassed in providing the tools necessary for defining our words and understanding the things signified by them Nevertheless the Categories is a text which is at times obscure and difficult to understand for a modern student Therefore we have provided this volume to remedy the difficulties a modern student may have in understanding the Categories Written in clear style this line by line explanation of the Categories alternates between a universal overview and division of the text and a detailed question and answer format which raises many of the questions modern students have about difficult passages Liberal use is made also of the ancient Greek and Latin commentators on the Categories

Everyday Equalities Ruth Fincher, Kurt Iveson, Helga Leitner, Valerie Preston, 2019-08-13 A timely new look at coexisting without assimilating in multicultural cities If city life is a being together of strangers what forms of being together should we strive for in cities with ethnic and racial diversity Everyday Equalities seeks evidence of progressive political alternatives to racialized inequality that are emerging from everyday encounters in Los Angeles Melbourne Sydney and Toronto settler colonial cities that established through efforts to dispossess and eliminate indigenous societies have been destinations for waves of immigrants from across the globe ever since Everyday Equalities finds such alternatives being developed as people encounter one another in the process of making a home earning a living moving around the city and forming collective actions or communities Here four leading scholars in critical urban geography come together to deliver a powerful and cohesive message about the meaning of equality in contemporary cities Drawing on both theoretical reflection and urban ethnographic research they offer the formulation being together in difference as equals as a normative frame to reimagine the meaning and pursuit of equality in today's urban multicultures As the examples in Everyday Equalities indicate much emotional labor combined with a willingness to learn from each other negotiate across differences and agitate for change goes into constructing environments that foster being together in difference as equals Importantly the authors argue a commitment to equality is not only a hope for a future city but also a way of being together in the present

Making All the Difference Martha Minow, 1990 Martha Minow here takes a hard look at the way our legal system functions She confronts a variety of dilemmas of difference resulting from contradictory legal strategies strategies that attempt to correct inequalities by sometimes recognizing and sometimes ignoring differences Minow argues in effect for a reconstructed jurisprudence based on the ability to recognize and work with perceptible forms of difference

Global Warming and Mass Migration Boris Soukharev, 2025-02-25 This visually compelling book delves into the urgent reality of our changing climate It explores the inevitability of global warming and its far reaching consequences providing convincing evidence that human actions have triggered chain reactions which we cannot stop While increased economic activity and greenhouse gas emissions are significant contributors the most alarming threat lies in the activation of sleeping giants natural climate feedback loops that amplify warming The thawing of permafrost for instance releases potent greenhouse gases further intensifying climate change This vicious cycle once initiated is difficult if not impossible to reverse The book warns that the consequences of unchecked global warming will be severe particularly for the world's most vulnerable populations As temperatures rise the disparity between the wealthy and secure North and the poor and unstable South will widen leading to unprecedented mass migration from the South to the North This massive climate migration could begin within the next one to two decades presenting a significant challenge to global stability and cooperation

Design Outlaws on the Ecological Frontier Chris Zelov, Phil Cousineau, 1997 In Design Outlaws Christopher Zelov Phil Cousineau and Brian Danitz have gathered together the interviews of over twenty of the leading designers and architects from their award winning documentary film Ecological Design Inventing the Future This far reaching collection is lavishly illustrated and will inspire both the professional and the general reader alike
