Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1971 Publication, 1991 Abandoned Women and Poetic Tradition Lawrence Lipking, 1988-09-15 At the heart of poetic tradition is a figure of abandonment a woman forsaken and out of control She appears in writings ancient and modern in the East and the West in high art and popular culture produced by women and by men What accounts for her perennial fascination What is her function in poems and for writers Lawrence Lipking suggests many possibilities In this figure he finds a partial record of women's experience an instrument for the expression of religious love and yearning a voice for psychological fears and finally a model for the poet Abandoned women inspire new ways of reading poems and poetic tradition The Selling and Self-Regulation of Contemporary Poetry J.T. Welsch, 2020-03-31 The Selling and Self Regulation of Contemporary Poetry is the first book length study of the contemporary poetry industry By documenting radical changes over the past decade in the way poems are published sold and consumed it connects the seemingly small world of poetry with the other wider creative industries In reassessing an art form that has been traditionally seen as free from or even resistant to material concerns the book confronts the real pressures and real opportunities faced by poets and publishers in the wake of economic and cultural shifts since 2008 The changing role of anthologies prizes and publishers are considered alongside new technologies new arts policy and re conceptions of poetic labour Ultimately it argues that poetry's continued growth and diversification also leaves individuals with more responsibility than ever for sustaining its communities Reflections on The Moral & Spiritual Crisis in Education David E. Purpel, William M. McLaurin, 2004 This book takes a sharply critical view of contemporary society with a searing indictment of our morally and intellectually bankrupt educational system Uniquely the book contains both the original version of David Purpel's highly influential Moral and Spiritual Crisis in Education first published in 1989 as well as an updated critique of that work reflections from our current times of growing despair about the directions of education and the nation Reflections on the Moral and Spiritual Crisis in Education focuses on the possibility and necessity of generating hope through the redemptive and energizing power of the human spirit Life Writing Meg Jensen, Jane Jordan, 2009-03-26 In our age self publishing self broadcasting and telling stories about our own lives and the lives of others are all pervasive This is also the age of the witness the age of testimony in which first hand accounts personal experience life change and evolution are valued for good or ill over distanced reflection What are we to make of all this telling of lives The essays collected in Life Writing The Spirit of the Age and the State of the Art from writers and academics associated with the Centre for Life Narrative Studies at Kingston University in London begin to address this very question and in doing so demonstrate the fluidity and diversity of life writing itself The remit of the Centre for Life Narratives is to rise to the challenge poised to writers teachers and researchers alike by this very fluidity and diversity in our discipline and is exemplified here with contributions from academics curators editors and biographers including Neal Ascherson Victoria Glendinning Professor Kathryn Hughes Hanif Kureishi Blake Morrison and Lawrence Goldman editor of the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography This collection of essays from CLN offers the reader our founding contribution to the debates that surround this era defining genre and as such presents both the state of the art and the spirit of our age
