The Making of an Atlantic Ruling Class Kees Van Der Pijl, 2014-04-22 With The Making of an Atlantic Ruling Class Kees van der Pijl put class formation at the heart of our understanding of world politics and the global economy This landmark study dissects one of the most decisive phenomena of the twentieth century the rise of an Atlantic ruling class of multinational banks and corporations A new preface by the author evaluates the book s significance in the light of recent political and economic developments

The Making of an Atlantic Ruling Class Kees van der Pijl, 1984 The End of Organized Capitalism Scott Lash, John Urry, 2018-03-08 In this thought provoking new book Anthony Smith analyses key debates between historians and social scientists on the role of nations and nationalism in history In a wide ranging analysis of the work of historians sociologists political scientists and others he argues that there are three key issues which have shaped debates in this field first the nature and origin of nations and nationalism second the antiquity or modernity of nations and nationalism and third the role of nations and nationalism in historical and especially recent social change Anthony Smith provides an incisive critique of the debate between modernists perennialists and primordialists over the origins development and contemporary significance of nations and nationalism Drawing on a wide range of examples from antiquity and the medieval epoch as well as the modern world he develops a distinctive ethnosymbolic account of nations and nationalism This important book by one of the world s leading authorities on nationalism and ethnicity will be of particular interest to students and scholars in history sociology and politics

A Ruined Fortress? Alan W. Cafruny, Magnus Ryner, 2003-06-28 This challenging book argues convincingly that research on European integration has lagged behind important theoretical developments in the fields of international relations international political economy and international organization The contributors contend that prevailing theories of integration despite their considerable differences all suffer from an excessive focus on institutions and ideas while overlooking the ways in which these institutions and ideas have promoted a neoliberal agenda during the last decade To overcome these weaknesses this volume draws on one of the key strands of theoretical innovation critical political economy or transnational historical materialism to develop a more comprehensive and consistent analysis of processes of European integration Although not claiming that states have ceded their role as masters of the treaties the contributors develop innovative case studies of national and transnational processes to illustrate the salience of trans European business networks and the primacy of neoliberalism as central organizing concepts of the post Maastricht European project Contributions by Baastian van Apeldoorn Hans J rgen Bieling Alan W Cafruny Ben Clift Stephen Gill Colin Hay Otto Holman Henk Overbeek Kees van der Pijl Magnus Ryner Thorsten Schulten Giles Scott Smith Leila Simona Talani and Matthew Watson

Historical Materialism and Globalisation Mark Rupert, Hazel Smith, 2016-04-29 Now that Soviet style socialism has collapsed upon itself and liberal capitalism offers itself as the natural necessary and absolute condition of human social life on a worldwide scale this book insists that the potentially emancipatory resources of a renewed and perhaps reconstructed historical materialism are more relevant in today's world than ever before. Rather than viewing global capitalism as an elutable natural force, these essays seek to show how a dialectic of power and resistance is at work in the contemporary global political economy producing and contesting new realities and creating conditions in which new forms of collective self-determination become thinkable and materially possible. It will be vital topical reading for anyone interested in international relations, international political economy, sociology and political theory. Historical Materialism and Globalization Mark Rupert, Hazel Smith, 2002. 13 The politics of regulated liberalism: a historical materialist approach to European integration. 14 Historical materialism ideology and the politics of globalizing capitalism. Index. Rooted Globalism Kevin Funk, 2022-10-18. Does the concept of nationality apply to the economic elite or have they shed national identities to form a global capitalist class? In Rooted Globalism, Kevin Funk unpacks dozens of ethnographic interviews he conducted with Latin America's urban-based Arab descendant elite class, some of whom also occupy positions of political power in countries such as Argentina, Brazil, and Chile. Based on extensive fieldwork, Funk illuminates how these elites navigate their Arab ancestry, Latin American host cultures, and roles as protagonists of globalization. With the term rooted globalism, Funk captures the emergence of classed intersectional identities that are simultaneously local, national, transnational, and global. Focusing on an oft-ignored axis of South-South relations between Latin America and the Arab world, Rooted Globalism provides detailed analysis of the identities, worldviews, and motivations of this group and ultimately reveals that rather than obliterating national identities, global capitalism relies on them. Innovation and Transformation in International Studies Stephen Gill, James H. Mittelman, 1997-05-15. This book explores the nature of and conditions for theoretical innovation in international studies. Transnational European Union Wolfram Kaiser, Peter Starie, 2005-11-16. At the beginning of the twenty-first century, the European Union is an increasingly dense transnational social and political space. More and more non-governmental organisations develop transnational links which are usually more intensive within the EU, even if they often extend beyond its borders to the wider world. This multi-disciplinary volume explores the importance of these structures, actors, and relations for EU and European governance in the context of the theoretical debate about European integration in the social sciences. This book delivers theoretical chapters examining and discussing the main conceptual perspectives to studying the transnational EU, to provide a current overview, empirical case studies of transnationalism in practice, on transnational party, trade union, and police cooperation, to transnational education policy making and transnational consensus building in EMU governance. This volume will be of great interest to students in social sciences, contemporary history, and law. Transnational Capital and Class Fractions Bob Jessop, Henk Overbeek, 2018-08-14. Emerging in the late 1970s, the Amsterdam School's AS's most distinctive contribution to international political economy was the systematic incorporation of the Marxian concept of capital fractions into the study of international politics. Contending that politics in advanced capitalist countries takes place in a fundamentally transnationalized space in which the distinction between domestic and international has blurred it shows how in this space politics is structured by competing comprehensive concepts of control Presenting a concise and instructive introduction to the origins development and significance of this distinct approach this book provides a unique overview of the School s contemporary significance for the field Offering a new generation of critical scholars the opportunity to become acquainted at first hand with some of the contributions that have shaped the work of the AS the contributions present critical commentaries discussing the merits and shortcomings of the AS from a variety of perspectives and undertake a self critical evaluation of the current place and value of the AS framework in the broader landscape of approaches to the study of contemporary capitalism Written for scholars and students alike it will be of interest to those working in international political economy international relations and political science political sociology European studies and branches of academic economics such as regulation theory and institutional economics
