New Directions in Telecommunications Policy: Information policy and economic policy Paula R. Newberg,1989 New Directions in Telecommunications Policy: Regulatory policy, telephony and mass media Paula R. Newberg,1989

Communication, Commerce and Power Edward A. Comor,2016-01-06 In this history of US based direct broadcast satellite developments the United States and other nation states are shown to be the ultimate arbiters of their ongoing histories In making this now unfashionable argument Edward A Comor directly challenges recent academic work that tends to privilege global processes over national and argues that the contemporary world order is being shaped primarily by transnational rather than nation state based forces In testing this orientation with empirical research on US foreign communication policy since 1960 Communication Commerce and Power compels academics and policy makers to rethink commonplace assumptions about the characteristics and potentials of the contemporary and future international political economy The Future of the Mass Audience W. Russell Neuman,1991-11-29 This book focuses on how the changing technology and economics of the mass media in post industrial society will influence public communication The Froehlich/Kent
