New Directions In The Study Of Justice Law And Social Control:

New Directions in the Study of Justice, Law, and Social Control School of Justice Studies, 2013-11-11 The publication of this anthology culminates what began as a Visiting Distinguished Scholars Lecture Series sponsored by the School of Justice Studies When Dr John M Johnson was awarded the Arizona State University Graduate College's Distinguished Research Award for 1986-1987 the School faculty voted to use the accompanying stipend to bring several scholars to campus Each visiting scholar was commissioned to present an original paper on contemporary issues in justice and to meet with graduate students and faculty during a week long visit to campus This collection of essays promotes wide ranging conceptions of justice As first conceived we sought to bring an interdisciplinary perspective to the study of justice as a way of intellectually extending the current focus of research and teaching As it developed the collection permitted us to reflect on our own instructional program in law and the social sciences and to promote a conception of social conflict and control which includes social political economic and legal controls

New Directions in the Study of Justice School of Justice Studies, 2014-01-15 Mirrors of Justice Kamari Maxine Clarke, Mark Goodale, 2010 Mirrors of Justice is a groundbreaking study of the meanings of and possibilities for justice in the contemporary world The book brings together a group of both prominent and emerging scholars to reconsider the relationships between justice international law culture power and history through case studies of a wide range of justice processes The book's eighteen authors examine the ambiguities of justice in Europe Africa Latin America Asia the Middle East and Melanesia through critical empirical and historical chapters The introduction makes an important contribution to our understanding of the multiplicity of justice in the twenty first century by providing an interdisciplinary theoretical framework that synthesizes the book's chapters with leading edge literature on human rights legal pluralism and international law

The Social Structure of Right and Wrong Donald Black, 2014-05-10 The Social Structure of Right and Wrong focuses on formulations that predict and explain the nature of social control throughout the world and across history The publication first offers information on social control as a dependent variable crime as a social control and compensation and the social structure of misfortune Discussions focus on the theory of compensation traditional self help concept of social control varieties of normative behavior models of social control and quantity of normative variation The text then elaborates on social control of the self and elementary forms of conflict management The manuscript takes a look at the theory of third party and on taking sides including legal latent and slow partisanship social gravitation models of partisanship settlement roles partisanship in tribal societies and typology of third parties The text then examines the factors involved in making enemies as well as social repulsion moral evolution and third party and unilateral moralism The publication is a dependable source of data for sociologists and researchers interested in the social structure of right and wrong

Diversion and Informal Social Control Günter Albrecht (sociologia), Wolfgang Ludwig-Mayerhofer, 1995 Scholars from several countries discuss alternatives to traditional juvenile justice detailing theory and practice in methods such as non intervention reintegrative shaming and victim offender mediation and looking at criminological ethical and legal aspects of such alternatives Of interest t Under Sentence of Death W. Fitzhugh Brundage,2017-11-01 From the assembled work of fifteen leading scholars emerges a complex and provocative portrait of lynching in the American South With subjects ranging in time from the late antebellum period to the early twentieth century and in place from the border states to the Deep South this collection of essays provides a rich comparative context in which to study the troubling history of lynching Covering a broad spectrum of methodologies these essays further expand the study of lynching by exploring such topics as same race lynchings black resistance to white violence and the political motivations for lynching In addressing both the history and the legacy of lynching the book raises important questions about Southern history race relations and the nature of American violence Though focused on events in the South these essays speak to patterns of violence injustice and racism that have plagued the entire nation The contributors are Bruce E Baker E M Beck W Fitzhugh Brundage Joan E Cashin Paula Clark Thomas G Dyer Terence Finnegan Larry J Griffin Nancy MacLean William S McFeely Joanne C Sandberg Patricia A Schechter Roberta Senechal de la Roche Stewart E Tolnay and George C Wright

Counseling and the Therapeutic State James J. Chriss, The Canadian Criminal Justice System Nick Larsen,1995 The administration of justice is an area of social policy that defies attempts to achieve a balance between order and the protection of the public and respect for individual rights The media contain daily accounts of the failure of the criminal justice system to repress crime It is within this social and legal context that this work is situated In addition to including a range of articles in the standard areas of policing courts and corrections recent articles deal with such controversial issues as aboriginal justice the recruitment of visible minorities by Canadian police forces and the role of women in the Canadian criminal justice system The collection concludes with a critical assessment of the retributive model that currently serves as the philosophical underpinnings of the Canadian criminal justice system The Therapeutic Corporation James Tucker,1999 A small but rapidly increasing number of contemporary organizations have adopted management structures that are less centralized and hierarchical than the traditional bureaucratic model In a growing corporate trend that is also expanding into many other areas of modern society these organizations are applying various therapeutic strategies of social control

Contrarian Anthropology Laura Nader,2018-01-08 Analyzing the workings of boundary maintenance in the areas of anthropology energy gender and law Nader contrasts dominant trends in academia with work that pushes the boundaries of acceptable methods and theories Although the selections illustrate the history of one anthropologist s work over half a century the wider intent is to label a field as contrarian to reveal unwritten rules that sometimes hinder transformative thinking and to stimulate boundary crossing in others
