HEALING A VIOLENT WORLD

Edited by Carolyn McConnell and Sarah Ruth van Gelder from YES! A Journal of Positive Futures

Making Peace Healing A Violent World

Shawn Graves, Marlena Graves

Making Peace Healing A Violent World:

Making Peace Carolyn McConnell, Sarah Ruth Van Gelder, 2003 The Compassionate Rebel Revolution Burt Berlowe, 2011 In this compassionate rebel sequel we look at how millions of individual citizen actions have become a massive social change movement that offers every person a chance to make a difference in the world We feature 65 everyday heroes who have turned adversity into triumph compassion into commitment and anger into activism and whose acts of caring and courage are transforming society The Gospel of Peace in a Violent World Shawn Graves, Marlena Graves, 2022-08-16 The gospel of Jesus Christ is the good news of peace Gathering contributions from theologians pastors and practitioners Shawn Graves and Marlena Graves cast a vision of Christian nonviolence in today's world not only responding to the realities of war but also offering a deeper understanding of peace a holistic shalom Nnedi Okorafor Sandra J. Lindow, 2023-02-08 This work is the first book length scholarly treatment of Nnedi Okorafor's critically acclaimed fiction Written for an audience that includes serious fans as well as scholars it is an introduction to Okorafor's work and major influences The scope of the text is ambitious featuring detailed analyses of her novels short story collection memoir comics and graphic novel Particular emphasis is given to Okorafor's most enduring themes which include healthy young adult development and decision making the interweaving of fantasy and science fiction flight as a unifying force and the use of innovative biotechnology in ecological utopian communities Influences examined include feminism Afrofuturist and Africanfuturist movements and African mythology Chapters also detail Okorafor's examinations of colonialism and corporate neocolonialism in Africa and Africa's potential to become a major world power Social Change and Intersectional Activism Sharon Doetsch-Kidder, 2012-06-04 Reading texts in relation to feminist queer and race theory and Buddhist philosophy this book argues that an understanding of spirit is critical to explaining the power that social movements have to change hearts minds and social structures

Sustainable Happiness Sarah van Gelder, 2015-01-01 We're bombarded by messages telling us that bigger and better things are the keys to happiness but after we pile up the stuff and pile on the work hours we end up exhausted and broke on a planet full of trash Sarah van Gelder and her colleagues at YES Magazine have been exploring the meaning of real happiness for eighteen years Here they offer fascinating research in depth essays and compelling personal stories by visionaries such as Annie Leonard Matthieu Ricard and Vandana Shiva showing us that real well being is found in supportive relationships and thriving communities opportunities to make a contribution and the renewal we receive from a thriving natural world In the pages of this book you'll find creative and practical ways to cultivate a happiness that is nurturing enduring and life affirming Censored 2014 Mickey Huff, Andy Lee Roth, Project Censored, 2013-10-08 Truthout's Progressive Pick of the Week Ralph Nader's 10 Books to Provoke Conversation in 2014 Every year since 1976 Project Censored our nation's oldest news monitoring group a university wide project at Sonoma State University founded by Carl Jensen directed for many years by Peter Phillips and now under the leadership of Mickey Huff has produced a Top 25 list of underreported news stories and a book Censored dedicated to the stories that ought to be top features on the nightly news but that are missing because of media bias and self censorship Seven Stories Press has been publishing this yearbook since 1994 featuring the top stories listed democratically in order of importance according to an international panel of judges Beyond the Top 25 stories additional chapters delve further into timely media topics The Censored News and Media Analysis section provides annual updates on Junk Food News and News Abuse Censored Deja Vu signs of hope in the alternative and news media and the state of media bias and alternative coverage around the world In the Truth Emergency section scholars and journalists take a critical look at the US NATO military industrial media empire And in the Project Censored International section the meaning of media democracy worldwide is explored in close association with Project Censored affiliates in universities and at media organizations all over the world A perennial favorite of booksellers teachers and readers everywhere Censored is one of the strongest lifesigns of our current collective desire to get the news we citizens need despite what Big Media tells us

Healing Our Broken Humanity Grace Ji-Sun Kim, Graham Hill, 2018-08-28 We live in conflicted times We want to see justice restored because Jesus calls us to be a peacemaking and reconciling people But how do we do this Grace Ji Sun Kim and Graham Hill offer ten ways to transform society from lament and repentance to relinquishing power reinforcing agency and more Embodying these practices enables us to be the new humanity in Jesus Christ

Making Peace with Faith Michelle Garred, Mohammed Abu-Nimer, 2018-01-15 Although religion is almost never a root cause it often gets pulled into conflict as a powerful element especially where conflicting parties have different religious identities Every faith tradition offers resources for peace and secular policy makers are more and more acknowledging the influence of faith based actors even though there remains a tendency to associate religion more with conflict than peace In this text practitioners from different faiths relate and explore the many challenges they face in their peacebuilding work which their secular partners may be unaware of The contributors are all practitioners whose faith or religious experience motivates their work for peace and justice in such a way that it influences their actions Their roles are diverse as some work for faith based institutions while others engage in secular contexts The multiple perspectives featured represent multiple faiths Muslim Christian Hindu Buddhist Jewish diverse scopes of practice different geographic regions Each chapter follows a similar template to address specific challenges such as dealing with extremist views addressing negative stereotypes about one's faith endorsing violence developing relations with other faith based or secular groups confronting gender based violence and working with people who hold different beliefs In this text practitioners from different faiths relate and explore the many challenges they face in their peacebuilding work which their secular partners may be unaware of They provide a comprehensive view of the practice of peacebuilding in its many challenging aspects for both professionals and those studying religion and peacebuilding alike

Cultures of Curriculum Pamela Bolotin Joseph, 2011-05-20 Using cultures of curriculum as a lens this clear compelling text reveals and critically examines the belief systems and classroom practices of curricular orientations in contemporary American society It is designed to foster awareness examination and deliberation about the curricula planned for and carried out in classrooms and schools to inspire conversations about theory and practice as well as political social and moral issues and to expand critical consciousness about approaches to curriculum and practice Readers are encouraged to give serious attention to the issues this book raises for them and to join with their colleagues students and communities in considering how to create curricula with purpose and congruent practices and to reculture classrooms and schools A framework of inquiry is presented to facilitate such reflection and to accomplish these goals Cultures of Curriculum Second Edition Introduces the field of curriculum studies by describing theories and questions pertinent to curriculum inquiry Describes the process of curriculum leadership drawing from historical and contemporary research on curriculum change and transformation Presents the concept of cultures of curriculum as a way of thinking of curriculum as cultural text encompassing histories norms beliefs values roles and environments Connects theory to practice by describing curricular orientations as depicted in practice providing educators with approaches to instruction planning and assessment for creating intentional practices in classrooms and schools Uses a heuristic that helps educators to understand curricular orientations examine curriculum in classrooms and schools and reflect upon their own beliefs and practices Integrates moral and political discourse into discussions of curriculum orientations so that educators can recognize question and challenge aims and actions by examining dominant paradigms and both their direct and unforeseeable influences upon schooling Changes in the second edition Four new chapters Narrowing the Curriculum current trends of standardization and high stakes testing Educating Through Occupations Deweyan progressive and career technical education Sustaining Indigenous Traditions Native American indigenous education Envisioning Peace peace global human rights environmental education Updates and pertinent scholarship in all chapters reflecting recent events and discourses Curricular cultures all are examples of progressive alternatives to traditional education New two part structure Curriculum Studies and Curricular Cultures
