New European Identity And Citizenship Research In Migration And Ethnic Relations Series:

New European Identity and Citizenship Remy Leveau, Khajida Mohsen-Finan, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2002 This study undertaken with the support of the Ford Foundation under the scientific leadership of Khadija Mohsen Finan Remy Leveau and Catherine Wihtol de Wenden considers the new forms of citizenship and identity that have emerged within the settlements of immigrant populations in various countries in Europe Through their claims to citizenship shifting religious identities and by occupying the high ground both locally and at European level these communities challenge long standing citizenship models and give full meaning to the concepts of supranational European citizenship The contributors question whether such European citizenship will include all residents of Europe or whether it will serve to increase the exclusion felt by certain groups of migrants In particular the contributors examine the implications of three emerging citizenship trends the impact of the demand for Islam the emergence of undocumented migrants and their inclusion in an increasingly stratified society and finally the rising tide of ordinary or political refugees who are challenging European citizenship on their own terms

The Transformation of Citizenship, Volume 2 Jürgen Mackert, Bryan S. Turner, 2017-03-16 This volume Boundaries of Inclusion and Exclusion examines the many different and newly emerging ways in which citizenship refers to spatial symbolic and social boundaries Today in the context of citizenship we face processes of inclusion and exclusion on national and supranational level but no less on the level of groups and individuals The book addresses these different levels and discusses processes of inclusion and exclusion with regard to spatial social and symbolic boundaries referring to such different problems as political participation migration or identity with regard to religion or the EU This book will appeal to academics working in the field of political theory political sociology and European studies

Ethnic Minorities and Inter-ethnic Relations in Context Karen Phalet, Antal Orkeny, 2017-10-19 This volume is based on papers presented on ethnic minorities and inter ethnic relations in Hungary and The Netherlands which were presented and discussed in three conferences and a series of meetings from 1997 1999 This work builds on comparative studies of the rise of a radical right and the mobilization of anti immigrant feelings It presents cross national comparative research due to the credence that shifting national angles is a powerful strategic tool with which to correct national bias and to uncover submerged or overlooked aspects of specific national cases The book brings together contributions from Hungarian and Dutch scholars in the field of ethnic minorities and inter ethnic relations The two countries are used as exemplary cases of distinct ethno political patterns in Central and Western Europe Combining complementary configurational and dimensional approaches to cross national comparison the diverse forms of ethnic relations in Hungary and The Netherlands are analyzed and competing explanations of ethno political conflict or co ordination are tested in both national contexts

Security, Insecurity and Migration in Europe Gabriella Lazaridis, 2016-04-01 Having often been framed in terms of security concerns migration issues have simultaneously given rise to issues of insecurity on the one hand security of borders political societal and economic security insecurity in the host country on the other social legal and economic concerns about human security with regard to both EU citizens and migrants entering Europe In terms of state security migration is a core target of increasingly globally networked surveillance capabilities whilst with respect to human security it exposes the gap between the protections that migrants formally enjoy under international law and the realities they experience as they travel and work across different countries Drawing on the latest research from across the EU Security Insecurity and Migration explores the concerns of states with regard to migration and the need to protect the fundamental rights of migrants An interdisciplinary examination of the issues of security and insecurity raised by migration for states their citizens and migrants themselves this book will be of interest to scholars of politics sociology and geography researching migration race and ethnicity human and state security and EU politics and policy

Paradoxes of Cultural Recognition Sharam Alghasi,2016-05-13 Explicitly comparative in its approach Paradoxes of Cultural Recognition discusses central issues regarding multiculturalism in today s Europe based on studies of Norway and the Netherlands Distinguishing clearly the four social fields of the media education the labour market and issues relating to gender it presents empirical case studies which offer valuable insights into the nature of majority minority relationships whilst raising theoretical questions relevant for further comparisons With clear comparisons of integration and immigration policies in Europe and engagement with the questions surrounding the need for more culturally sensitive policies this volume will be of interest to scholars and policy makers alike

Extra-Territorial Ethnic Politics, Discourses and Identities in Hungary Szabolcs Pogonyi,2017-07-19 This book explores the causes and consequences of the discursive and legal construction of the Hungarian transborder nation through the institutionalization of non resident citizenship and voting Through the in depth analysis of Hungarian transborder and diaspora politics this book investigates how the political engagement of non resident Hungarians impacts inter and intra state ethnic relations In addition the research also explores how institutional changes and shifting discursive strategies reify and redefine ethnic belonging narratives and the self perception of Hungarians living outside the country The research uses a multidisciplinary qualitative methodology which includes institutional historical rational choice and sociological analysis discourse analysis as well as interpretive methods Through the inventive application of multiple methodologies the book goes beyond the mostly institutional legal analysis dominant in the study of citizenship

Cosmopolitan Theology Namsoon Kang,2013-11-15 In Cosmopolitan Theology author Namsoon Kang proposes a theology that embraces and at the same time moves beyond collective identity position and group based allegiances It crosses borders of gender race nationality religion ethnicity sexuality and ability Kang offers a vision of a global community of radical inclusion solidarity and deep compassion and justice for others Blending theology with philosophy she crosses borders of academism and activism and the discursive borders of modernism postmodernism feminism and postcolonialism Cosmopolitan Theology sheds a new light both in academia and the community of Christian believers by providing a public relevance of Jesus teaching of neighbor love hospitality and solidarity in our world today      Citizenship and Intercultural Dialogue Christine Laton,2018-07-17 In the wake of tragic terrorist attacks in Western Europe so called parallel communities have come under increased scrutiny and pressure to be engaged and integrated in the politics and society of the country of settlement In this context the tools of intercultural dialogue and citizenship have been proposed to bridge the gap between majority and minority communities Yet how are these concepts understood on the ground This book explores perceptions of citizenship and intercultural dialogue among minority youth in Berlin and London chosen for their contrasting citizenship and immigration policies Germany has a strong ethnic heritage and the presence of a large minority community from Turkey The policies and relationship with the Turkish community have often served to perpetuate cultural and ethnic boundaries their presence overshadowing the numerous other ethnicities living within Germany In the UK the large presence of immigrants of Afro Caribbean and Asian descent often dominates centre stage in a much more territorially defined political context while the needs and demands of smaller communities are not commonly known Nonetheless these smaller communities shape and even offer unique insights into the way that local contexts interact with international and transnational structures It is argued that in both cities minority youths communicated feelings and experiences of marginalization and contestation generally feeling a sense of belonging to their local neighbourhoods but not to broader society The book explores the process of valuisation the idea that a value is put on an immigrant according to their desirability or undesirability based on ethnicity or skills Furthermore it assesses the role of education as a mediator between state and society By arguing that local engagement has international ramifications and highlighting the importance of the role of youth in international politics this book offers a new perspective on International Relations and Diaspora Studies

Policy-Making in Britain Maurice Mullard,2005-08-04 The book provides a broad based introduction to policy making in Britain exploring the legacy of the Thatcher era and charting the new context of policy making in the 1990s The authors examine the policy process within its ideological political and economic context discussing both the influence of Europe and the influence of local government Having established a broad framework for analysis the book focuses on a selection of particular policy areas public expenditure the NHS Next Steps water privatisation pensions education and immigration The aim of the book is to give a sense of the actual dynamics of policy making and to encourage students to think about the likely outcomes of policy change while making the connections between British public policy and the environment in which it is shaped
